

NextGen College Investing Plan

BROCHURE

Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated
One Bryant Park
New York, NY 10036
(800) 637-7455
www.ml.com

This brochure provides information about the qualifications and business practices of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated ("Merrill Lynch"). If you have any questions about the contents of this brochure, please contact us at 800-MERRILL (800-637-7455). The information in this brochure has not been approved or verified by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") or by any state securities authority. Investment adviser registration does not imply a certain level of skill or training.

The advisory services described in this brochure are not insured or otherwise protected by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency; are not an obligation of any bank or any affiliate of Merrill Lynch; are not endorsed or guaranteed by Bank of America, N.A., Merrill Lynch, or any bank or any affiliate of Merrill Lynch; and involve investment risk, including possible loss of principal.

Additional information about Merrill Lynch also is available on the SEC's website at http://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/Content/Search/iapd_Search.aspx.

August 1, 2014

MATERIAL CHANGES

On March 21, 2014, Merrill Lynch filed its last annual update for its NextGen College Investing Plan brochure (“Brochure” or “Disclosure Statement”). Set forth below is a summary of the material changes to this Brochure since that date. This summary of material changes is designed to make clients aware of information that has changed since the Brochure’s last annual update and that may be important to them. The material changes summarized below were also incorporated within this Brochure. Capitalized terms that are not defined in this Brochure have the meanings provided in the Glossary.

FINRA Settlement

On June 16, 2014, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (“MLPF&S”), without admitting or denying the findings, entered into an AWC with FINRA. The AWC related to MLPF&S’ failure to have an adequate supervisory system to ensure that certain clients received Class A shares with sales charge waivers when purchasing certain mutual funds. As a result, those clients paid sales loads when purchasing Class A shares, or purchased Class B or C shares with higher expenses, during various periods. The clients included those having two types of retirement accounts and another type of client in brokerage accounts offered by MLPF&S. MLPF&S reported certain of these issues to FINRA and all impacted clients have been or are in the process of being reimbursed as set forth in the AWC. MLPF&S consented to the imposition of a censure and a fine of $8 million, and agreed to provide additional reimbursement to impacted clients as set forth in the AWC.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

MATERIAL CHANGES	I
TABLE OF CONTENTS	II
ADVISORY BUSINESS	1
NextGen	1
Wrap Fee Programs	2
Assets Under Management	2
FEES AND COMPENSATION	2
Calculation and Deduction of Advisory Fees	2
Other Fees and Expenses	2
Compensation for the Sale of Securities	3
Sources of Revenue	4
PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT	4
TYPES OF CLIENTS	4
METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS	4
Material Risks	5
DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION	5
OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS	9
Receipt of Compensation from Investment Advisers	10
CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING	11
Conflicts of Interest and Information Walls	11
Code of Ethics	11
Participation or Interest in Client Transactions	11
Investments in Securities by Merrill Lynch and Our Personnel	12
BROKERAGE PRACTICES	13
REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS	13
Client Reports	13
CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION	13
CUSTODY	13
INVESTMENT DISCRETION	14
VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES	14
FINANCIAL INFORMATION	14
GLOSSARY	15

ADVISORY BUSINESS

Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (“Merrill Lynch,” “we,” “us,” or “our”), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of America, is a global investment banking firm and a registered broker-dealer, investment adviser and futures commission merchant. Merrill Lynch offers a broad range of brokerage, investment advisory, retail and other services and has been registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as an investment adviser since 1978. This brochure relates to the NextGen College Investing Plan (“NextGen”) offered by Merrill Lynch. Capitalized terms that are not defined in this Brochure have the meanings provided in the Glossary.

NEXTGEN

NextGen is a Section 529 tuition plan administered by the Finance Authority of Maine (“FAME” or “you”). Merrill Lynch serves as the Program Manager and underwriter.

Pursuant to the terms of the Program Management Agreement (“PMA”) between FAME and Merrill Lynch, we and our affiliate, Financial Data Services, Inc. (“FDS”), will perform certain administrative, recordkeeping and investment services, and will market and distribute NextGen. We and FDS are permitted to delegate certain of our responsibilities to our affiliates. We have delegated certain of our investment advisory responsibilities to Third Party Sub-Advisors who are Investment Managers that have entered into agreements with us.

Merrill Lynch distributes certain products and services sponsored or advised by BlackRock, Inc. under a global distribution agreement. An executive officer of Merrill Lynch serves on the board of directors of BlackRock, Inc.

NextGen is available to individuals, custodial and trust accounts and state or local government or tax-exempt organizations or certain other entities. NextGen offers two programs to participants: the NextGen Client Direct Series (“the NextGen Direct Series”) and the NextGen Client Select Series (“the NextGen Select Series”). Participants in the NextGen Select Series, with the assistance of Merrill Lynch Financial Advisors acting in a brokerage capacity or Maine Distribution Agents, make their investment decisions regarding the types of portfolios they would like to invest in. Participants in the NextGen Direct Series invest directly in NextGen, without the assistance of a Financial Advisor. Additional information about NextGen, including fees, expenses, sales charges and risks, and the services provided by Merrill Lynch and our affiliates, can be found in the NextGen Program Description and Participation Agreement that are each available through a Financial Advisor or at www.nextgenplan.com and as previously delivered to you.

