THE COMPANY

Designer Technologies, Inc., known to the public as TRADEway, was organized in 1999 as a Texas corporation under the laws of the State of Texas. The Firm is headquartered in Corsicana, TX. Its principle owners and founders are David and Charlotte Mitchell. The company began its evolution to the current business model in 2006, and established the name TRADEway in 2016.

TRADEway's mission statement is: "To break down the confusing world of finance so that anyone can understand it. We glorify God through family, money, and business." The mission of TRADEway is to build a better America for our grandchildren and future generations. TYPES OF ADVISORY SERVICES

TRADEway provides investment advice and education to individuals on how to invest and trade in the U.S. stock market. TRADEway events and online education cover a spectrum of trading styles and asset classes. The education begins with attending a two-day educational event concerning stocks, or a condensed online version of the course. Should the student wish to advance in the program, further live events and educational products can be purchased. TRADEway is different in that it does not manage, or have discretion over any client assets.

Live Educational Events (also offered as online courses):

Step 1: Start Your Journey. This course teaches basic terminology and economic principles and how these principles may affect the price of a stock on the U.S. stock market. Students learn what types of investments may be better than others, how to determine for themselves if it is a good time to move on a stock and the reasoning behind such moves. Fundamental company analysis is discussed. ROI calculations are demonstrated and students are introduced to rolling stocks. Students are taught how to recognize patterns; draw trend lines; determine proper buy/sell points; learn stock market jargon; and more.

Step 2: Know Your Options. Students are introduced to purchasing put and call options. Types of Options are examined, as well as an examination of the use of leverage. Option strategies, coupled with specific rules, are discussed so that the student feels comfortable with their new skill-set.

Step 3: Run With Confidence. This course discusses strategic diversification and seeks to give students an understanding of the pitfalls of overextending. Company fundamentals are focused on again, with an introduction to ratios, review of balance sheets and income statements and guides on where to find additional research. Credit Spread strategies are discussed in detail and rules are provided so that the new investor feels confident before moving forward.

Step 4: Reach Your Destination. This course goes more in-depth on the study of spreads, including how to write covered calls. As with our other events, these new strategies are coupled with additional rules which may help students become more knowledgeable traders.

Specialized Educational Programs:

Precision Step: Plan Your Path. Our team will provide students with personalized 5-year, month-by-month business plans tailored specifically for their current financial situation and risk tolerance. They will also learn how to sharpen their trading skills, and will learn new trading strategies, along with Biblical business principles which help them become better stewards of their money.

Precision Step: News Moves. Our team teaches how to do news plays the right way, plus speculative strategies for the goal of creating cash flow.

Precision Step: Putting on a Play. Our team teaches this long-term buy and hold strategy which incorporates trailing stop losses, profit-taking stops, and pyramids. This course also includes oil field strategies that exemplify proper money management.

Precision Step: Power Spreads. This is one of David Mitchell's favorite methods. Three events must come together to create this trading opportunity. They happen frequently, and our team teaches how to find them and take advantage of the opportunities.

Precision Step: Texas Sharpshooter.

Precision Step: Texas Outlaw.

Additional Programs and Tools:

Coaching: Access to investment advisor representatives for review of client created investment strategies, discussion of current investment opportunities, and speculation on how news could affect various investments.

Online Study Groups: We have a variety of weekly study groups available to match our client's trading level. Whether they are a Step 1 grad looking for guidance with their newly acquired skill set, or an advanced event grad in search of a better way to trade, we provide a weekly study group that fits their needs. They can ask questions, discuss stocks, and fine-tune their trading, as well as have ongoing analysis throughout the week.

Insider Service: This gives students access to market alert emails; tutorials and helpful tools; stock patterns; stock basket; and industry groups.

Interactive Home Study Courses: These courses go in depth on specific strategies in order to enhance learning from home. We have courses covering Rolling Stocks, Options, Trending Stocks, Candlesticks, Bases, Stock Splits, Indicators, and Implied Volatility.

Foundational Lessons: These are basic audio/visual online lessons which can be viewed by anyone at any level in their trading journey. They are meant to teach powerful concepts through a Biblical lens.

Find Your Stride, Run Your Race, and Master Your Journey are designed to help give greater knowledge and understanding of trade setups, help develop a solid trading plan that fits their style of trading, and instill greater levels of confidence in trading.

