Item 4 – Advisory Services

A. Firm Information

Worth Financial Management LLC dba WorthFM (“WorthFM” or the “Advisor”) is a Registered Investment Advisor with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The Advisor is organized as a Limited Liability Company (“LLC”) under the laws of the State of Delaware. WorthFM was founded in April 2015, initially under the business name Balanced Worldwide Financial LLC and changed its name to Worth Financial Management LLC in February 2016. WorthFM is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Worth Financial Holdings Inc. Indirectly, Amanda M. Steinberg (Chief Executive Officer) is a material owner of WorthFM through WorthFH and other entities.

The Chief Compliance Officer of WorthFM is Bridgot S. Basile. Ms. Basile can be reached at (610) 842-0694.

This Disclosure Brochure provides information regarding the qualifications, business practices, and the advisory services provided by WorthFM.

B. Advisory Services Offered

WorthFM offers investment advisory and related services to individuals, high net worth individuals, and other types of clients (each referred to as a “Client”).

Investment Management Services

WorthFM provides investment advisory solutions for its Clients with asset allocation investment strategies primarily delivered through the Advisor’s interactive website at www.WorthFM.com. Through interactive tools and advice models, the Advisor shall assist the Client with developing and implementing an investment and savings strategies. The Client will be directed to establish its Account[s] at the Custodian, which typically include an “Investment Account”, “Retirement Account” and a Savings Account (each herein an “Account” and collectively the “Accounts” or the “WorthFM Bundle”). The Client may contact the Advisor at any time for additional advice and support.

For the Investment Account and the Retirement Account, the Advisor will implement a portfolio strategy consistent with the Clients goals, financial situations and tolerance for investment risk. Once the Client and the Advisor have determined the investment strategy for the Client, the Advisor will implement the portfolio, which shall consist primarily of exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”).

Accounts are established in a “wrap fee” structure, which includes the costs for securities transaction fees on the overall investment advisory fee. Please see Item 4.D. below.

WorthFM’s investment strategy is primarily long-term focused, but the Advisor may buy, sell or re-allocate positions that have been held less than one year to meet the objectives of the Client or due to market conditions. WorthFM will construct, implement and monitor the portfolio to ensure it meets the goals, objectives, circumstances, and risk tolerance agreed to by the Client. WorthFM evaluates and selects investments for inclusion in Client portfolios only after applying its internal due diligence process. WorthFM may recommend, on occasion, redistributing investment allocations to diversify the portfolio. The Advisor may recommend employing cash positions as a possible hedge against market movement. The Advisor may recommend selling positions for reasons that include, but are not limited to, business or sector risk exposure to a specific security or class of securities, overvaluation or overweighting of the position[s] in the portfolio, change in risk tolerance of Client, and/or generating cash to meet Client needs.

WorthFM also engages additional portfolio research and trading expertise through sub-advisory relationships. These partnerships enable WorthFM to deliver institutional caliber investment offerings through a highly effective technology platform.

WorthFM will provide investment advisory services and portfolio management services and will not provide securities custodial or other administrative services. At no time will WorthFM accept or maintain custody of a Client’s funds or securities, except for authorized deduction of the Advisor’s fees. All Client assets will be managed within its respective Account, pursuant to the terms of the investment advisory agreement with the Advisor.

Financial Planning Services

WorthFM will typically provide a variety of financial planning, consulting and education services to Clients. Services may be delivered through advice-based workshops or through direct engagement with the Advisor. Services are offered in several areas of a Client's financial situation, depending on their goals, objectives and financial situation.

Generally, such financial planning services will involve preparing a financial plan or rendering a financial consultation based on the Client's financial goals and objectives. This planning or consulting may encompass one or more areas of need, including, but not limited to investment planning, retirement planning, estate planning, personal savings, education savings and other areas of a Client's financial situation.

A financial plan developed for or financial consultation rendered to the Client will usually include general recommendations for a course of activity or specific actions to be taken by the Client. For example, recommendations may be made that the Client start or revise their investment programs, commence or alter retirement savings, establish education savings and/or charitable giving programs. WorthFM may also refer Clients to an accountant, attorney or other specialist, as appropriate for their unique situation. For certain financial planning engagements, the Advisor will provide a written summary of Client's financial situation, observations, and recommendations. For consulting or ad-hoc engagements, the Advisor may not provide a written summary. Plans or consultations are typically completed within six months of contract date, assuming all information and documents requested are provided promptly.

