Professional Licenses/Designations

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) - Important Information about the Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) Designation: The Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) certification represents proven expertise within the financial planning profession. Those with the CFP® designation have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates for the CFP® designation must pass a certification exam administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. that focuses on over 100 topics of concern to the financial planning field, such as retirement, estate, and investment planning. In addition to passing the CFP® certification exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience (three years full-time or equivalent part-time experience in the financial planning field) and agree to adhere to the CFP® Board's code of ethics and professional responsibility and financial planning standards.

Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC) - The ChFC, Chartered Financial Consultant designation is a financial credential awarded by the American College to individuals who satisfy educational, work experience and ethics requirements. Recipients of the ChFC certification have completed, and passed examinations, on at least seven mandatory college-level courses in the areas of financial, insurance, retirement and/or estate planning, as well as income taxation and/or investments. Additionally, recipients have completed at least three elective courses on the financial system, estate planning applications, executive compensation, and/or retirement decisions. In order to maintain this designation, ChFC holders must satisfy the ongoing requirements of the Professional Achievement in Continuing Education ("PACE"), which includes at least 30 hours of continuing education every two years.

Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) - The Chartered Life Underwriter® (CLU®) is the world's most respected designation of insurance expertise, focusing on the insurance needs of individuals, business owners and professional clients. Designees must have three years of full-time business experience within the five years preceding the awarding of the designation, with an undergraduate degree counting towards only one of those years. Designees must adhere to the American College Code of Ethics and complete 30 hours of CE credits every two years.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

KARIN TYSON may be eligible to receive incentive prizes, awards, and certain reimbursements for advertising, sales literature and promotions offered by product promoters such as mutual fund or insurance companies. Our policy is to permit all advisory representatives to accept such awards and prizes to the extent that they are usual and customary within the industry, and in compliance with the SEC, FINRA, or state rules, regulations or guidelines. Because an advisory representative may receive such incentives, a conflict of interest exists.

Your investment adviser has no additional compensation to disclose.