Learning Labs: These are supplemental classes meant to build on News Moves and/or Power Spreads. They may be purchased as “add-ons” for the classes. The Learning Labs give our clients opportunity to dig into the concepts, ask questions, see examples of the strategies in action, and hear additional tips on how to effectively use the strategies.

TRADEway AMPT Portfolios:

This is an asset management assistance program. AMPT stands for Assisted Client-Managed Portfolios by TRADEway.

Rather than taking your money and investing FOR you, we invest WITH you. You maintain control of your money, you “push the buttons” while our TRADEway SEC Registered Advisory Reps assist you all along the way. Here are the basic steps:

First, Clients PREPARE. They take part in our educational component of AMPT to gain a proper understanding of Long-Term buy and hold investing skill sets. It includes how to understand proper diversification, and systematic risk management, the two most important aspects of wealth management. The lesson also discusses the difference in skill sets needed for long term investing verses short term trading, as well as the contrasting purposes of the two, and why both are important. The skills session will be taught via webinar.

Second, Clients choose a MODEL. We have established four model portfolios. Clients choose one, with our help, based upon their risk tolerance, age, and financial goals. They all have different blends of assets for different mixes of risk and potential return.

Here is a risk/return analysis of the AMPT models, compared to Morningstar, Inc. 2016.

	CONSERVATIVE MIX		BALANCED MIX		GROWTH MIX		AGGRESSIVE GROWTH MIX
	TRADEway	Control*	TRADEway	Control*	TRADEway	Control*	TRADEway	Control*
Equities	20%	20%	50%	50%	70%	70%	85%	85%

Cash or Near Cash		30%		10%		5%		0%
	100%	100%	100%	100%	100%	100%	100%	100%
	% Return		% Return		% Return		% Return

	worst 5 yrs	-0.37		-6.18		-10.43		-13.78

Historical returns in the above examples are calculated based on your risk tolerance level and historical returns in the Control Portfolio. The hypothetical return ranges are for illustrative purposes only and do not represent the actual performance of any TRADEway managed products. There is no guarantee that the ranges fully encompass the actual performance that an account may experience. The hypothetical ranges are subject to inherent limitations as they were constructed with the benefit of hindsight, and some of the periods examined were periods of rising returns. Other periods may have different results, including potentially greater losses than those depicted in the ranges. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

The Ranges are based on the historical returns of various asset classes including reinvestment of dividends, from 1926 to 2015. The Ranges depict the highest and lowest actual returns over any rolling 12-month period within the period, calculated at the end of each calendar month. A cash position was added to the allocation to account for fees allocated to managed portfolio.

*Morningstar Inc., 2016 (1926-2015). Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Returns include the reinvestment of dividends and other earnings. This chart is for illustrative purposes only and does not represent actual or implied performance of any investment option.

The purpose of the target asset mixes is to show how target asset mixes may be created with different risk and return characteristics to help meet a participant's goals. You should choose your own investments based on your particular objectives and situation. Remember, you may change how your account is invested. Be sure to review your decisions periodically to make sure they are still consistent with your goals.

Six strategies for volatile markets

When markets get choppy, it pays to have a plan for your investments, and to stick to it.

Eccl. 11.1 through 12.2 KJV A Bible-based diversification plan by TRADEway

Next, Clients CUSTOMIZE. We work with Client to customize his/her portfolio blend within the 8 basic asset classes of diversification in the AMPT plan. We look at the 16 subdivisions of the asset classes. Our SEC Registered Investment Advisor Reps will create a customized portfolio and help Client understand it, so he/she can sign off on it.

Fourth, Clients ADJUST. Periodic adjustments are suggested for each portfolio based primarily upon the stage in the lifecycle of a bull market (or bear market) we are in, but also to a lesser degree, upon current market conditions and world events. These suggestions for adjustments are provided through the Insider PRO for TRADEway AMPT clients. This includes our regular Insider benefits, dealing mostly with short-term trading, PLUS additional information specifically concerning long-term investments, and how market conditions and news world-wide can cause a need for re-balancing of one's portfolio. This information is provided via Market Alert e-mails. Insider PRO is $45/mo. (or a $30 add-on service to the regular Insider [$49.95 + $30 = $79.95/mo.]).

Fifth, Clients potentially SAVE MONEY.

We charge AMPT clients as follows:

There are a few one-time set up fees:

Setup fees:

Simple Plan (if client assets under management assistance are under $200,000): $99

If client has $200,000 to $350,000: $450

If client has $350,001 to $700,000: $1,299

If client has $700,001 and up: $2,999

Complex Plan (If client's portfolio is vast and large and requires much examination upfront): $395/hr.