Financial planning and consulting recommendations may pose a potential conflict between the interests of the Advisor and the interests of the Client. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendations made by the Advisor or maintain an ongoing relationship with the Advisor. If the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations made by the Advisor, the Client is under no obligation to implement the transaction through the Advisor.

C. Client Account Management

Prior to engaging WorthFM to provide investment advisory services, each Client is required to enter into one or more agreements with the Advisor that define the terms, conditions, authority and responsibilities of the Advisor and the Client. An individual may be able to access certain pages and tools on the Advisor's website[s] without engaging the Advisor under an investment advisory agreement. Such use of the Advisor's website[s] is subject to the terms and conditions of those site[s].

Advisory services generally include:

- Establishing an Investment Policy – WorthFM will provide the Client with interactive tools to assist the Client in defining investment goals and objectives.
- Asset Allocation – WorthFM will develop a strategic asset allocation that is targeted to meet the investment objectives, time horizon, financial situation and tolerance for risk for the Client.
- Portfolio Construction – WorthFM will develop a portfolio for the Client that is intended to meet the stated goals and objectives of the Client.
- Investment Management and Supervision – WorthFM will provide investment management and ongoing oversight of the Client's account[s].

D. Wrap Fee Programs

The Advisor provides its investment advisory and related services in a combined or "wrapped" fee structure. The combination of investment advisory fees payable to WorthFM and securities transactions costs into a single, bundled fee structure is considered a "Wrap Fee Program". The WorthFM Wrap Fee Program Brochure is included as Appendix 1 to this Disclosure Brochure and shall always be provided together. Clients that engage in a wrap fee structure may pay more or less than purchasing such investments separately through other providers. For additional information on fees, please see Item 5 – Fees and Compensation.

E. Assets Under Management

As of August 31, 2017, WorthFM manages $2,740,894, in discretionary assets. Clients may request more current information at any time by contacting the Advisor.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

The following paragraphs detail the fee structure and compensation methodology for services provided by the Advisor. Each Client shall electronically execute an investment advisory agreement with the Advisor that details the responsibilities of WorthFM and the Client. The Client may also be required to execute agreement[s] with the Custodian to establish accounts.

A. Fees for Advisory Services

Investment Advisory Services

The Client will pay the Advisor an investment advisory fee that is based on the assets under management in the Investment Account and Retirement Account, excluding the value of the Client's Savings Account. The Client will be charged a monthly asset-based fee, at an annual rate of 0.50%, based on the fair market value of portfolio assets under management in the Investment Account and Retirement Account at the end of each month. The investment advisory fees in the first month of the Agreement shall be prorated from the inception date of the Account[s] to the end of the first month.

Fees are not negotiable and are not based on an aggregation of all Client Accounts. All securities held in Accounts managed by WorthFM will be independently valued by the Custodian. WorthFM will not have the authority or responsibility to value portfolio securities.

Financial Planning Services

Financial planning services are offered for a fixed fee per engagement fee ranging from $500 to $4,000, depending on the scope and complexity of the services to be provided. Financial planning services are completed within 6 months of initial engagement. The Client may re-engage the Advisor for additional services at any time.

B. Fee Billing

Investment Advisory Services

Investment advisory fees will be calculated by the Advisor or its delegate and deducted from the Client's Account[s] at the Custodian. WorthFM will deduct its fees from the respective Investment Account or Retirement Account. The Advisor or its delegate shall invoice the Custodian providing the amount of the fees to be deducted from the Client's Account[s] at the respective month-end date. The amount due is calculated by applying the monthly rate (annual rate divided by 12) to the total assets under management in the Account[s] at the end of each month. Clients will be provided with a statement (at least quarterly) from the Custodian reflecting deduction of the investment advisory fees. In addition, the Advisor makes information regarding the Client's Account[s] and fees available to the Client via our website at www.WorthFM.com. It is the responsibility of the Client to verify the accuracy of these fees as listed on the Custodian's brokerage statement as the Custodian does not assume this responsibility. The Client provides written authorization permitting WorthFM to be paid directly from its Account[s] held by the Custodian as part of the investment advisory agreement and separate Account forms provided by the Custodian.

Financial Planning Services

Fees for financial planning and consulting fees are collected in full upon the execution of the financial planning or consulting agreement.