We perform due diligence on the Investment Managers who manage the Portfolios available in NextGen. We recommend them to NextGen and assist NextGen in selecting Investment Managers that are suitable or appropriate to the Portfolios’ strategies. We monitor Investment Managers, including their performance, investment selection and their investment strategies.

In addition to NextGen, we and our affiliates offer a wide variety of advisory services. These include, but are not limited to, the following: Merrill Lynch Investment Advisory Program, Merrill Lynch Consults® Merrill Lynch Consulting Services, Merrill Lynch Mutual Fund Advisor® Program, Merrill Lynch Personal Advisor® Program, Merrill Lynch Personal Investment Advisory® program, Merrill Lynch Strategic Portfolio Advisor® Service, and Merrill Lynch Unified Managed Account. We also offer impersonal investment advice (general advice not tailored to the specific needs of any individual) in the form of publications or research. In addition, we offer financial planning services, including (but not limited to) Merrill Lynch Financial Foundation® Report, and Merrill Lynch Private Planning ServicesSM. More information about these programs and services is contained in the applicable Merrill Lynch brochure (or Merrill Lynch Form ADV, Part 2A) and is available through the SEC's website at http://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/Content/Search/iapd_Search.aspx.

WRAP FEE PROGRAMS

We do not make NextGen available through wrap fee programs.

ASSETS UNDER MANAGEMENT

As of December 27, 2013, Merrill Lynch had assets under management of $485 billion, of which $188 billion was managed on a discretionary basis and $297 billion was managed on a non-discretionary basis. These amounts do not include any assets in connection with NextGen.

FEES AND COMPENSATION

Our compensation for our program management services to NextGen is bundled with overall compensation for all services provided to FAME. We are compensated for our sales and distribution efforts to participants in NextGen out of certain sales charges and ongoing compensation from the subadvisers of underlying funds, underlying funds and/or other investments or the providers of such investments. The fee arrangement between us and FAME is individually negotiated and is set forth in our agreement with FAME.

CALCULATION AND DEDUCTION OF ADVISORY FEES

Merrill Lynch and our affiliate, FDS, receive certain program management and portfolio servicing fees related to administrative, recordkeeping, investment services, marketing and distribution services we perform related to NextGen. These fees are deducted directly from the NextGen portfolios and are calculated on assets as disclosed in the Program Description and Participation Agreement. Merrill Lynch may pay a portion of its program management fee or other compensation to FDS for acting as the portfolio servicing agent.

OTHER FEES AND EXPENSES

Depending on the distribution channel a participant uses to establish his or her NextGen account, he or she may have to pay an annual account maintenance fee ranging from $0 to $50. However, this fee may be waived at our discretion. The annual account maintenance fee may be waived under certain criteria, including:

- Total annual contributions are at least $2,500;
- Account balances are $20,000 or greater at the end of the fee year;
- Whether the participant or beneficiary resides in the state of Maine;
- Affiliation with an employer who has made NextGen available to its employees via payroll deduction;
- Bank of America Merrill Lynch associates; and
- All NextGen Direct Series accounts

Fee waiver criteria are disclosed on the NextGen Program Description and Participation Agreement and may be modified at any time, in our sole discretion. NextGen participants may also be subject to non-sufficient funds fees and wire transfer fees.

COMPENSATION FOR THE SALE OF SECURITIESSelling Compensation for Select Program:A Class Units:

We are compensated for our sales and distribution efforts out of the Initial Sales Charges on the A Class Units and ongoing compensation from the underlying funds and/or other underlying investments. With regard to the Principal Plus Portfolio and the NextGen Savings Portfolio, we do not receive an up-front selling compensation on purchase of the A Unit Class, but receive ongoing compensation only. Our Financial Advisors receive a portion of this compensation as disclosed in the NextGen Program Description and Participation Agreement.

C Class Units:

We are compensated for our sales and distribution efforts out of the management fee on the C Class Units and ongoing compensation from the underlying funds and/or other underlying investments. Our Financial Advisors receive a portion of this compensation as disclosed in the NextGen Program Description and Participation Agreement.

Selling Compensation for Direct Program:Direct Units:

We are compensated for our distribution efforts out of the management fee and ongoing compensation from the underlying funds and/or other underlying investments. Our Financial Advisors cannot offer these Units and no compensation is paid.