Prep fee: $1,938 (sometimes discounted) for educational system, L.T. buy and hold

Insider Pro fee: $45/mo. ($30/mo. if upgrade on Regular Insider [$49.95 + $30 = $79.95])

There are quarterly Management Assistant (AMA) fees:

Asset Management Assistant (AMA) fees:

We charge AMPT clients 1.25% of the value of the total assets we assist you in managing per year, if you have $400,000 or less (divided up into quarterly payments due at the end of each quarter). If you have 400,001 up to $700,000, we charge 1.20%. If you have 700,001 up to $1.5MM, we charge 1.15%. If you have $1,500,001 up to $10MM we charge 0.95%. If you have >$10MM we charge 0.85%. For Prep class graduates who are Insider Pro members and miss no AMA or insider payments, after the 3rd year, AMA fees half. Then, after three more years (provided payments continue as mentioned above) they drop by 0.035% every 3rd year until they reach a 0.43% minimum.

This allows us to spend more time covering the concepts and developing the students.

TRADEway Community: This is an online community page, similar to a blog. Clients are able to interact with other students, as well as with our team. We post thoughtful questions, tips, articles, and much more—we want clients to consider the topics we post and discuss them together, as well as get their questions answered. We have community pages set up for most of our programs, such as Top Gun Elite, Workshops, Precision Steps, Precious Metals, and Steps 2-4.

Section B.

How fees are paid

Students attending events are charged a one-time fee in advance of each event, or package of events, that they elect to take through TRADEway. The client may elect to pay in full up front, or pay on a monthly basis according to the payment options provided. For monthly payment plans, a down-payment is required. All monthly subscription-based services are billed in advance, but may be canceled at any time by calling or emailing. Please refer to Item 5, Section A for a description of each product/service offered.

TRADEway charges a one-time fee for our educational products and services. Therefore, clients can purchase information one time, and have the knowledge for the rest of their lives and for future generations within their family! For our live events, one “tuition” is good for the household (both spouses, children 18 years of age and younger, and elderly living in the same household ages 60+). The fees that we charge are comparable to other financial educational systems, and yet affordable to most clients due to our payment options. We offer clients the option to place a down-payment on their product of choice, and then pay it out over time with no compounding finance charges associated. TRADEway does not have discretionary or any other authority over the personal assets of students. Students may decide to pay in full at the time of purchase, or be billed on a monthly basis, or they may elect to have payments automatically charged to a major credit card. We accept all major credit cards, as well as checks or cash, for method of payment. Students may incur other fees when engaging other service providers to implement the training they receive through TRADEway, such as brokerage, administrative or custodial fees. TRADEway does not select these service providers on behalf of any student and does not negotiate fees.

Students may be offered discounts for future events for one or more of the following:

- Attending live events;
- Being in the active military or a veteran;
- Being a full time student of an accredited university (additional universities may be considered by management for this discount).

TRADEway also offers a scholarship opportunity to clients who currently pursue a career as a full-time Christian school teacher. To qualify: the client must submit an application for scholarship; go through an interview process; make less than $65,000/year combined household income; have less than $100,000 in liquid assets not including home or vehicle.

Finally, TRADEway may elect to apply a discount for students who wish to pre-pay the full amount of their selected educational experience at time of order.

Section C.

Other Types of Fees & Expenses

Students may incur other fees when engaging other service providers to implement the training they receive through TRADEway, such as brokerage, administrative or custodial fees. TRADEway does not select these service providers on behalf of any student and does not negotiate or receive any portion of these fees.

Section D.

Students must pay for the Live Events and Specialized Educational Programs in advance.

For all of our flat rate products as described above, we offer a 3-business day window in which the client may cancel their purchase without penalty; for our on-going monthly subscription a monthly payment is collected, however clients may cancel at any time with a simple phone call or email. In addition, our foundational Step 1 event provides a full money back guarantee--if someone attends the 2-day event and decides it is not for them, they may turn in their workbook and receive a full refund on their ticket purchase (they have 30 days to do this).

Section E.

Neither TRADEway nor its officers or employees receive compensation for the sale of securities. We pay our team a sales commission on products/services that are sold at live events, or from the office via phone/email. While TRADEway's method of teaching students is proprietary, other institutions also teach fundamentals of investing, and students always have a choice. TRADEway does not offset fees against each other.