C. Other Fees and Expenses

Clients may incur certain fees or charges imposed by third parties, other than WorthFM, in connection with investments made on behalf of the Client's Account[s]. The Advisor typically includes securities transactions costs, if any, as part of its overall advisory fees. The Advisor seeks to implement portfolios using ETFs that are not charged a securities transaction fee by the Custodian. Please see Item 4.D. above.

In addition, all fees paid to WorthFM for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the expenses charged by ETFs to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each ETF's prospectus. These fees and expenses will generally be used to pay management fees for the ETFs, other fund expenses, account administration (e.g., custody, brokerage and account reporting). A Client could invest in these products directly, without the services of WorthFM, but would not receive the services provided by WorthFM which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which products or services are most appropriate for each Client's financial situation and objectives. Accordingly, the Client should review both the fees charged by the fund[s] and the fees charged by WorthFM to fully understand the total fees to be paid.

D. Advance Payment of Fees and Termination

Investment Advisory Services

WorthFM is compensated for its services at the end of the quarter, after investment advisory services are rendered. Clients may request to terminate their investment advisory agreement with WorthFM, at any time, by providing advance written notice. The Client shall be responsible for investment advisory fees and other fees, up to and including the effective date of termination. The Client's investment advisory agreement with the Advisor is non-transferable without the Client's consent as defined by Section 205(a) of the Advisers Act.

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

The Advisor is compensated for its services in advance. Either party may terminate a planning agreement, at any time, by providing written notice to the other party. The agreement may be terminated within 14 calendar days for a full refund. After the 14-day period, the Client shall be responsible for fees based on the percentage of the services utilized or completed. An early termination fee of up to 25% of the planning fee shall be assessed. Upon termination, any unearned prepaid fees will be promptly refunded to the Client. The Client's financial planning agreement with the Advisor is non-transferable without the Client's written approval.

E. Compensation for Sales of Securities

WorthFM does not buy or sell securities and does not receive any compensation for securities transactions in any Client Account, other than the investment advisory fees noted above.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

WorthFM does not charge performance-based fees for its investment advisory services. The fees charged by Worth are as described in "Item 5 – Fees and Compensation" above and are not based upon the capital appreciation of the funds or securities held by any Client.

WorthFM does not manage any proprietary investment funds or limited partnerships (for example, a mutual fund or a hedge fund) and has no financial incentive to recommend any particular investment options to its Clients.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

WorthFM offers investment advisory and related services to individuals, high net worth individuals, and other types of clients, delivered primarily through its interactive web site www.WorthFM.com. WorthFM requires a minimum initial account size of $50 to establish a relationship.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

A. Methods of Analysis

WorthFM employs a top down, asset allocation approach in developing the overall investment strategies for its Clients. WorthFM utilizes mostly ETFs to construct diversified, model asset class portfolios that form the building blocks for its investment recommendations. Quantitative analysis is used to measure the systematic risk of each model. Qualitative assessment, stress testing, and scenario analysis are used to dimension and report other risk exposures. WorthFM blends model portfolios with different allocation weights to attempt to achieve clients' risk and return objectives. Research and analysis from WorthFM is derived primarily from its institutional sub-advisory relationships.

As noted above, WorthFM generally employs a long-term investment strategy for its Clients, as consistent with their financial goals. WorthFM will typically hold all or a portion of a security for more than a year, but may hold for shorter periods for the purpose of rebalancing a portfolio or meeting the cash needs of Clients. At times, WorthFM may also buy and sell positions that are more short-term in nature, depending on the goals of the Client and/or the fundamentals of the security, sector or asset class.

B. Risk of Loss

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities involves certain investment risks. Securities may fluctuate in value or lose value. WorthFM will assist Clients in determining an appropriate strategy based on their tolerance for risk and other factors noted above. However, there is no guarantee that a Client will meet their investment goals. Investing in securities and other investments involve a risk of loss that each Client should understand and be willing to bear. Additional details regarding the risks associated with a Client's investment portfolio are also provided on the Advisor's websites.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

WorthFM and its advisory personnel value the trust you place in us. As we advise all Clients, we encourage you to perform the requisite due diligence on any advisor or service provider with whom you partner. Our backgrounds are on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching with our firm name or our CRD# 281672.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

The sole business of WorthFM is to provide investment advisory services to its Clients and is not involved in other business endeavors. WorthFM does not maintain any affiliations with other firms, other than contracted service providers to assist with the servicing of its Client's Accounts.

