Item 4 – Advisory Services

A. Firm Information

Goalsetter Advisors (“Goalsetter” or the “Advisor”) is a registered investment advisor with the SEC, which is organized as a Corporation under the laws of the State of New York. Goalsetter was founded in November 2017, and is owned by Students of Wealth, Inc. The Advisor is operated by Tanya Van Court (Chief Executive Officer and Chief Compliance Officer). This Disclosure Brochure provides information regarding the qualifications, business practices, and the advisory services provided by Goalsetter.

B. Advisory Services Offered

Goalsetter offers investment advisory services to individuals and high net worth individuals (each referred to as a “Client”) through an interactive, online investment advice platform at www.Goalsetter.co (the “Platform”).

Goalsetter believes that belief that children who are early savers will be lifetime savers. Goalsetter is an investment Platform which empowers families to teach financial literacy and gain with investments by having their own managed investment account.

Goalsetter provides an investment advisory solution for its Clients. The investment advisory solution is based on Clients using the Platform to identify the types of exchange traded funds (ETFs) and mutual funds that may be of interest to the Client based on asset class or industry sector that the funds represent. Goalsetter then provides the Client with discretionary investment management services by constructing the portfolio consisting of investments that are in the Client’s chosen asset class or sector. A typical portfolio will be constructed of three or four ETFs and/or mutual funds.

Goalsetter’s investment options are generally long-term in nature. The Advisor does not recommend portfolio strategies that are short-term in nature or that require frequent trading. However, in limited circumstances, the Advisor may buy, sell or re-allocate positions that have been held less than one year due to market conditions or to generate cash.

At no time will Goalsetter accept or maintain custody of a Client’s funds or securities, except for authorized deduction of the Advisor’s fees. All Client assets will be managed within their designated account[s] at the Custodian, pursuant to the terms of the Platform agreement. Please see Item 12 – Brokerage Practices.

Clients visiting www.Goalsetter.co and other electronic sites maintained by the Advisor will be offered access to the Platform, whereby the Client can access information on financial literacy topics and select investment options to use in the Client’s portfolio. In consideration for its services, the Advisor may receive a monthly advisory fee. Please see Item 5 below.

C. Client Account Management

Limited Access to Advisor

The Advisor serves as an “Internet-Only” investment advisor pursuant to Section 203A-2(e) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the “Advisers Act”). Under this registration, the Advisor provides investment advice solely through its interactive website. The Advisor is not available to Clients for telephone conversations or communications through other means such as U.S. mail, courier or email (other than operational emails). The Advisor does not meet with Client’s at its offices. All advice, support and inquiries are delivered through the Advisor’s website. To gain access to the Advisor, the Client must join the Platform and agree to its terms of use.

The Advisor may, for a limited number of Clients annually, provide customized services, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 203A-2(e) of the Advisers Act.

D. Wrap Fee Programs

Goalsetter does not manage or place Client assets into a wrap fee program. Investment management services are provided directly by Goalsetter.

E. Assets Under Management

Goalsetter is a newly established advisor. Assets under management shall be reported following the Advisor's December 31, 2018 fiscal year end. Clients may request more current information at any time by contacting the Advisor.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

The following paragraphs detail the fee structure and compensation methodology for services provided by the Advisor. Each Client engaging the Advisor for services described herein shall be required to enter into a written agreement with the Advisor.

A. Fees for Advisory Services

Investment advisory fees are paid monthly in advance pursuant to the terms of the Platform agreement. Investment advisory fees are determined by the Advisor and will either be charged at $1 a month per account or, for accounts with more than $5,000, up to 0.25% of the assets under management.

The investment advisory fee in the first month of service is prorated from the inception date of the account[s] to the end of the first month. Fees may be negotiable at the sole discretion of the Advisor.

The Advisor's fee is exclusive of, and in addition to, brokerage fees, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses, which may be incurred by the Client. However, the Advisor shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs.

