The annualized fees for the programs are charged as a percentage of the value of the client's portfolio, according to the following schedule:

$2,000,001 and over	0.85% - 1.00%

How are Fees Charged? Program fees are charged quarterly in arrears. If management begins after the start of a month, Program fees will be prorated accordingly. When authorized by the client, fees will be debited from the account in accordance with the terms set forth in the Investment Management Agreement ("IMA").

What services are covered by the Program fees? The Program fees pay for our firm's advisory services to clients under the Program, administrative expenses of the Program, custody charges for clients' assets custodied at Pershing LLC and brokerage services for Program accounts to the extent trades are conducted through Pershing LLC.

What services are not covered by the Program fees? The Program fees do not cover brokerage to the extent trades are conducted through brokers or dealers other than Pershing LLC and custody charges if client assets are custodied anywhere other than Pershing LLC. The Program fees do not include expenses of mutual funds and electronically traded funds such as fund management fees charged to each fund's investors.

Other Fees and Expenses. Clients may incur charges for other account services provided not directly related to the execution and clearing of transactions, including, but not limited to, wire transfer fees, fees for transfers of securities or safekeeping fees.

Additional Information about Program fees. Under the Program, the participant receives investment advisory services, the execution of securities brokerage transactions, custody and reporting services for a single specified Program Fee. Clients are cautioned that depending on the level of fees charged by the executing broker-dealer, and the amount of portfolio activity in the clients' account, the value of the services provided under this Program may exceed the total cost of such services had they been provided separately. In addition, the Program Fee may be higher or lower than that charged by other sponsors of comparable wrap fee programs. In addition, a disparity in wrap fees may exist between the wrap fees charged to other clients.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Termination of the Advisory Relationship: A client agreement may be canceled at any time, by either party, for any reason upon receipt of 30 days written notice.

Mutual Fund Fees: All fees paid to Country Club Financial Services, Inc. for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds and/or ETFs to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses, and a possible distribution fee. If the fund also imposes sales charges, a client may pay an initial or deferred sales charge. A client could invest in a mutual fund directly, without our services. In that case, the client would not receive the services provided by our firm which are designed, among other things, to assist the client in determining which mutual fund or funds are most appropriate to each client's financial condition and objectives. Accordingly, the client should review both the fees charged by the funds and our fees to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client and to thereby evaluate the advisory services being provided.

Exchange-Traded Funds. Shares of ETFs held in client accounts are bought and sold on an exchange and not, like mutual funds, directly from the fund itself. The price of ETF shares fluctuates in accordance with changes in the net asset value (NAV) per share, as well as in response to market supply and demand. Accordingly, ETF shares may trade at a price which differs from NAV per share of the ETF.

Grandfathering of Minimum Account Requirements: Pre-existing advisory clients are subject to Country Club Financial Services, Inc.'s minimum account requirements and advisory fees in effect at the time the client entered into the advisory relationship. Therefore, our firm's minimum account requirements may differ among clients.

Advisory Fees in General: Clients should note that similar advisory services may (or may not) be available from other registered (or unregistered) investment advisers for similar or lower fees.

Limited Prepayment of Fees: Under no circumstances do we require or solicit payment of fees in excess of $1,200 more than six months in advance of services rendered.

METHODS OF ANALYSIS

We use the following methods of analysis in formulating our investment advice and/or managing client assets:

Risks for all forms of analysis. Our securities analysis methods rely on the assumption that the companies whose securities we purchase and sell, the rating agencies that review these securities, and other publicly-available sources of information about these securities, are providing accurate and unbiased data. While we are alert to indications that data may be incorrect, there is always a risk that our analysis may be compromised by inaccurate or misleading information.

INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

We use strategies in managing client accounts that are appropriate to the needs of the client and consistent with the client's investment objectives, risk tolerance, and time horizons, among other considerations.

Risk of Loss. Clients should understand that investing in any securities, including mutual funds, involves a risk of loss of both income and principal.

VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

As a matter of firm policy, we do not vote proxies on behalf of clients. Therefore, although our firm may provide investment advisory services relative to client investment assets, clients maintain exclusive responsibility for: (1) directing the manner in which proxies solicited by issuers of securities beneficially owned by the client shall be voted, and (2) making all elections relative to any mergers, acquisitions, tender offers, bankruptcy proceedings or other type events pertaining to the client's investment assets. Clients are responsible for instructing each custodian of the assets, to forward to the client copies of all proxies and shareholder communications relating to the client's investment assets.

We do not offer any consulting assistance regarding proxy issues to clients.

Item 7 Client Information Provided to Portfolio Managers

Individuals affiliated with our firm are responsible for developing an initial financial profile of the prospective client. Prior to opening an account, we assist in determining a participant's profile for the Program by obtaining from the participant appropriate information (i.e., investment objectives, risk tolerance, time horizon, and any reasonable restrictions the client wishes to impose upon the management of the account). Initial investment strategy is jointly determined based on an assessment of the information provided by the client.