Financial Media Company

Supervised Persons of WorthFM may also be employed by Dailyworth.com, Inc., a financial media company which is also an owner and affiliate of WorthFM. Amanda Steinberg is also a material owner and CEO of Dailyworth.com, Inc.

Author and Educator

In addition, Ms. Steinberg is an author and educational contributor on various financial topics. Ms. Steinberg may earn additional revenue from these business activities and may offer additional services to Clients of WorthFM.

Key Service Providers

North Capital Inc. ("North"), an SEC-registered investment advisor, provides advice regarding the construction of WorthFM model portfolios and provides trading and rebalancing services on behalf of WorthFM and its Clients. North and WorthFM have implemented compliance procedures to ensure the safeguarding of Client information, and the avoidance of conflicts of interest, that might otherwise affect clients of both firms.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

WorthFM has implemented a Code of Ethics that defines our fiduciary commitment to each Client. This Code of Ethics applies to all associated persons of WorthFM (our "Supervised Persons"). The Code of Ethics was developed to provide general ethical guidelines and specific instructions regarding our duties to you, our Client. WorthFM and its Supervised Persons owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client. It is the obligation of WorthFM's associated persons to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code, but also to the general principles that guide the Code. The Code of Ethics covers a range of topics that address ethics and conflicts of interest.

WorthFM allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. WorthFM does not act as principal in any transactions. In addition, the Advisor does not act as the general partner of a fund, or advise an investment company. WorthFM does not have a material interest in any securities traded in Client accounts. When trading for personal accounts, Supervised Persons of WorthFM may have a conflict of interest if trading in the same securities. The fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its Clients can potentially be violated if personal trades are made with more advantageous terms than Client trades, or by trading based on material non-public information. This risk is mitigated by WorthFM requiring reporting of personal securities trades by its Supervised Persons for review by the Chief Compliance Officer. While WorthFM allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, such trades are typically aggregated with Client orders or traded afterwards. At no time will WorthFM, or any Supervised Person of WorthFM, transact in any security to the detriment of any Client. To request a copy of our Code of Ethics, please contact us via our website at www.WorthFM.com.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

A. Recommendation of Custodian[s]

WorthFM does not have discretionary authority to select the broker-dealer/custodian for custody and execution services. The Client will establish an agreement with the broker-dealer/custodian (herein the "Custodian") to safeguard Client assets and authorize WorthFM to direct trades to the Custodian as agreed in the investment advisory agreement. Further, WorthFM does not have the discretionary authority to negotiate commissions on behalf of our Clients on a trade-by-trade basis. WorthFM requires that Clients establish their account[s] at TD Ameritrade Inc. ("TD Ameritrade"), an unaffiliated and independent SEC-registered broker-dealer and member FINRA/SIPC. TD Ameritrade will serve as the Client's "qualified custodian". WorthFM maintains an institutional relationship with TD Ameritrade, whereby the Advisor receives economic benefits from TD Ameritrade however, there is no direct link between the Advisor's institutional relationship and the investment advice we provide to our clients or the securities we may recommend. WorthFM recommends TD Ameritrade based on criteria such as, but not limited to, the reasonableness of commissions charged, execution capabilities, services that are made available to the Client, and access to technology (Please see Item 14 below). Following are additional details regarding the brokerage practices of the Advisor:

1. Soft Dollars - Soft dollars are revenue programs offered by broker-dealers/custodians whereby an advisor enters into an agreement to place security trades with the broker-dealer/custodian in exchange for research and other services. WorthFM does not participate in soft dollar programs sponsored or offered by any broker-dealer. However, WorthFM does receive indirect economic benefits through its institutional relationship with TD Ameritrade (Please see Item 14 below).

2. Brokerage Referrals - WorthFM does not receive any compensation from any third party in connection with the recommendation for establishing an account.

3. Directed Brokerage - All Clients are serviced on a "directed brokerage basis", where WorthFM will place trades within the established account[s] at the Custodian. Further, all Client accounts are traded within their respective account[s]. The Advisor will not engage in any principal transactions (i.e., trade of any security from or to the Advisor's own account) or cross transactions with other Client accounts (i.e., purchase of a security into one Client account from another Client's account[s]). WorthFM will not be obligated to select competitive bids on securities transactions and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available transaction costs. These costs are determined solely by the Custodian.

