General Information

U-Nest Holdings LLC (U-Nest) is a digital investing platform and a mobile app designed to make saving for kids' college education accessible, intuitive and simple. U-Nest offers the U-Nest Wrap Fee Program (the "Program") to prospective clients. U-Nest was incorporated in Delaware in January 2018 and maintains its principal office at 2920 West Olive Ave. Suite 105, Burbank, CA 91505. If you have any questions regarding the material contained herein, please contact U-Nest at info.u-nest@U-Nest.com.

Services

U-Nest operates in the FinTech Industry and provides college savings management services to clients in the United States through their U-Nest web-based platform and mobile application. Through our platforms, we will be offering investment services specifically designed for the financial needs of a college education through a tax-advantaged vehicle called the 529 Plan.

Investment accounts will be directed towards the highly diversified portfolios of Exchange-Traded Funds (ETFs), a type of fund that owns underlying assets and divides ownership of those assets into shares to minimize investment risk. In addition, the investments will be implemented through the target-date funds with allocations changing from more opportunistic (while children are young and the time horizon is long) to more conservative (when children approach enrollment date and the time horizon is short) to ensure safety of investments close to the withdrawal date; age-based funds will start with a higher allocation of stocks, which gradually shift towards cash and bonds over time.

U-Nest's College Savings Calculator will allow clients to estimate the total college cost at the time of enrollment. This internally developed tool will use a U-Nest algorithm to highlight the potential tax benefits of saving through a U-Nest college savings plan and allow customers to adjust their monthly contribution amount accordingly.

In addition, U-Nest offers simple investment accounts for minors subject to the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (UTMA) for customers who would like to save for their kids, but are concerned with limitations of 529 Plans, including the ability to apply funds exclusively on education-related needs and potential penalty for non-qualified withdrawals. This allows investors to gift assets to minors which will become available to the minor when they are of a specified age, shielding the minor from certain tax consequences. Both types of accounts, The College Savings Account and Minor Investment Account, are offered through the web-based platform and mobile application.

The Program was designed for early adoption of non-retirement savings and does not incorporate overall financial or tax planning.

Portfolio Management

All of U-Nest's clients are advised on a non-discretionary basis; the client, rather than U-Nest, will ultimately select the investment. When a client deposits money, U-Nest constructs purchases to align the client's account to their investment strategy selection. Upon a client's request to withdraw money, a combination of sales is initiated while continuing to pursue the corresponding investment strategy chosen by the client. U-Nest clients agree to rebalance holdings and reinvest dividends automatically.

In addition, U-Nest will have discretion on the available investment portfolio options offered through the U-Nest web-based platform and mobile application. Should U-Nest investment portfolios change due to U-Nest's decision to change investment management institutions for the benefit of clients, U-Nest will inform clients accordingly and will have the discretion to transition a client's investments to similar offerings from the new investment management institution.

Fees

U-Nest's clients with an account balance of $5,000 or more pay an annual wrap fee (i.e., service fees) of .25%. Accounts under the $5,000 balance are subject to a fixed, flat fee of $1 per month for personal use of the U-Nest web or mobile application. Fees are non-negotiable. The annual wrap fee includes advisory services, execution, clearance, custody, and account reporting. The fee schedule is as follows:

Account Balance	Fee
Less than $5000	$1 per month
$5000 or greater	.25%/year of total account balance, split into monthly payments

U-Nest is structured to favor frequent investing. The fee structure may not be suitable for individuals with small accounts or individuals looking to make few or infrequent small-dollar investments.

The wrap fee is calculated based on the client's month ending balance and is charged monthly. The custodian bank or financial institution holding the client's assets will deduct fees from the assets in the client's account on a monthly basis to pay U-Nest. U-Nest absorbs transaction costs as part of the servicing. Clients might find the advisory and other services that comprise the U-Nest experience may exceed the costs of similar services when purchased separately.

The investment vehicles offered by U-Nest have fees that are separate and distinct from the fees paid to U-Nest for its wrap fee program. These fees include, but are not limited to, service fees, ETF/mutual fund fees and other operating expenses on a fund. The prospectus, a legal document required by and filed with the SEC that provides details about the investment offers for each investment vehicle, will detail the fees and charges assessed by the managers of those products.