Other Compensation:

With respect to ongoing compensation from the underlying funds, we receive certain payments from Third Party Sub-Advisors or from portfolio investments or the providers of the Principal Plus Portfolio investments for a variety of services with respect to NextGen assets invested in the underlying funds or Principal Plus Portfolio investments. We provide various sub-transfer agency and other related administrative services with respect to underlying funds positions. These services include, for example, processing purchases, redemptions, and exchanges, dividend reinvestments, consolidated statements, tax reporting, and other recordkeeping. We also provide a variety of marketing services and other support to Third Party Sub-Advisors. In consideration for these services, we receive compensation from Third Party Sub-Advisors, portfolio investments or the providers of the Principal Plus Portfolio investments to up to 0.30% of the average annual amount invested by the Portfolios in the portfolio investments.

The receipt of selling compensation may give us or our Financial Advisors an incentive to recommend investments based on the compensation received. Fees and commissions may be higher for some investments, and as a result, Financial Advisors may receive variable compensation depending on the investment portfolio(s) they offer. In addition, fees and commissions may also be higher for some products or services, and the remuneration and profitability to us and our Financial Advisors resulting from transactions on behalf of or management of certain accounts may be greater than the remuneration and profitability resulting from other advisory accounts, products or services. (See section entitled Participation or Interest in Client Transactions for more information about the receipt of compensation for the sale of securities and other investment products.)

We address these conflicts through disclosure in this Brochure.

We do not reduce our advisory fees to offset the sales and distribution compensation we receive through the NextGen Select Series and the distribution compensation we receive through the NextGen Direct Series.

SOURCES OF REVENUE

As a broker-dealer, Merrill Lynch offers a wide variety of securities and brokerage services. Our principal sources of income, which include commissions and other compensation for the sale of investment products, are derived from our business as a broker-dealer. Less than 1% of our revenues are expected to be generated from NextGen on an annual basis.

PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT

Neither we nor our Financial Advisors receive performance-based fees for NextGen.

TYPES OF CLIENTS

Merrill Lynch's only client in connection with NextGen is NextGen. Merrill Lynch, as Program Manager of NextGen, does not provide investment advisory services to participants enrolled in NextGen.

METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

Merrill Lynch uses various analyses in developing its recommendations including quantitative, fundamental, technical, strategic and economic analyses. Merrill Lynch will draw upon analyses and strategies developed by various groups within Merrill Lynch and its affiliates, as well as third party sources.

NextGen is considered a long-term investment vehicle. The NextGen Direct Series is designed to offer choice and flexibility with investment portfolios ranging from age-based portfolios, to static portfolios such as 100% equity and 100% fixed income, as well as the Principal Plus Portfolio and the NextGen Savings Portfolio as described further within this section. NextGen participants decide what options best suit their risk tolerance and time horizon.

NextGen also offers the NextGen Select Series, an advisor-sold program through Merrill Lynch Financial Advisors and Maine Distribution Agents, that offers more investment options than are available in the NextGen Direct Series, as well as the professional assistance of a Financial Advisor, acting in a brokerage capacity, who will work with participants to tailor their investment strategies toward their risk tolerance, investment timelines, and to help them achieve their college savings goals. With the exception of the NextGen Savings Portfolio and the Principal Plus Portfolio, all NextGen Portfolios are managed by various Third Party Sub-Advisors which are recommended by the Program Manager and approved by FAME and the Treasurer. The investments of the NextGen Savings Portfolio and the Principal Plus Portfolio, which are described in more detail below, are not managed by a Sub-Advisor but recommended by the Program Manager and also approved by FAME and the Treasurer. Current Third Party Sub-Advisors within NextGen are Allianz Global Investors U.S. LLC ("AllianzGI"), BlackRock Investment Management, LLC ("BlackRock"), Franklin Templeton Investments ("Franklin Templeton"), Massachusetts Financial Services Company ("MFS"), New York Life Investment Management ("MainStay"), and Thornburg Investment Management, Inc. ("Thornburg"). These Portfolios mostly invest in one or more mutual funds or exchange traded funds ("ETFs"). The ETFs within the NextGen Portfolios are similar to mutual funds, but are passively managed and tied to an index. They are traded throughout the day (unlike mutual funds that are priced once per day at the close of business). Some of these Portfolios also invest in the Cash Allocation Account.

NextGen's investment portfolios include:

Age-Based Portfolios

These portfolios are designed to take into account the number of years until the participant's beneficiary attends college and the participant's risk tolerance and offer convenient, professionally managed, asset allocated portfolios that are more aggressive when the beneficiary is young and are automatically reallocated to be more conservative as the beneficiary nears college age.

Diversified Portfolios

Diversified portfolios help participants spread their account holdings among many investments, thus potentially reducing risk. Generally, diversified portfolios hold investments in many types of funds and/or securities. For example, investments may span different sectors (such as bio-tech or utilities) and/or geographic regions (such as Asia or Europe). NextGen Direct offers diversified portfolios from BlackRock, Franklin Templeton, iShares and MFS.

