Professional Licenses/Designations

Certified Financial Planner (CFP) - Important Information about the Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) Designation: The Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) certification represents proven expertise within the financial planning profession. Those with the CFP® designation have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates for the CFP® designation must pass a certification exam administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. that focuses on over 100 topics of concern to the financial planning field, such as retirement, estate, and investment planning. In addition to passing the CFP® certification exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience (three years full-time or equivalent part-time experience in the financial planning field) and agree to adhere to the CFP Board's code of ethics and professional responsibility and financial planning standards.

Life Underwriting Training Council Fellow (LUTCF) - Life Underwriting Training Council Fellow (LUTCF) designation, which is jointly conferred by the American College and the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA), combines essential product knowledge with basic planning concepts. Advisors must complete five required courses, plus one course on ethics, and then pass a final examination.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

KEVIN GRUNAWALT may be eligible to receive incentive prizes, awards, and certain reimbursements for advertising, sales literature and promotions offered by product promoters such as mutual fund or insurance companies. Our policy is to permit all advisory representatives to accept such awards and prizes to the extent that they are usual and customary within the industry, and in compliance with the SEC, FINRA, or state rules, regulations or guidelines. Because an advisory representative may receive such incentives, a conflict of interest exists.

Your investment adviser has no additional compensation to disclose.