Item 6: Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

TRADEway does not take performance based fees.

Item 7: Types of Clients

TRADEway endeavors to provide investment advice to individuals who will utilize the information to trade privately with the intention to generate a degree of personal income. These individuals come from all walks of life, all levels of income, all classes of society, and a variety of experience levels of trading.

Item 8: Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Section A.

Methods of Analysis and Investment Strategies:

TRADEway will assist its clients in selecting stocks by providing them with live events, online study groups and other educational opportunities to assist with selecting stocks that may meet a client's investment needs. It is the sole discretion of the client to elect which stock to purchase.

TRADEway provides educational opportunities which teach its clients how to properly select stocks, and make their own informed investment decisions. We do this through a series of live events, online study groups, home study courses, coaching, market corners, and web tools. The TRADEway education is based on David Mitchell's proprietary "3-legged table" trading system. The 3 legs of the trading table consist of: fundamental analysis (corporate financial analysis); technical analysis (price and volume trends in stocks and indices); and market tone (news and world events). When these three things come together, trading becomes much more reliable, whereas when one leg is missing, the trading becomes sporadic and unpredictable. TRADEway teaches its clients how to do their own analysis, but assists them in this process through coaching, our Insider program, and other methods listed above. At our live events, we teach strategies for short-term trading and long-term investing which include topics covering: rolling stocks, trending stocks, rolling options, trending options, debit spreads, credit spreads, call writing, and speculative plays which have to do with combining methods of trading along with market conditions.

Section B.

Risks Involved With Our Methods of Analysis:

Certain risks associated with a TRADEway client we advise will include, but is not limited to:

Risk of Loss:

Investing in securities involves risk of the complete loss of the investments that clients must be prepared to bear. All investments carry the risk of loss and there is no guarantee that any investment strategy will succeed. The advice received from any TRADEway staff or personnel does not alter in any way the client's sole responsibility for selecting which stock they will purchase.

As with any entity that stores data, especially financial data, TRADEway faces cybersecurity risks. While it may take steps for protecting the data in its trust, the threat is ever-evolving and an unauthorized party may gain access to customer data or proprietary information, or cause such a party to suffer data loss, corruption or lose operational functionality. We take precautions and have systems in place to keep our client's information secure, while realizing that this risk is inevitable.

Item 9: Disciplinary Information

While TRADEway has no disciplinary actions to disclose, the company did participate in an SEC inquiry. During our discussions with the SEC, TRADEway discussed plans to register as an investment adviser which it completed in 2016 with no further action taken on the part of the SEC.

Access Persons must submit their brokerage statements quarterly to the Compliance Officer for review and archiving. Employees may purchase and sell securities for their own accounts that have also been recommended to clients. The Code of Ethics will be designed to ensure that the personal securities transactions and interests of the employees will not interfere with their ability to make decisions that are in the best interests of clients. Nonetheless, because the Code of Ethics permits employees to invest in the same securities as clients, there is a possibility that employees might benefit from market activity by a client. We have procedures in place to protect the client and make them aware of any possible issue that may arise.

Disclosure of Personal Investments

TRADEway officers and employees may maintain personal investments. They may also maintain personal brokerage accounts subject to the firm's Code of Ethics.

Access Persons will be required to provide quarterly reports to the Chief Compliance Officer or other designated person showing transactions in their personal accounts, and will be required to disclose annually all securities held on their behalf. Certain securities are exempt from reporting based upon a determination by the Chief Compliance Officer or other designated person that such securities do not pose any material conflicts. These reports will be monitored regularly to reasonably prevent conflicts of interest between TRADEway and its clients. While it is unlikely to occur, there is an inherent conflict of interest between our fiduciary duty of best execution for our clients and the apparent self-interest of employees trading in the same securities contemporaneously.

Insider Trading Policy

TRADEway may, from time to time, come into possession of material nonpublic or confidential information which, if disclosed, might affect an investor's decision to buy, sell, or hold a security. Under applicable law, TRADEway may be prohibited from disclosing or using such information for its personal benefit or for the benefit of any other person, regardless of whether such other person is a client. Accordingly, should employees of TRADEway come into possession of material nonpublic or other confidential information with respect to any company, they may be prohibited from communicating such information to, or using such information for the benefit of, clients and have no obligation or responsibility to disclose such information to, nor responsibility to use such information for the benefit of, clients.