Single Fund Portfolio

A single fund portfolio is invested in one single underlying fund, and is a static investment.

NextGen Savings Portfolio

The NextGen Savings Portfolio is comprised exclusively of the Bank Deposit Account currently held at BANA, an affiliate of the Program Manager. That portion of the underlying deposits in the Bank Deposit Account attributable to a Participant's Units held in the NextGen Savings Portfolio, together with other deposits the participant may have at BANA, is eligible for FDIC insurance up to a standard maximum amount, currently set at $250,000 for a single ownership account, in accordance with the FDIC rules.

Principal Plus Portfolio

The Principal Plus Portfolio invests in guaranteed insurance contracts (GICs) issued by one or more insurance companies, corporate fixed-income investments, cash equivalents and/or similar instruments and the Bank Deposit Account. That portion of the underlying deposits in the Bank Deposit Account attributable to a Participant's Units held in the Principal Plus Portfolio, together with other deposits the participant may have at BANA, is eligible for FDIC insurance up to a standard maximum amount, currently set at $250,000 for a single ownership account, in accordance with the FDIC rules.

The asset allocations of the NextGen portfolios are recommended by the respective investment manager and approved by FAME. NextGen participants do not have any direct ownership interest in the underlying funds.

MATERIAL RISKS

Clients should understand that all investment strategies and investments in securities involve risk of loss and clients should be prepared to bear such losses. NextGen participants receive the NextGen Program Description that discusses investment options and their risks.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

In the past, we have entered into certain settlements with our regulators and other third parties and have been the subject of adverse legal and disciplinary events. Below are summaries of certain events that may be material to your decision of whether to retain us for your investment advisory needs. Please note that certain disclosures discuss disciplinary events associated with Banc of America Investment Services, Inc. ("BAI") and Banc of America Securities LLC ("BAS"). BAI merged with Merrill Lynch on October 23, 2009, and BAS merged with Merrill Lynch on November 1, 2010. In addition to the descriptions below, you can find additional information regarding these settlements in Part 1 of Merrill Lynch's Form ADV at http://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/Content/Search/iapd_Search.aspx.

On June 16, 2014, Merrill Lynch, without admitting or denying the findings, entered into an AWC with FINRA. The AWC related to Merrill Lynch's failure to have an adequate supervisory system to ensure that certain clients received Class A shares with sales charge waivers when purchasing certain mutual funds. As a result, those clients paid sales loads when purchasing Class A shares, or purchased Class B or C shares with higher expenses, during various periods. The clients included those having two types of retirement accounts and another type of client in brokerage accounts offered by Merrill Lynch. Merrill Lynch reported certain of these issues to FINRA and all impacted clients have been or are in the process of being reimbursed as set forth in the AWC. Merrill Lynch consented to the imposition of a censure and a fine of $8 million, and agreed to provide additional reimbursement to impacted clients as set forth in the AWC.

On June 21, 2012, Merrill Lynch, without admitting or denying the findings, entered into an AWC with FINRA related to the following five issues: (1) Merrill Lynch failed to have an adequate supervisory system to ensure that clients in certain investment advisory programs were billed in accordance with applicable contract and disclosure statements, and, as a result, overcharged certain client accounts unwarranted fees from April 2003 to December 2011; the client accounts impacted were less than 5% of Merrill Lynch's total advisory accounts, and the fees overcharged represented less than one-half of 1% ($32,174,369) of the total advisory fees billed during that period; all impacted clients have been reimbursed; (2) between July 2006 and November 2010, Merrill Lynch failed to send contemporaneous and/or periodic trade confirmations to certain client accounts for ten investment advisory programs; (3) between 1992 and June 2011, Merrill Lynch did not include or accurately state whether Merrill Lynch acted as an agent or a principal on trade confirmations and account statements relating to certain mutual fund transactions; (4) between 2007 and 2010, Merrill Lynch, either directly or through third-party vendors, failed to deliver proxy materials to certain clients or to their designated investment advisers, and to have an adequate supervisory system to detect its failure to deliver proxies; the clients impacted constituted less than 1% of Merrill Lynch's clients during that period; and (5) between October 2001 and June 2010, Merrill Lynch failed to send margin risk disclosure statements and/or business continuity plans to certain clients upon the opening of their accounts; the clients impacted constituted less than 1% of Merrill Lynch's clients during that period. In determining the appropriate sanctions, FINRA considered Merrill Lynch's internal review through which it identified the violations, the remedial measures that Merrill Lynch took to correct its systems and procedures, and Merrill Lynch's efforts to provide remediation to affected clients. Merrill Lynch consented to the imposition of a censure and a fine of $2.8 million.