B. Fee Billing

Investment advisory fees are calculated by the Advisor or its delegate and deducted from the Client's account[s] at the Custodian. The Advisor shall send an invoice to the Custodian indicating the amount of the fees to be deducted from the Client's account[s] at the beginning of the respective month. Clients will be provided with a statement, at least quarterly, from the Custodian reflecting deduction of the investment advisory fee. It is the responsibility of the Client to verify the accuracy of these fees as listed on the Custodian's brokerage statement as the Custodian does not assume this responsibility. Clients provide written authorization permitting Goalsetter to be paid directly from their account[s] held by the Custodian as part of the Platform agreement and separate account forms provided by the Custodian.

If the fee is being calculated is based on a percentage of assets under management, then the Advisor or delegate shall calculate the fee based on the market value of assets under management at the end of the prior calendar month. The Client's fees will take into consideration the aggregate assets under management with Advisor. All securities held in accounts managed by Goalsetter will be independently valued by the designated Custodian. Goalsetter will not have the authority or responsibility to value portfolio securities.

C. Other Fees and Expenses

Clients may incur certain fees or charges imposed by third parties, other than Goalsetter, in connection with investments made on behalf of the Client's account[s]. The Client is responsible for all custody and securities execution fees charged by the Custodian and executing broker-dealer. The fees charged by Goalsetter are separate and distinct from these custody and execution fees.

In addition, all fees paid to Goalsetter for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the expenses charged by mutual funds and EFTs to their shareholders, if applicable. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees and expenses will generally be used to pay management fees for the funds, other fund expenses, account administration (e.g., custody, brokerage and account reporting), and a possible distribution fee. A Client could invest in these products directly, without the services of Goalsetter, but would not receive the services provided by Goalsetter which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which products or services are most appropriate for each Client's financial situation and objectives. Accordingly, the Client should review both the fees charged by the fund[s] and the fees charged by Goalsetter to fully understand the total fees to be paid.

D. Advance Payment of Fees and Termination

Goalsetter is compensated for its services in advance of the month in which investment advisory services are rendered. Either party may terminate the Platform agreement, at any time, by providing advance written notice to the other party. The Client may terminate the Platform agreement within five (5) business days of signing the Advisor's agreement at no cost to the Client. After the five-day period, the Client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the Client. The Advisor will refund any unearned, prepaid investment advisory fees from the effective date of termination to the end of the month. The Platform agreement is non-transferable without the Client's consent.

E. Compensation for Sales of Securities

Goalsetter does not buy or sell securities and does not receive any compensation for securities transactions in any Client account, other than the investment advisory fees noted above.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Goalsetter does not charge performance-based fees for its investment advisory services. The fees charged by Goalsetter are as described in "Item 5 – Fees and Compensation" above and are not based upon the capital appreciation of the funds or securities held by any Client.

Goalsetter does not manage any proprietary investment funds or limited partnerships (for example, a mutual fund or a hedge fund) and has no financial incentive to recommend any particular investment options to its Clients.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

Goalsetter offers investment advisory services to individuals and high net worth individuals. The number of each type of Client serviced by the Advisor is available on Goalsetter's Form ADV Part 1A. These amounts may change over time and are updated at least annually by the Advisor. Goalsetter generally does not impose a minimum account size for establishing a relationship.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

A. Methods of Analysis

Goalsetter employs fundamental and technical analysis methods in developing investment strategies for its Clients. Research and analysis from Goalsetter is derived from numerous sources, including doctors, specialists, third-party research materials, Internet sources, and review of company activities, including annual reports, prospectuses, press releases and research prepared by others.

Fundamental analysis utilizes economic and business indicators as investment selection criteria. These criteria are generally ratios and trends that may indicate the overall strength and financial viability of the entity being analyzed. Assets are deemed suitable if they meet certain criteria to indicate that they are a strong investment with a value discounted by the market. While this type of analysis helps the Advisor in evaluating a potential investment, it does not guarantee that the investment will increase in value. Assets meeting the investment criteria utilized in the fundamental analysis may lose value and may have negative investment performance. The Advisor monitors these economic indicators to determine if adjustments to strategic allocations are appropriate. More details on the Advisor's review process are included below in "Item 13 – Review of Accounts".