The Code of Ethics has adopted a policy in accordance with Advisers Act Section 204A, which establishes procedures to prevent the misuse of material nonpublic information by supervised persons. Supervised persons are prohibited from trading, either personally or on behalf of others, while in possession of material nonpublic information in violation of the law. Any supervised person who fails to observe the aforementioned policies risks serious sanctions, including dismissal and personal liability.

Item 12: Broker Practices

Neither TRADEway nor any of its supervised persons accept compensation for the sale of securities.

If TRADEway were to engage a broker-dealer, TRADEway would disclose such engagement as required, clients may independently engage their own broker-dealer.

Item 13: Review of Accounts

TRADEway does not manage client assets. However TRADEway does review personal finances for our Plan Your Path clients; PYP is offered twice per year. The plan provides a projection of monthly milestones catered to the client's specified needs and goals.

Item 14: Client Referrals and Other Compensation

TRADEway does not intend to receive any economic benefits other than the fees paid to the Firm by its clients, as described in Items 5 and 6. TRADEway and its representatives do not intend to receive any economic benefits from any third parties with respect to the advisory services offered to clients.

In compliance with applicable law, TRADEway may from time to time pay event attendance or participation or other fees, underwrite charitable or industry events, or provide gifts of value to, or at the request of, an organization or individual (including TRADEway affiliates) that, among other things: (i) offers or includes products or services of TRADEway or an affiliate in a particular program; (ii) permits TRADEway or an affiliate access to their financial advisors, brokers, employees, or other affiliated persons to provide training, marketing support, and educational presentations on products or services affiliated with TRADEway or an affiliate; and/or (iii) refers or has referred a client to TRADEway. TRADEway may obtain products and/or services from consulting firms separate and apart from any recommendations made to clients for TRADEway investment services. Item 20: Biography of Key Officers

TRADEway is a family owned and operated business. David Mitchell and his wife, Charlotte, are the co-owners and founders of TRADEway, but each of their grown children play a key role in the company as well. David's daughter, Katie Huber, is the Chief Operating Officer; his son-in-law, David Huber, is the Chief Brand Officer; his daughter, Jenny Calvert, is the Vice President of Accounting; his son, Paul Mitchell, is the Radio Production Manager; his son, Benjamin Mitchell, is the Precious Metals Operations Manager; and his youngest son, Matthew Mitchell, is involved in social media and assists with the company's videography needs. In addition, David's dear friend, Robert Henry, serves as the Corporate Controller, and his friend Mark Buchy serves as Chief Compliance Officer. Together, the TRADEway team provides financial education to thousands of families across America each year.

David Mitchell

Founder, President, and Chief Executive Officer; Corporate Speaker

Mr. Mitchell earned a BA degree in Business in 1976 and an MBA degree in 1978 from Baylor University. He currently is President of his fifty-year-old oil and gas drilling and production company with interests in the Permian Basin of West Texas. Even though David has been with this company since 1978, he also has experience in manufacturing. He founded and managed, with his father, the Van Zoeren Pipe Organ Company, of Portland, Oregon, which manufactured and installed influential pipe organs including the Crystal Cathedral, and 2nd Baptist Church, Houston, Texas. After financing and building the company from start-up to maturity, he and his father sold the Van Zoeren Pipe Organ Company to the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) television network in 1984.

David is also founder and C.E.O. of TRADEway. He has studied investing since childhood, when he sat at his grandfather's knee and watched him leverage his oil money through trading in the stock market. David has spoken at university business schools, to both faculty and students, on the topic of the entrepreneurial spirit and the importance of the family business. He has presented cash flow investing events across the country through his TRADEway live event system.

David has been in the ministry for over 35 years. His experience includes youth ministry, serving as Associate Pastor under three different pastors, and he has been the Sr. Pastor of Park Meadows Church in Corsicana, Texas now for over 25 years. He has written over 4,000 sermons, booklets, gospel tracts and Bible studies, and once the late pastor of the great First Baptist Church of Dallas, Texas, Dr. W. A. Criswell, said of him, "Mitchell, you are the best writer I have ever read." David loves studying and teaching the Word of God, and he loves the Lord who wrote it. He has never taken a salary from a church due to God's blessings in his business endeavors. David especially enjoys finding principles in the Bible that relate to business, and sharing them in entrepreneurial events.

This combination of business education and experience, together with the teaching skills which come from years in the ministry, make David's events a truly unique and life changing experience for the whole family. At this point in David's life, his life's goal is to provide knowledge that can turn typical families into wealthy families, through the idea of the family business.