On October 4, 2011, Merrill Lynch entered into a consent agreement with FINRA regarding the following events. FINRA alleged that Merrill Lynch failed to have a supervisory system to ensure that all accounts in which an employee either had a financial interest or over which the employee had control were monitored and reviewed for potential misconduct. In addition, FINRA found that Merrill Lynch failed to establish, maintain and enforce written procedures to adequately supervise a registered representative who was subsequently found to have used a business account at the firm to implement a fraudulent scheme. Without admitting or denying the findings, Merrill Lynch consented to the entry of findings, a censure, and a fine of $1,000,000.

On June 6, 2009, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered a judgment enjoining BAI and BAS from violating, directly or indirectly, Section 15(c) of the Exchange Act. The SEC had filed a complaint alleging that BAI and BAS misled customers regarding the fundamental nature and increasing risks associated with auction rate securities ("ARS") underwritten, marketed and sold by BAS and BAI and that by engaging in such conduct, BAI and BAS had violated Section 15(c) of the Exchange Act. Without admitting or denying the allegations, BAI and BAS entered into a consent, whereby they agreed to a series of undertakings designed to provide relief to “individual investors” (as defined in the consent) including: (1) through their affiliate, offering to purchase at par from individual investors certain ARS; (2) agreeing to use reasonable efforts to identify individual investors who sold certain ARS below par, and to pay such investors the difference between par and the price at which they sold the securities; (3) agreeing to participate in a special arbitration process for the purpose of arbitrating any individual investor’s consequential damage claim related to its investment in ARS; (4) agreeing to refund certain refinancing securities through the firms; and (5) undertaking to make their best efforts to work with issuers and other interested parties to seek to provide liquidity solutions for institutional investors that are not considered “individual investors.” Two similar regulatory actions involving the marketing and sale of ARS occurred on January 10, 2012: (1) Merrill Lynch (as successor by merger to BAS and BAI, the “Respondents”) agreed to a settlement with the Illinois Securities Department (the “Department”); and (2) Merrill Lynch agreed to a settlement with the North Carolina Department of the Secretary of State, Securities Division (the “Division”). In both actions, it was alleged that inappropriate marketing and sales of ARS occurred without adequately informing certain customers of the increased risks of illiquidity associated with ARS. Both the Department and the Division of the respective states alleged that, through the aforementioned conduct, there occurred dishonest and unethical practices in the offer and sale of securities and failure to supervise agents resulted. In the Illinois action, the Respondents agreed, among other things, to repurchase at par certain illiquid ARS held by certain clients of Merrill Lynch. Additionally, the Respondents agreed to pay a total fine of $1,578,320.87 to the State of Illinois representing Illinois’s portion of a total civil penalty of $50,000,000 that will be distributed among the states and U.S. territories that enter into similar administrative or civil consent orders related to ARS. With respect to the North Carolina action, Merrill Lynch agreed, among other things, to repurchase at par certain illiquid ARS held by certain clients of Merrill Lynch. Additionally, Merrill Lynch agreed to pay a total fine of $3,193,552.24 to the Division representing its portion of a total civil penalty of $125,000,000 that will be distributed among the states and U.S. territories that enter into similar administrative or civil consent orders related to ARS.

On March 11, 2009, the SEC issued an order against Merrill Lynch alleging that from 2002 to 2004, several Merrill Lynch retail brokers permitted day traders to hear confidential information regarding Merrill Lynch institutional customers’ unexecuted orders as they were transmitted over Merrill Lynch’s squawk box system. According to the SEC, Merrill Lynch lacked written policies or procedures to limit access to the equity squawk box, to track which employees had access to the equity squawk box or to monitor employees’ use of the equity squawk box in violation of Section 15(f) of the Exchange Act and Section 204A of the Advisers Act. Without admitting or denying the SEC’s findings, Merrill Lynch consented to the entry of the order that: (1) found violations of Section 15(f) of the Exchange Act and Section 204A of the Advisers Act for allegedly failing to maintain written policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of customer order information; (2) required that Merrill Lynch cease and desist from committing or causing any future violations of the provisions charged; (3) censured Merrill Lynch; (4) imposed a $7,000,000 civil money penalty; and (5) required Merrill Lynch to comply with certain undertakings regarding the enhancement of certain policies and procedures.

On January 30, 2009, the SEC issued an order against Merrill Lynch regarding the Merrill Lynch Consulting Services program and the offering of those services through a Florida branch office for a period of several years concluding in 2005. The Order found that material misrepresentations had been made and certain conflicts of interest not disclosed, and that Merrill Lynch had not maintained adequate records or reasonably supervised certain Florida investment advisory representatives. Without admitting or denying the non-jurisdictional findings thereof, Merrill Lynch consented to a censure, to cease and desist from violations of sections 204 and 206(2) of the Advisers Act and Rule 204-2(a) (14) thereunder, and a fine of $1,000,000. In accepting the settlement, the SEC noted the voluntary and significant remedial acts promptly undertaken by Merrill Lynch.