Technical analysis involves the analysis of past market data rather than specific company data in determining the recommendations made to clients. Technical analysis may involve the use of charts to identify market patterns and trends, which may be based on investor sentiment rather than the fundamentals of the company. The primary risk in using technical analysis is that spotting historical trends may not help to predict such trends in the future. Even if the trend will eventually reoccur, there is no guarantee that Goalsetter will be able to accurately predict such a reoccurrence.

As noted above, Goalsetter generally employs a long-term investment strategy for its Clients, as consistent with their financial goals. Goalsetter will typically hold all or a portion of a security for more than a year but may hold for shorter periods for the purpose of rebalancing a portfolio or generate cash. At times, Goalsetter may also buy and sell positions that are more short-term in nature, depending on the fundamentals of the security, sector or asset class.

B. Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves certain investment risks. Securities may fluctuate in value or lose value. Clients should be prepared to bear the potential risk of loss. There is no guarantee that a Client will meet their investment goals.

While the methods of analysis help the Advisor in evaluating a potential investment, it does not guarantee that the investment will increase in value. Assets meeting the investment criteria utilized in these methods of analysis may lose value and may have negative investment performance.

Each Client engagement will entail a review of the research available on investment option chosen by the Advisor. The Advisor shall rely on the financial and other information provided by the Client or their designees without the duty or obligation to validate the accuracy and completeness of the provided information. It is the responsibility of the Client to inform the Advisor of any changes in financial condition, goals or other factors that may affect this analysis.

The risks associated with a particular strategy are provided to each Client in advance of investing Client accounts. Following are some of the risks associated with the potential speculative components of the Advisor's strategy:

ETF Risks

The performance of ETFs is subject to market risk, including the possible loss of principal. The value of the ETFs will fluctuate with the value of the underlying securities that make up the funds. In addition, ETFs have a trading risk based on the loss of cost efficiency if the ETFs are traded actively and a liquidity risk if the ETFs has a large bid-ask spread and low volume. Authorized participants in an ETF may change at any time; this may result in change to the liquidity and the ability to redeem the ETF as the authorized participants control the number of shares of the ETF. The value of an ETF fluctuates based upon the market movements and may disassociate from the index being tracked or from the value of the underlying investments. An ETF purchased or sold at one point in the day may have a different value than the same ETF purchased or sold a short time later.

Mutual Fund Risks

The performance of mutual funds is subject to market risk, including the possible loss of principal. The value of the mutual funds will fluctuate with the value of the underlying securities that make up the funds. The value of a mutual fund is typically set daily therefore a mutual fund purchased at one point in the day will typically have the same value as a mutual fund purchased later that same day.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities and other investments involve a risk of loss that each Client should understand and be willing to bear. Clients are reminded to discuss these risks with the Advisor.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, regulatory or disciplinary events involving Goalsetter or any of its Supervised Persons. Goalsetter values the trust you place in us. As we advise all Clients, we encourage you to perform the requisite due diligence on any advisor or service provider with whom you partner. Our backgrounds are on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching by our firm name or our CRD# 291114.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

The sole business of Goalsetter is to provide investment advisory services to its Clients. However, the Supervised Persons of Goalsetter are involved in other business endeavors. These other business endeavors are not investment-related and do not create a conflict of interest for Clients of Goalsetter. Goalsetter does not maintain any affiliations with other firms, other than contracted service providers to assist with the servicing of its Client's accounts.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

A. Code of Ethics

Goalsetter has implemented a Code of Ethics (the "Code") that defines our fiduciary commitment to each Client. This Code applies to all persons associated with Goalsetter (our "Supervised Persons"). The Code was developed to provide general ethical guidelines and specific instructions regarding our duties to you, our Client. Goalsetter and its Supervised Persons owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client. It is the obligation of Goalsetter's Supervised Persons to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code, but also to the general principles that guide the Code. The Code covers a range of topics that address employee ethics and conflicts of interest. To request a copy of our Code, please contact us via our website at www.Goalsetter.co

B. Personal Trading with Material Interest

Goalsetter allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Goalsetter does not act as principal in any transactions. In addition, the Advisor does not act as the general partner of a fund, or advise an investment company. Goalsetter does not have a material interest in any securities traded in Client accounts.