B. Aggregating and Allocating Trades

WorthFM may aggregate orders in a block trade or trades when securities are purchased or sold through the Custodian for multiple accounts. If a block trade cannot be executed in full at the same price or time, the securities actually purchased or sold by the close of each business day must be allocated in a manner that is consistent with the initial pre-allocation or other written statement. This must be done in a way that does not consistently advantage or disadvantage any particular Client accounts.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

Securities in Client accounts are monitored on a regular and continuous basis by Principals of WorthFM and its sub-advisory partners. Formal reviews are generally conducted at least annually. Reviews may be conducted more or less frequently at the Client's request. Accounts may be reviewed as a result of major changes in economic conditions, known changes in the Client's financial situation, and/or large deposits or withdrawals in the Client's account. The Client is encouraged to notify WorthFM if changes occur in the Client's personal financial situation that might adversely affect the Client's investment plan. Additional reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events. The Client will receive brokerage statements no less than quarterly from Custodian. These brokerage statements are sent directly from the Custodian to the Client. The Client may also establish electronic access to the Custodian's website so that the Client may view these reports and their account activity. Client brokerage statements will include all positions, transactions and fees relating to the Client's account[s]. The Client will also have access to their accounts via our website at www.WorthFM.com.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

WorthFM is a fee-only advisory firm, who, in all circumstances, is compensated solely by the Client. WorthFM does not receive commissions from product sponsors, broker-dealers or any unrelated third party.

Participation in Institutional Advisor Platform

As disclosed under Item 12, above, the Advisor participates in TD Ameritrade's institutional customer program and the Advisor may recommend TD Ameritrade to Clients for custody and brokerage services. There is no direct link between the Advisor's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its Clients, although the Advisor receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD Ameritrade retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate Client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving the Advisor participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts); the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from Client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for Client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to the Advisor by third party vendors. TD Ameritrade may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by the Advisor's related persons. Some of the products and services made available by TD Ameritrade through the program may benefit the Advisor but may not benefit its Client accounts. These products or services may assist the Advisor in managing and administering Client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD Ameritrade. Other services made available by TD Ameritrade are intended to help the Advisor manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by the Advisor or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD Ameritrade. As part of its fiduciary duties to clients, the Advisor endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by the Advisor or its related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence the Advisor's choice of TD Ameritrade for custody and brokerage services.

Referrals from Solicitors

If a Client is introduced to WorthFM by either an unaffiliated or an affiliated solicitor (herein a "Solicitor"), WorthFM may pay the Solicitor a referral fee in accordance with the requirements of Rule 206(4)-3 of the Advisers Act as well as any applicable state securities regulations. Referral fees are paid solely from WorthFM's investment advisory fees and will not result in any additional charges or higher fees to the Client. The Solicitor will provide the Client with a copy this Disclosure Brochure along with a Solicitor's Disclosure Statement containing the terms and conditions of the solicitation arrangement including compensation.

Item 15 – Custody

WorthFM does not accept or maintain custody of any Client accounts, except for the authorized deduction of the Advisor's fees. All Clients must place their assets with a "qualified custodian". The Client is required to engage the Custodian to retain their funds and securities and authorize WorthFM to utilize that Custodian for the Client's security transactions. WorthFM also encourages Clients to review statements provided by the Custodian. For more information about custodians and brokerage practices, see "Item 12 - Brokerage Practices".

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

WorthFM assumes full discretion over the selection and amount of securities to be bought or sold in Client accounts without obtaining prior consent or approval from the Client. However, these purchases or sales may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines, or limitations previously set forth by the Client and agreed to by WorthFM. Discretionary authority will only be authorized upon full disclosure to the Client. The granting of such authority will be evidenced by the Client's execution of an Investment advisory agreement containing all applicable limitations to such authority. All discretionary trades made by WorthFM will be in accordance with each Client's investment objectives and goals.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

The Advisor may be granted the discretionary authority to receive and vote proxies by the Client through the Client's separate agreement with the Custodian. The Advisor generally abstains from voting, unless the Advisor views, in its fiduciary duty, that the particular vote is both important and necessary for the interests of the Client. In such instances, the Advisor will render its vote based on the specific circumstances of that proxy.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Neither WorthFM, nor its management, have any adverse financial situations that would reasonably impair the ability of WorthFM to meet all obligations to its Clients. Neither WorthFM, nor any of its advisory persons, has been subject to a bankruptcy or financial compromise. WorthFM is not required to deliver a balance sheet along with this Disclosure Brochure as the Advisor does not collect fees of $1,200 or more for services to be performed six months or more in advance.