While we provide the client with periodic reminders, it remains the client's responsibility to advise us of any changes to the information previously provided that might impact the ongoing suitability of any prior determined investment strategy(ies) and/or objectives.

Country Club Financial Services, Inc.'s investment adviser representative will directly contact each wrap fee program client at least annually to verify that there has been no change in the client's financial circumstances and/or investment objectives, and determine whether the client wishes to impose any reasonable restrictions on the management of the account(s). Any such changes or requests are implemented by making appropriate adjustments to the client's portfolio.

Item 8 Client Contact With Portfolio Managers

The client's investment adviser representative is available to discuss the management and performance of the client's account and changes in the client's situation which may have an impact on the management of the client's account.

Item 9 Additional Information

Disciplinary Information

We are required to disclose any legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of our advisory business or the integrity of our management.

Our firm and our management personnel have no reportable disciplinary events to disclose.

Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

FIRM Registrations and Affiliations:

In addition to Country Club Financial Services, Inc. being a Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) registered investment adviser, our firm is registered as a broker-dealer with the SEC and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and is also a licensed insurance agency. A list of affiliated broker-dealers is specifically disclosed in Section 7.A. on Schedule D of Form ADV, Part 1, which can be accessed by following the directions provided on the Cover Page of this Firm Brochure.

Country Club Financial Services (CCFSI) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Country Club Bank (CCB) and has various arrangements with the bank, groups within the bank and affiliates of the bank. CCFSI as a subsidiary of CCB, is under common ownership and control with the following:

Country Club Trust Company, N.A.

Country Club Trust Company (CCTC) is wholly owned by Country Club Bank. CCFSI clients select Country Club Trust Company as the account custodian for Overlay Portfolio Management accounts managed by Tower Wealth Managers in the client's Advisory Services Management Program Agreement and agree to pay CCTC an annual custody fee.

Tower Wealth Managers, Inc.

Tower Wealth Managers (TWM) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Country Club Trust Company, which is wholly owned by CCB. TWM is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment advisor. TWM can provide investment advisory services to clients of CCFSI as part of a master subadvisory agreement between TWM and CCFSI in limited situations. TWM and CCFSI will not, however, use their relationship with each other to benefit themselves at the expense of a client.

Country Club Bank - Capital Markets Group

Capital Markets Group (CMG) is a division within CCB that specializes in the management of fixed income securities as a municipal bond dealer and government agency bond dealer. CCFSI will purchase bonds for its clients, when appropriate, from CMG. CCFSI will make all required disclosures. Clients are not obligated to have transactions executed through an affiliated entity. CMG may provide discretionary management of client bond portfolios pursuant to a subadvisory agreement with TWM in limited situations, for clients receiving TWM investment advisory services. Clients receiving TWM investment advisory services are not charged separately for any of CMG's discretionary bond portfolio management services as CMG is paid directly by TWM from their portion of the fee.

As required, any affiliated investment advisers are specifically disclosed in Section 7.A. on Schedule D of Form ADV, Part 1. (Part 1 of our Form ADV can be accessed by following the directions provided on the Cover Page of this Firm Brochure.)

CCFSI maintains its separate operations, books and records from CCB, CCTC and TWM. However, CCFSI, CCB and TWM may share common officers, directors, employees and office space. CCB provides certain administrative services and office space to CCFSI in exchange for monthly fees intended to estimate the fair market value of the services and space.

Generally arrangements with affiliated parties can create potential conflicts of interest. However, arrangements we have with affiliated parties are fully disclosed to clients, consent is requested in advance where applicable and such arrangement do not result in additional fees to the client.

Management personnel of our firm, in their individual capacities, are agents for various insurance companies. As such, these individuals are able to receive separate, yet customary commission compensation resulting from implementing product transactions on behalf of advisory clients. Clients, however, are not under any obligation to engage these individuals when considering implementation of advisory recommendations. The implementation of any or all recommendations is solely at the discretion of the client.

Clients should be aware that the receipt of additional compensation by Country Club Financial Services, Inc. and its management persons or employees creates a conflict of interest that may impair the objectivity of our firm and these individuals when making advisory recommendations. Country Club Financial Services, Inc. endeavors at all times to put the interest of its clients first as part of our fiduciary duty as a registered investment adviser; we take the following steps to address any conflict:

- we disclose to clients the existence of all material conflicts of interest, including the potential for our firm and our employees to earn compensation from advisory clients in addition to our firm's advisory fees;
- we disclose to clients that they are not obligated to purchase recommended investment products from our employees or affiliated companies;
- we collect, maintain and document accurate, complete and relevant client background information, including the client's financial goals, objectives and risk tolerance;
- our firm's management conducts regular reviews of each client account to verify that all recommendations made to a client are suitable to the client's needs and circumstances;
- we require that our employees seek prior approval of any outside employment activity so that we may ensure that any conflicts of interests in such activities are properly addressed;
- we periodically monitor these outside employment activities to verify that any conflicts of interest continue to be properly addressed by our firm; and
- we educate our employees regarding the responsibilities of a fiduciary, including the need for having a reasonable and independent basis for the investment advice provided to clients.

