Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a Client's or prospective Client's evaluation of this advisory business.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Fields is a licensed insurance agent with various insurance companies.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Fields does not receive any economic benefit from any person, company, or organization, in exchange for providing Client advisory services through TCP Asset Management, LLC other than his compensation paid by the Company, i.e., salary and/or bonuses.

Mr. Fields receives compensation as a licensed insurance agent. Some, if not all, of the Company's IARs are also licensed insurance agents and may offer insurance products through unaffiliated insurance entities to the Company's advisory Clients and may earn a commission on any sales. This may create a conflict of interest just by the IAR earning a commission as an insurance agent on insurance products. Clients are under no obligation to purchase insurance products from their IAR in their separate capacity as an insurance agent. TCP is neither a broker-dealer nor an insurance agency, and therefore, does not offer either securities or insurance products.

Mr. Fields also receives compensation for his work with Universities and other entities as a lecturer and as an adjunct professor.

Item 6: Supervision

Mr. Fields is supervised by Joshua R. Allen, Chief Compliance Officer. Mr. Allen supervises all duties and activities of Mr. Fields. Mr. Fields's contact information is on the cover page of this disclosure document. Mr. Fields adheres to all required regulations regarding the activities of an Investment Adviser Representative and follows all policies and procedures outlined in the Company's policies and procedures manual, including the Code of Ethics, and appropriate securities regulatory requirements.