Item 4 – Services Fees and Compensation

The WorthFM Wrap Fee Program (the Wrap Fee Program”) is an investment advisory program sponsored by Worth Financial Management LLC dba WorthFM (“WorthFM” or the “Advisor”). Through the Wrap Fee Program, WorthFM provides tailored investment advisory services for its Clients. These services are provided primarily through the Advisor’s website at www.WorthFM.com.

The Wrap Fee Program Brochure is provided solely as a disclosure as WorthFM typically includes securities transaction fees as part of its overall investment advisory fee (as detailed in Item 5 of the Disclosure Brochure). This Wrap Fee Program Brochure will reference back to the WorthFM Disclosure Brochure in which this Wrap Fee Brochure is an Appendix.

WorthFM offers investment advisory and related services to individuals, high net worth individuals, and other types of clients primarily through interactive web sites, including www.WorthFM.com.

Please see Item 4 of the Disclosure Brochure for details regarding the Advisor’s investment management services.

The Client will pay the Advisor an investment advisory fee that is based on the assets under management in the Investment Account and Retirement Account [and excluding the value of the Client’s Savings Account]. The Client will be charged a monthly asset-based fee, at an annual rate of 0.50%, based on the fair market value of portfolio assets under management in the Investment Account and Retirement Account at the end of each month. The investment advisory fees in the first month of the Agreement shall be prorated from the inception date of the Account[s] to the end of the first month.

Fees are not negotiable and are not based on an aggregation of all Client accounts. All securities held in accounts managed by WorthFM will be independently valued by the Custodian. WorthFM will not have the authority or responsibility to value portfolio securities.

Advisory Services provided by WorthFM pursuant to a wrap fee structure may cost the Client more or less than purchasing these types of investment management services separately. When the Advisor absorbs normal securities transactions fees, the Advisor may have a financial incentive to limit the transactions in Client accounts, as each trade will increase costs to the Advisor.

Additional details are included in Item 5.A. of the Disclosure Brochure.

The WorthFM Wrap Fee Program includes typical securities trading costs incurred in connection with the discretionary investment management services provided by WorthFM. Securities transaction fees for Client-directed trades may be charged to the Client. Clients engaging the Advisor under this Wrap Fee Program will typically pay a higher overall investment advisory fee, but will not be responsible for securities transaction fees for their accounts. Clients should discuss the expected level of trading in the Client’s account[s] to determine whether to engage the Advisor under this Wrap Fee Program or pay for securities transaction fees separately. Fees may be negotiable at the sole discretion of the Advisor.

Clients may incur certain fees or charges imposed by third parties, other than WorthFM, in connection with investments made on behalf of the Client’s account[s]. The Advisor typically includes securities transactions costs, if any, as part of its overall advisory fees. The Advisor seeks to implement portfolios using ETFs are not charged a securities transaction fee by the Custodian. Please see Item 4.D. above.

In addition, all fees paid to WorthFM for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the expenses charged by ETFs to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each ETF’s prospectus. These fees and expenses will generally be used to pay management fees for the ETFs, other fund expenses, account administration (e.g., custody, brokerage and account reporting). A Client could invest in these products directly, without the services of WorthFM, but would not receive the services provided by WorthFM which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which products or services are most appropriate for each Client’s financial situation and objectives. Accordingly, the Client should review both the fees charged by the fund[s] and the fees charged by WorthFM to fully understand the total fees to be paid.

Item 5 – Account Requirements and Types of Clients

WorthFM offers investment advisory and related services to individuals, high net worth individuals, and other types of clients through interactive web sites, including www.WorthFM.com. Please see Item 7 of the Disclosure Brochure.

Item 6 – Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation

A. Portfolio Manager Selection

WorthFM serves as the sponsor and portfolio manager for the WorthFM Wrap Fee Program. The Advisor also engages institutional sub-advisors to support the investment management of the Wrap Fee Program.

B. Related Persons

WorthFM personnel or affiliates serve as portfolio manager[s] for services under this Wrap Fee Program. WorthFM only manages this wrap fee program. WorthFM does not act as portfolio manager for any third-party wrap fee programs.

C. Associated persons

WorthFM Advisory Persons serve as portfolio managers for the WorthFM Wrap Fee Program described in this Wrap Fee Brochure. Please refer to the Items 4 and 8 of the Disclosure Brochure for details on the services provided by WorthFM. For information related to the background of WorthFM associated persons, please see Items 9 and 11 of the Disclosure Brochure.