While Country Club Financial Services, Inc. and these individuals endeavor at all times to put the interest of the clients first as part of our fiduciary duty, clients should be aware that the receipt of additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect the judgment of these individuals when making recommendations.

Country Club Financial Services, Inc. or individuals associated with our firm may buy securities for the firm or for themselves from our advisory clients; or sell securities owned by the firm or the individual(s) to our advisory clients. We will ensure, however, that such transactions are conducted in compliance with all the provisions under Section 206(3) of the Advisers Act governing principal transactions to advisory clients.

As previously disclosed, clients are required to direct us to custody their assets with and to place trades through Pershing LLC as a condition for participation in the Country Club Portfolio Management Program and Country Club Fund Management Program. Pershing LLC is an unaffiliated FINRA-member broker dealer and the clearing firm and custodian that we use for brokerage accounts. Our firm has evaluated Pershing LLC and believes that it will provide our clients with a blend of execution services, commission costs, and professionalism that will assist us in meeting our fiduciary obligations to clients.

In evaluating such an arrangement, the client should recognize that brokerage commissions for the execution of transactions in the client's account are not negotiated by Country Club Financial Services, Inc. on a trade-by-trade basis, and best execution may not be achieved. In addition, as noted above in Item 4, transactions in the client's account are effected "net" (i.e., without separate commission charge to the client) and a portion of the wrap fee is generally considered as being in lieu of commissions. Not all advisers require clients to direct it to use a particular broker dealer, though the sponsors of wrap fee programs typically do.

Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Our firm has adopted a Code of Ethics which sets forth high ethical standards of business conduct that we require of our employees, including compliance with applicable federal securities laws, dealing fairly with customers and protecting confidential information.

Country Club Financial Services, Inc. and our personnel owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards our clients, and have an obligation to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code of Ethics but to the general principles that guide the Code.

CCFSI endeavors to always put the client's interest first, to disclose actual and potential conflicts of interest and manage or avoid conflicts of interest in accordance with applicable legal standards.

CCFSI's Code of Ethics further includes the firm's policy prohibiting the use of material non-public information. While we do not believe that we have any particular access to non-public information, all employees are reminded that such information may not be used in a personal or professional capacity.

Individual employees not adhering to the Code of Ethics, as well as all other policies and directives issued by CCFSI will be subject to sanctions and possible termination.

CCFSI will provide a copy of our Code of Ethics to our advisory clients and prospective clients upon request to the Chief Compliance Officer.

As disclosed in the preceding section of this Brochure (Item 10), related persons of our firm are separately registered as securities representatives of a broker-dealer, are another registered investment adviser, and/or are licensed as an insurance agent. Please refer to Item 10 for a detailed explanation of these relationships and important conflict of interest disclosures.

Review of Accounts

Country Club Financial Services, Inc. reviews client accounts no less often than quarterly. More frequent reviews may be triggered in the event of changes in management style or fund closures. Account reviews are conducted by: Lawrence E. Russell, Senior Vice President of Country Club Bank, Dwayne K. White, Executive Vice President and Chief Investment Officer of Tower Wealth Managers, Inc., Chall A. Jenkins, Senior Vice President of Tower Wealth Managers, Inc.

At least annually, the adviser meets with the client (either in person or over the phone) to review and update, as necessary, the client's investment profile. However, should there be any material change in the client's personal and/or financial situation, we should be notified immediately to determine whether any review and/or revision of the client's investment profile is warranted.

All clients receive account statements from their custodian on at least a quarterly basis. Additionally, we provide clients with periodic performance measurement summary reports, usually on a quarterly basis.

Client Referrals and Other Compensation

In the normal course of business CCFSI and its parent company, Country Club Bank (CCB), refer clients to each other. When an individual employed by CCB refers a client to CCFSI and that client attends an appointment with a representative of CCFSI, the employee receives $25 from CCFSI.

It is Country Club Financial Services, Inc.'s policy not to accept or allow our related persons to accept any form of compensation, including cash, sales awards or other prizes, from a non-client in conjunction with the advisory services we provide to our clients.

Financial Information

As an advisory firm, we are also required to disclose any financial condition that is reasonable likely to impair our ability to meet our contractual obligations. Country Club Financial Services, Inc. has no additional financial circumstances to report.

Under no circumstances do we require or solicit payment of fees in excess of $1,200 per client more than six months in advance of services rendered. Therefore, we are not required to include a financial statement.

Country Club Financial Services, Inc. has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time during the past ten years.