U-Nest reserves the right to reduce or waive any fees associated with the advisory services at its sole discretion.

ITEM 5: ACCOUNT REQUIREMENTS AND TYPES OF CLIENTS

U-Nest services are available to individuals who are legal U.S. residents and maintain a checking account with a U.S. bank. There is no minimum account size, and the minimum initial and subsequent deposits is $25. Inactive accounts or accounts with 0 balances for 30 days or greater may be terminated at the discretion of U-Nest.

ITEM 6: PORTFOLIO MANAGER SELECTION AND EVALUATION

To determine the investment vehicles offered on U-Nest's platform, an operational due diligence ("ODD") is conducted by U-Nest when selecting the appropriate 529 Plan to offer to U-Nest clients. The ODD includes, but is not limited to the review of the following:

- 529 Plan account-opening processes, types of accounts available, flexibility in administering accounts, and the overall compatibility with technology
- 529 Plan custodial arrangements, history and stability
- Advisory firms that manage the assets within the 529 Plan
- Disclosure documents (including fees, expenses, principal risks and other terms)
- State and advisory firms' level of communication and cooperation
- Review of other information as U-Nest deems relevant

U-Nest does not review performance information of the underlying portfolio managers to determine or verify its accuracy or its compliance with presentation standards.

Risk of Loss

Utilization of the U-Nest College Savings Calculator, which presents purely informational projected values, are not guarantees of future results. Your actual results will vary from those presented and may impact your ability to reach your financial planning goals. Market risk (including, but not limited to macroeconomic environment, interest rates, regulatory changes, domestic or foreign politics, social events, liquidity, bankruptcy/insolvency, etc.) will vary and could negatively impact the performance of securities in your portfolio. Any investment in securities involves the possibility of financial loss that clients should be prepared to bear. U-Nest may also experience technology issues (equipment failure, loss of internet, viruses, or other events that may impair access to U-Nest software) which could impact the U-Nest experience.

Risk of Beneficiary

The student the account is intended for might not attend college, or the student might not need to expend all of the money invested. U-Nest clients are encouraged to review the IRS rules that apply or to consult with a tax advisor before designating a new recipient. U-Nest does not provide advice about designating other recipients of 529 Plans. U-Nest clients should also be aware that even if investments in a 529 Plan grow, the costs of education might be so great that your beneficiary might not be able to pay for the college of his or her choice through their 529 Plan.

Risk of Tax Impact

Performance may directly or indirectly be affected by government legislation or regulation. By investing through U-Nest, tax benefits (such as state tax deductions or credits) might be unavailable to you through the U-Nest platform. You should investigate all available options before investing with U-Nest.

Gift tax rules may apply when investing in a 529 Plan. Please consider this rule, particularly when investing larger amounts or after having given sizable gifts. In addition, tax laws change and 529 Plan tax benefits could change or be eliminated as a result. U-Nest does not give tax or financial planning advice. U-Nest clients should consult the IRS rules, a tax advisor or personal financial planner if questions arise regarding taxes.

ITEM 7: CLIENT INFORMATION PROVIDED TO PORTFOLIO MANAGERS

When opening a U-Nest account, a client will be asked to provide pertinent information (ex. name, age, monthly investment amounts, etc.) for U-Nest's algorithm in the College Savings Calculator to properly assess and advise on which age-based funds a client should consider investing in. U-Nest does not share client information with any external portfolio managers.

ITEM 8: CLIENT CONTACT WITH PORTFOLIO MANAGERS

U-Nest primarily uses electronic rather than telephonic means to provide customer support. Existing and prospecting clients are encouraged to contact U-Nest via email or through their web-based platform or mobile application. Information regarding a client's portfolio holdings and performance will be available to clients through U-Nest's platforms. Clients should note that U-Nest advice is only through its online interactive software application. Clients may contact

U-Nest by phone or email during its normal business hours should they have any questions about their U-Nest experience.