Performance-Based Fees

WorthFM does not charge performance-based fees for its investment advisory services. The fees charged by WorthFM are as described in “Item 5 – Fees and Compensation” above and are not based upon the capital appreciation of the funds or securities held by any Client. WorthFM does not manage any proprietary investment funds or limited partnerships (for example, a mutual fund or a hedge fund) and has no financial incentive to recommend any particular investment options to its Clients. Please see Item 6 of the Disclosure Brochure.

Methods of Analysis

WorthFM primarily employs fundamental analysis methods in developing investment strategies for its Clients. Research and analysis from WorthFM is derived primarily from its institutional sub-advisory relationships.

As noted above, WorthFM generally employs a long-term investment strategy for its Clients, as consistent with their financial goals. WorthFM will typically hold all or a portion of a security for more than a year, but may hold for shorter periods for the purpose of rebalancing a portfolio or meeting the cash needs of Clients. At times, WorthFM may also buy and sell positions that are more short-term in nature, depending on the goals of the Client and/or the fundamentals of the security, sector or asset class.

Risk of Loss

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities involves certain investment risks. Securities may fluctuate in value or lose value. WorthFM will assist Clients in determining an appropriate strategy based on their tolerance for risk and other factors noted above. However, there is no guarantee that a Client will meet their investment goals. Investing in securities and other investments involve a risk of loss that each Client should understand and be willing to bear. Additional details regarding the risks associated with a Client's investment portfolio are also provided on the Advisor's websites.

Voting Client Securities

The Advisor may be granted the discretionary authority to receive and vote proxies by the Client through the Client's separate agreement with the Custodian. The Advisor generally abstains from voting, unless the Advisor views, in its fiduciary duty, that the particular vote is both important and necessary for the interests of the Client. In such instances, the Advisor will render its vote based on the specific circumstances of that proxy.

Item 7 – Client Information Provided to Portfolio Managers

WorthFM is the sponsor and sole portfolio manager for the Program. The Advisor does not share Client information with other portfolio managers because it is the sole portfolio manager for this Program.

Item 8 – Client Contact with Portfolio Managers

There is no restriction on the Client's ability to contact WorthFM. Sub-advisors engaged by WorthFM are not readily available for Client contact.

Item 9 – Additional Information

Disciplinary Information and Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

WorthFM and its advisory personnel value the trust you place in us. As we advise all Clients, we encourage you to perform the requisite due diligence on any advisor or service provider with whom you partner. Our backgrounds are on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching with our firm name or our CRD# 281672.

The sole business of WorthFM is to provide investment advisory services to its Clients and is not involved in other business endeavors. WorthFM does not maintain any affiliations with other firms, other than contracted service providers to assist with the servicing of its Client's accounts.

Financial Media Company - Supervised Persons of WorthFM may also be employed by Dailyworth.com, Inc., a financial media company. Amanda Steinberg is also the primary owner and CEO of Dailyworth.com, Inc.

Participation in Institutional Advisor Platform

The Advisor participates in the TD Ameritrade Institutional program. TD Ameritrade Institutional is a division of TD Ameritrade, Inc. ("TD Ameritrade"), member FINRA/SIPC. TD Ameritrade is an independent and unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealer. TD Ameritrade offers to independent investment Advisors services, which include custody of securities, trade execution, clearance and settlement of transactions. The Advisor receives some benefits from TD Ameritrade through its participation in the program. The Advisor participates in TD Ameritrade's institutional customer program and the Advisor may recommend TD Ameritrade to Clients for custody and brokerage services. There is no direct link between the Advisor's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its Clients, although the Advisor receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD Ameritrade retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate Client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving the Advisor participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts); the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from Client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for Client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to the Advisor by third party vendors. TD Ameritrade may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by the Advisor's related persons. Some of the products and services made available by TD Ameritrade through the program may benefit the Advisor but may not benefit its Client accounts. These products or services may assist the Advisor in managing and administering Client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD Ameritrade. Other services made available by TD Ameritrade are intended to help the Advisor manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by the Advisor or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD Ameritrade. As part of its fiduciary duties to clients, the Advisor endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by the Advisor or its related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence the Advisor's choice of TD Ameritrade for custody and brokerage services.