On May 1, 2008, the SEC issued an administrative order in which it found that BAI had willfully violated Sections 17(a)(2) and 17(a)(3) of the Securities Act, Sections 206(2), 206(4) and 207 of the Advisers Act and Advisers Act Rule 206(4)-1(a)(5) for failing to disclose to clients that in selecting investments for discretionary mutual fund wrap fee accounts, it favored two mutual funds affiliated with BAI. In the Order the SEC also found that Columbia Management Advisors, LLC ("Columbia Management"), as successor in interest to Banc of America Capital Management, LLC willfully aided and abetted and caused BAI's violations of Sections 206(2) and 206(4) of the Advisers Act, and Advisers Act Rule 206(4)-1(a)(5). In the order, BAI and Columbia Management were censured and ordered to cease and desist from committing or causing such violations and future violations. In addition, BAI was ordered to pay disgorgement plus prejudgment interest in the aggregate amount of $793,773.00 to certain entities specified in the Order, and a civil monetary penalty of $2,000,000; and Columbia Management was ordered to pay disgorgement plus prejudgment interest in the aggregate amount of $516,382 to certain entities specified in the Order, and a civil monetary penalty of $1,000,000. BAI and Columbia Management consented to the Order without admitting or denying the SEC's findings. BAI also agreed to certain undertakings contained within the Order.

On February 14, 2008, Merrill Lynch consented to an AWC issued by FINRA. FINRA alleged that from at least January 2001 until January 2006, as a result of certain operational and supervisory deficiencies Merrill Lynch failed to timely and consistently update the firm's record system relating to certain investment advisory and fee-based accounts. When clients change investment advisers or terminated enrollment in certain investment advisory or fee-based accounts, Merrill Lynch failed to consistently make changes in account proxy delivery addresses and/or remove traits that suppressed trade confirmation delivery in the firm's record systems. Additionally, Merrill Lynch failed to maintain written supervisory procedures and a reasonable system of follow-up and review with respect to such operational changes. Without admitting or denying the findings, Merrill Lynch consented to a censure and a fine of $175,000.

On March 4, 2005, Merrill Lynch entered into a consent order with the State of New Jersey Office of the Attorney General Department of Law and Public Safety and the New Jersey Bureau of Securities ("Attorney General"). The Attorney General alleged: (1) market timing conduct by three Merrill Lynch Financial Advisors engaged in market timing on behalf of their principal client, a hedge fund and that despite warnings from supervisors that they were violating Merrill Lynch's policies, the Financial Advisors continued to market time for the client until they were fired in October 2003, using among other things, multiple accounts and undisclosed agreements to conduct and disguise their trading; (2) that Merrill Lynch failed to adequately supervise certain activities in connection with the conduct described above including failure to keep adequate books and records in violation of the Exchange Act and New Jersey law; (3) the client entered into variable annuity contracts and certain other variable life insurance contracts with certain non-proprietary insurance carriers through the Financial Advisors to engage in short term trading in the investment sub-accounts of these products and although the client's reallocation instructions were relayed through the Financial Advisors to the insurance companies, Merrill Lynch gave no specific instruction to the Financial Advisors concerning the reallocation of the underlying sub-accounts of variable products; and (4) that Merrill Lynch failed to adequately enforce its established policy prohibiting market timing. Without admitting or denying the findings in the order, Merrill Lynch agreed to pay a civil monetary penalty of $10 million and to certain undertakings including implementation of new procedures to maintain, as a required book and record under New Jersey and federal securities laws, records of all client reallocation requests made through a Merrill Lynch employee that involve mutual funds held as sub-accounts of variable annuity products of outside insurance carriers.

On February 9, 2005, pursuant to an offer of settlement by BAS in which it neither admitted nor denied the findings, the SEC issued an administrative order. The SEC found that from July 2000 through July 2003, BAS, Banc of America Capital Management, LLC (“BACAP”) and BACAP Distributors, LLC (“BACAP Distributors”) facilitated market timing and late trading by some introducing broker-dealers and a hedge fund at the expense of shareholders of Nations Funds and other mutual fund families, provided account management tools and other assistance, and enabled introducing broker-dealers to conceal their client’s market timing activities from mutual funds. In the order, BAS was: (1) censured; (2) ordered to cease and desist from committing or causing any present or future violations of 17(a) of the Securities Act, 10(b), 15(c) and 17(a) of the Exchange Act and Rules 10b-5, 15c1-2, and 17a-4 thereunder and Rule 22c-1, as adopted under 22(c) of the Investment Company Act, and from causing any present or future violations of 34(b) of the Investment Company Act and 206(1) and 206(2) of the Advisers Act; and (3) ordered to pay, jointly and severally with BACAP and BACAP Distributors $250 million in disgorgement plus a civil monetary penalty of $125 million. BAS also agreed to comply with certain undertakings including: (1) maintaining a compliance and ethics oversight infrastructure having, among other things, a code of ethics oversight committee, an internal compliance controls committee, a senior level compliance officer for conflicts of interest and a corporate ombudsman; (2) retaining an independent compliance consultant to, among other things, review compliance, supervisory and other policies and procedures and adopt such procedures; (3) undergoing third party compliance review every other year; and (4) retaining an independent distribution consultant.