C. Personal Trading in Same Securities as Clients

Goalsetter allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Owning the same securities we recommend (purchase or sell) to you presents a conflict of interest that, as fiduciaries, we must disclose to you and mitigate through policies and procedures. As noted above, we have adopted the Code to address insider trading (material non-public information controls); gifts and entertainment; outside business activities and personal securities reporting. When trading for personal accounts, Supervised Persons may have a conflict of interest if trading in the same securities. The fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its Clients can potentially be violated if personal trades are made with more advantageous terms than Client trades, or by trading based on material non-public information. This risk is mitigated by Goalsetter by conducting a coordinated review of personal accounts and the accounts of the Clients. We have also adopted written policies and procedures to detect the misuse of material, non-public information.

D. Personal Trading at Same Time as Client

While Goalsetter allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, such trades are typically aggregated with Client orders or traded afterwards. At no time will Goalsetter, or any Supervised Person of Goalsetter, transact in any security to the detriment of any Client.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

A. Recommendation of Custodian[s]

Goalsetter does not have discretionary authority to select the broker-dealer/custodian for custody and execution services. The Client will select the broker-dealer or custodian (herein the "Custodian") to safeguard Client assets and authorize Goalsetter to direct trades to this Custodian as agreed in the Platform agreement. Further, Goalsetter does not have the discretionary authority to negotiate commissions on behalf of our Clients on a trade-by-trade basis.

Where Goalsetter does not exercise discretion over the selection of the Custodian, it may recommend the Custodian[s] to Clients for execution and/or custodial services. Clients are not obligated to use the recommended Custodian and will not incur any extra fee or cost associated with using a broker not recommended by Goalsetter. Goalsetter may recommend the Custodian based on criteria such as, but not limited to, reasonableness of commissions charged to the Client, services made available to the Client, and location of the Custodian's offices.

Following are additional details regarding the brokerage practices of the Advisor:

1. Soft Dollars - Soft dollars are revenue programs offered by broker-dealers whereby an advisor enters into an agreement to place security trades with the broker in exchange for research and other services. Goalsetter does not participate in soft dollar programs sponsored or offered by any broker-dealer.

2. Brokerage Referrals - Goalsetter does not receive any compensation from any third party in connection with the recommendation for establishing a brokerage account.

3. Directed Brokerage - All Clients are serviced on a “directed brokerage basis”, where Goalsetter will place trades within the established account[s] at the Custodian designated by the Client. Further, all Client accounts are traded within their respective brokerage account[s]. The Advisor will not engage in any principal transactions (i.e., trade of any security from or to the Advisor’s own account) or cross transactions with other Client accounts (i.e., purchase of a security into one Client account from another Client’s account[s]). Goalsetter will not be obligated to select competitive bids on securities transactions and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available transaction costs. These costs are determined by the designated Custodian.

B. Aggregating and Allocating Trades

The primary objective in placing orders for the purchase and sale of securities for Client accounts is to obtain the most favorable net results taking into account such factors as 1) price, 2) size of order, 3) difficulty of execution, 4) confidentiality and 5) skill required of the broker. Goalsetter will execute its transactions through an unaffiliated broker-dealer selected by the Client. In most circumstances Goalsetter will not aggregate orders in a block trade or trades. However, in limited circumstances, Goalsetter may aggregate orders in a block trade or trades when securities are purchased or sold through the same broker-dealer for multiple accounts in the same trading day.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

A. Frequency of Reviews

Securities in Client accounts are monitored on a regular and continuous basis by Al Marino, Head of Operations and Tanya Van Court, Chief Compliance Officer of Goalsetter. Formal reviews are generally conducted at least annually or more or less frequently depending on the needs of the Client.