Code of Ethics, Review of Accounts, Client Referrals, and Financial Information

WorthFM has implemented a Code of Ethics that defines our fiduciary commitment to each Client. This Code of Ethics applies to all associated persons of WorthFM. The Code of Ethics was developed to provide general ethical guidelines and specific instructions regarding our duties to you, our Client. WorthFM and its associated persons owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client. It is the obligation of WorthFM's associated persons to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code, but also to the general principles that guide the Code. The Code of Ethics covers a range of topics that address ethics and conflicts of interest.

WorthFM allows our associated persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. WorthFM does not act as principal in any transactions. In addition, the Advisor does not act as the general partner of a fund, or advise an investment company. WorthFM does not have a material interest in any securities traded in Client accounts. When trading for personal accounts, associated persons of WorthFM may have a conflict of interest if trading in the same securities. The fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its Clients can potentially be violated if personal trades are made with more advantageous terms than Client trades, or by trading based on material non-public information. This risk is mitigated by WorthFM requiring reporting of personal securities trades by its associated persons for review by the Chief Compliance Officer. While WorthFM allows our associated persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, such trades are typically aggregated with Client orders or traded afterwards. At no time will WorthFM, or any associated person of WorthFM, transact in any security to the detriment of any Client. To request a copy of our Code of Ethics, please contact us via our website at www.WorthFM.com.

Referrals from Solicitors

If a Client is introduced to WorthFM by either an unaffiliated or an affiliated solicitor (herein a "Solicitor"), WorthFM may pay the Solicitor a referral fee in accordance with the requirements of Rule 206(4)-3 of the Advisers Act as well as any applicable state securities regulations. Referral fees are paid solely from WorthFM's investment advisory fees and will not result in any additional charges or higher fees to the Client. The Solicitor will provide the Client with a copy this Disclosure Brochure along with a Solicitor's Disclosure Statement containing the terms and conditions of the solicitation arrangement including compensation.

Financial Information

Neither WorthFM, nor its management, have any adverse financial situations that would reasonably impair the ability of WorthFM to meet all obligations to its Clients. WorthFM is not required to deliver a balance sheet along with this Disclosure Brochure, as the Advisor does not collect fees of $1,200 or more for services to be performed six months or more in advance.

Privacy Policy

Effective: September 7, 2017

Our Commitment to You

Worth Financial Management LLC dba WorthFM ("WorthFM" or the "Advisor") is committed to safeguarding the use of personal information of our Client's (also referred to as "you" and "your") that we obtain as your Investment Advisor, as described here in our Privacy Policy ("Policy").

Our relationship with you is our most important asset. We understand that you have entrusted us with your private information, and we do everything that we can to maintain that trust. WorthFM (also referred to as "we", "our" and "us") protects the security and confidentiality of the personal information we have and implements controls to ensure that such information is used for proper business purposes in connection with the management or servicing of our relationship with you.

WorthFM does not sell your non-public personal information to anyone. Nor do we provide such information to others except for discrete and reasonable business purposes in connection with the servicing and management of our relationship with you, as discussed below.

Details of our approach to privacy and how your personal non-public information is collected and used are set forth in this Policy.

Why you need to know?

Registered Investment Advisors ("RIAs") must share some of your personal information in the course of servicing your account. Federal and State laws give you the right to limit some of this sharing and require RIAs to disclose how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.

What information do we collect from you?

State-specific Regulations

California	In response to a California law, to be conservative, we assume accounts with California addresses do not want us to disclose personal information about you to non-affiliated third parties, except as permitted by California law. We also limit the sharing of personal information about you with our affiliates to ensure compliance with California privacy laws.
Massachusetts	In response to a Massachusetts law, clients must “opt-in” to share non-public personal information with non-affiliated third parties before any personal information is disclosed. We may disclose non-public personal information to other financial institutions with whom we have joint business arrangements for proper business purposes in connection with the management or servicing of your account.
Vermont	In response to a Vermont regulation, if we disclose personal information about you to non-affiliated third parties, we will only disclose your name, address, other contract information, and general information about our experience with you.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

We will send you a copy of this Policy annually for as long as you maintain an ongoing relationship with us.

Periodically we may revise this Policy, and will provide you with a revised policy if the changes materially alter the previous Privacy Policy. We will not, however, revise our Privacy Policy to permit the sharing of non-public personal information other than as described in this notice unless we first notify you and provide you with an opportunity to prevent the information sharing.

Any Questions?

You may ask questions or voice any concerns, as well as obtain a copy of our current Privacy Policy by contacting us through our website at www.WorthFM.com.