On April 28, 2003, as part of a joint settlement with the SEC, NYSE and NASD arising from a joint investigation by the SEC, NYSE and NASD into research analysts’ conflicts of interest, Merrill Lynch, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint filed by the SEC, consented to the entry of a final judgment (“Final Judgment”). Pursuant to the settlement, which was entered on October 31, 2003 and modified on March 15, 2010, Merrill Lynch: (1) was permanently enjoined from violating Section 15(c) of the Exchange Act and Rule 15c1-2 thereunder, NASD Conduct Rules 2110, 2210 and 3010, and NYSE Rules 342, 401, 472 and 476; (2) was ordered to pay a penalty of $100,000,000, which was deemed satisfied by prior payments to the states in a related proceeding; (3) was ordered to pay substantial amounts for third party research and investor education; and (4) was ordered to comply with certain additional undertakings. In a related disciplinary event, Merrill Lynch (as successor by merger to BAS) entered into an amended offer of settlement with the SEC on October 9, 2012. The settlement stems from an SEC Order dated March 14, 2007 against BAS (the “2007 BAS Order”) claiming that BAS investment bankers inappropriately influenced equity research analysts, resulting in the publication of materially false and misleading research during the period of January 1999 through December 2001. The 2007 BAS Order censured BAS and ordered BAS to: (i) cease and desist from committing or causing any violations or future violations of Section 15(c) and 15(f) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 15c1-2(a); (ii) pay $26 million in disgorgement and penalties into a fair fund for distribution to its affected customers; (iii) retain an independent consultant to conduct a comprehensive review of the firm’s internal controls to prevent the misuse of material nonpublic information concerning BAS research; (iv) certify to the SEC’s staff in the second year following the issue of the 2007 BAS Order that BAS had established and continued to maintain Exchange Act Section 15(f) policies, practices, and procedures consistent with the findings of the 2007 BAS Order; and (v) comply with Addendum A to the 2007 BAS Order, which implemented certain structural changes to the operations of the firm’s equity research and investment banking departments. In the Merrill Lynch action, the District Court, on March 15, 2010, modified Addendum A to the October 31, 2003 Final Judgment by, among other things, removing similar provisions that remained in Addendum A to the 2007 BAS Order. The 2007 BAS Order, which remains in effect and binding on Merrill Lynch (as successor by merger to BAS), was modified on October 9, 2012, to strike Addendum A and provide that Merrill Lynch analysts, including ex-BAS analysts, must comply with the Final Judgment.

OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

Merrill Lynch, an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of America, is a leading global investment banking firm and a registered broker-dealer, investment adviser and futures commission merchant. In the United States, Merrill Lynch acts as a broker (i.e., agent) for corporate, institutional and governmental and private clients and as a dealer (i.e., principal) in the purchase and sale of corporate securities, primarily equity and debt securities traded on exchanges or in the over-the-counter markets. Merrill Lynch also acts as a broker and/or a dealer in the purchase and sale of mutual funds, money market instruments, government securities, high-yield bonds, municipal securities, financial futures contracts, and options. The futures business and foreign exchange activities are conducted through Merrill Lynch and other affiliates. Merrill Lynch operates the firm's U.S. retail branch system, and also provides financing to clients, including margin lending and other extensions of credit as well as a wide variety of financial services, such as securities clearing, retirement services, and custodial services. As a registered adviser, Merrill Lynch completes a Form ADV, which contains additional information about itself, Bank of America and their affiliates. Information is available through publicly available filings at the SEC or at http://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/Content/Search/iapd_Search.aspx.

For purposes of Form ADV Part 2, certain Merrill Lynch management persons are registered as registered representatives or associated persons of Merrill Lynch. In the future, additional Merrill Lynch personnel may be considered management persons and, as such, may be registered, or have applications pending to register, as registered representatives and associated persons of Merrill Lynch to the extent necessary or appropriate to perform their job responsibilities.

Bank of America, through its subsidiaries and affiliates, provides broker-dealer, investment banking, financing, wealth management, advisory, asset management, insurance, lending and related products and services on a global basis. These products and services include securities brokerage, trading and underwriting; investment banking, strategic advisory services (including mergers and acquisitions) and other corporate finance activities; wealth management products and services including financial, retirement and generational planning; asset management and investment advisory and related record-keeping services; origination, brokerage, dealer and related activities in swaps, options, forwards, exchange-traded funds, other derivatives, commodities and foreign exchange products; securities clearance, settlement financing services and prime brokerage; private equity and other principal investing activities; proprietary trading of securities, derivatives and loans; banking, trust and lending services, including deposit-taking, consumer and commercial lending, including mortgage loans, and related services; insurance and annuities sales and research across the following disciplines: global equity strategy and economics, global fixed-income and equity-linked research, global fundamental equity research, and global wealth management strategy. Bank of America is subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act and additional information about Bank of America can be found in publicly available filings with the SEC.