B. Causes for Reviews

In addition to the investment monitoring noted in Item 13.A., each Client account shall be reviewed at least annually. Reviews may be conducted more or less frequently at the Client’s request. Accounts may be reviewed as a result of major changes in economic conditions, known changes in the Client’s financial situation, and/or large deposits or withdrawals in the Client’s account. The Client is encouraged to notify Goalsetter if changes occur in the Client’s personal financial situation that might adversely affect the Client’s investment plan. Additional reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events.

C. Review Reports

The Client will receive brokerage statements no less than quarterly from the Custodian. These brokerage statements are sent directly from the Custodian to the Client. The Client may also establish electronic access to the Custodian’s website so that the Client may view these reports and their account activity. Client brokerage statements will include all positions, transactions and fees relating to the Client’s account[s]. The Advisor may also provide Clients with periodic reports regarding their holdings, allocations, and performance.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

A. Compensation Received by Goalsetter

Goalsetter is a fee-based advisory firm, that is compensated solely by its Clients and not from any investment product. Goalsetter does not receive commissions or other compensation from product sponsors, broker-dealers or any un-related third party. Goalsetter may refer Clients to various unaffiliated, non-advisory professionals (e.g. attorneys, accountants, estate planners) to provide certain financial services necessary to meet the goals of its Clients. Likewise, Goalsetter may receive non-compensated referrals of new Clients from various third-parties.

B. Client Referrals from Solicitors

Goalsetter does not engage paid solicitors for Client referrals.

Item 15 – Custody

Goalsetter does not accept or maintain custody of any Client accounts, except for the authorized deduction of the Advisor's fees. All Clients must place their assets with a "qualified custodian". Clients are required to engage the Custodian to retain their funds and securities and direct Goalsetter to utilize that Custodian for the Client's security transactions. Clients should review statements provided by the Custodian and compare to any reports provided by Goalsetter to ensure accuracy, as the Custodian does not perform this review. For more information about custodians and brokerage practices, see "Item 12 - Brokerage Practices".

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

Goalsetter generally has discretion over the selection and amount of securities to be bought or sold in Client accounts without obtaining prior consent or approval from the Client. However, these purchases or sales may be subject to guidelines or limitation based on the specified disease field set forth by the Client and agreed to by Goalsetter. Discretionary authority will be authorized by the Client's execution of a Platform agreement containing all applicable limitations to such authority.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Goalsetter does not accept proxy-voting responsibility for any Client. Clients will receive proxy statements directly from the Custodian. The Advisor will assist in answering questions relating to proxies, however, the Client retains the sole responsibility for proxy decisions and voting.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Neither Goalsetter, nor its management, have any adverse financial situations that would reasonably impair the ability of Goalsetter to meet all obligations to its Clients. Neither Goalsetter, nor any of its Advisory Persons, has been subject to a bankruptcy or financial compromise. Goalsetter is not required to deliver a balance sheet along with this Disclosure Brochure as the Advisor does not collect fees of $1,200 or more for services to be performed six months or more in advance.

Privacy Policy

Effective: March 20, 2018

Our Commitment to You

Goalsetter Advisors ("Goalsetter" or the "Advisor") is committed to safeguarding the use of personal information of our Clients (also referred to as "you" and "your") that we obtain as your Investment Advisor, as described here in our Privacy Policy ("Policy").

Our relationship with you is our most important asset. We understand that you have entrusted us with your private information, and we do everything that we can to maintain that trust. Goalsetter (also referred to as "we", "our" and "us") protects the security and confidentiality of the personal information we have and implements controls to ensure that such information is used for proper business purposes in connection with the management or servicing of our relationship with you.

Goalsetter does not sell your non-public personal information to anyone. Nor do we provide such information to others except for discrete and reasonable business purposes in connection with the servicing and management of our relationship with you, as discussed below.

Details of our approach to privacy and how your personal non-public information is collected and used are set forth in this Policy.

Why you need to know?

Registered Investment Advisors ("RIAs") must share some of your personal information in the course of servicing your account. Federal and State laws give you the right to limit some of this sharing and require RIAs to disclose how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.

What information do we collect from you?
