Professional Licenses/Designations

Certified Financial Planner (CFP) - Important Information about the Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) Designation: The Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) certification represents proven expertise within the financial planning profession. Those with the CFP® designation have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates for the CFP® designation must pass a certification exam administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. that focuses on over 100 topics of concern to the financial planning field, such as retirement, estate, and investment planning. In addition to passing the CFP® certification exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience (three years full-time or equivalent part-time experience in the financial planning field) and agree to adhere to the CFP Board's code of ethics and professional responsibility and financial planning standards.

Series 65 - Uniform Registered Investment Adviser Law Exam (RIA)--To obtain the Series 65 an initial qualifying exam administered by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") must be passed. Continuing Education requirement include attending an Annual Compliance Meeting and Firm Element Training. Also required to be taken is a computer based program within 120 days of the second anniversary of obtaining the registration and every three years thereafter.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Your Investment Adviser Representative currently has no material legal or disciplinary events to disclose. Materiality is subject to 20/20 Capital Management's discretion, and/or defined by the SEC for purposes of this disclosure document.

OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

AMY BLODGETT may receive commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a registered representative of Ameritas Investment Corp (AIC) – A broker dealer. This may include distribution or service ("trail") fees from the sale of mutual funds. While your IARs endeavor at all times to put your interest first as part of AIC's fiduciary duty, you should be aware that the receipt of additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect the judgment of these individuals when making recommendations.

Your investment adviser operates under a DBA name, listed below.

- Boom Planning
- 20/20 Financial Advisers of San Francisco, LLC

Your investment adviser is licensed as an independent insurance agent for the purpose of selling fixed insurance products.

In addition, your investment adviser has the following other investment-related business activities to disclose, listed below.

- EDWAAR Realty Trust,
partner Beach Bluff, Partner
- Boom Planning, Owner
- 20/20 Financial Advisers San Francisco, LLC, Managing Partner

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

AMY BLODGETT may be eligible to receive incentive prizes, awards, and certain reimbursements for advertising, sales literature and promotions offered by product promoters such as mutual fund or insurance companies. Our policy is to permit all advisory representatives to accept such awards and prizes to the extent that they are usual and customary within the industry, and in compliance with the SEC, FINRA, or state rules, regulations or guidelines. Because an advisory representative may receive such incentives, a conflict of interest exists.

Your investment adviser has no additional compensation to disclose.