We, through our Financial Advisors, may suggest or recommend that clients use our securities account, execution and custody or other services, or such services of an affiliate. Similarly, Financial Advisors, who also handle clients' securities accounts, may suggest or recommend that clients purchase our products or products of an affiliate. Where Merrill Lynch's or our affiliate's services are used or products are purchased by clients, we and our affiliates will receive fees and compensation. Financial Advisors may, as permitted by applicable law, receive compensation (the amount of which may vary) in connection with these products and services.

We address these conflicts through disclosure in this Brochure.

RECEIPT OF COMPENSATION FROM INVESTMENT ADVISERS

Certain potential conflicts may arise, including the fact that Investment Managers may engage in other business activities with us and our affiliates. For example, we and our affiliates may provide investment banking services, advisory services, prime brokerage services, brokerage services, placement agent, referral or other services for some or all of the Investment Managers. These other business activities, along with the fact that we are responsible for recommending particular Investment Managers to NextGen, may influence our recommendation or selection of particular Investment Managers.

We address these conflicts through disclosure in this Brochure.

CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND INFORMATION WALLS

Merrill Lynch is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of America. Bank of America engages in a wide range of activities and businesses across a broad spectrum of clients. As a result, we recognize actual, potential and perceived conflicts of interest may develop in the normal course of operations in various parts of the Bank of America organization. To address these potential conflicts, information walls are in place to allow multiple businesses to engage with the same or related clients at the same time while mitigating the conflicts which may arise from such a situation. For example, information walls prevent the unauthorized disclosure of material nonpublic information and allow public side sales, trading and research activities to continue while other businesses within Bank of America possess material nonpublic information. Additionally, Bank of America maintains a Code of Ethics which provides guidelines for the business practices and personal conduct all associates and board members are expected to adopt and uphold.

Managing conflicts of interest is an integral part of Bank of America's risk management process. We believe that no organization can totally eliminate conflicts that exist explicitly or implicitly. Bank of America, including Bank of America Merrill Lynch's investment advisory business, evaluates its business activities and the actual and possible conflicts that may emerge from its activities on an ongoing basis. To the extent that existing or new business activities raise an actual conflict of interest, or even the appearance of a conflict, we endeavor to provide you with full and clear disclosure or to take action to avoid them.

CODE OF ETHICS

We have adopted an Investment Adviser Code of Ethics (the "Code of Ethics") covering our personnel who are involved in the operation and offering of investment advisory services. The Code of Ethics is based on the principle that clients' interests come first, and requires employees to meet the high standards that we follow in conducting our business with integrity and professionalism. The Code of Ethics covers such topics as the:

- Requirement that all employees comply with all applicable securities and related laws and regulations;
- Reporting and clearance of employee personal trading;
- Prevention of misuse of material nonpublic information; and
- Obligation to report possible violations of the Code of Ethics to management or other appropriate personnel.

All covered personnel must certify receipt of the Code of Ethics. We will provide a copy of the Code of Ethics to you upon request.

We also have imposed policy restrictions on all personnel regarding transactions for their own accounts and accounts over which they have control or a beneficial interest. In addition, we have special policies requiring certain personnel obtain specific approval of their securities transactions and have implemented procedures for monitoring these transactions as well as those of all employees.

PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS

In the United States, Merrill Lynch acts as a broker (i.e., agent) for corporate, institutional and governmental and private clients and as a dealer (i.e., principal) in the purchase and sale of corporate securities, primarily equity and debt securities traded on exchanges or in the over-the-counter markets. We also act as a broker and/or dealer in the purchase and sale of mutual funds, money market instruments, government securities, high-yield bonds, municipal securities, financial futures contracts and options. We and other affiliates also conduct the futures business and foreign exchange activities. We operate the firm's U.S. retail branch system, and also provide financing to clients, including margin lending and other extensions of credit as well as a wide variety of financial services, such as securities clearing, retirement services and custodial services. As a result of the involvement in multiple business activities, we and our employees may have interests unrelated to clients which may give rise to potential conflicts of interest, including those discussed below. This discussion does not seek to identify all actual or potential conflicts. Information about certain additional conflicts is described throughout this Brochure and in many of the contracts and offering documents that govern the specific products and services we offer.

We, through our Financial Advisors, may suggest or recommend that clients also use Merrill Lynch securities accounts, execution, custody, or other services, or such services of an affiliate. Similarly, Financial Advisors may suggest or recommend that clients purchase Merrill Lynch products or products of an affiliate, including insurance products, mortgage, trust and credit services, and mutual funds. Where Merrill Lynch's or an affiliate's products or services are purchased by clients, we, our affiliates and employees will receive fees and compensation. Compensation received in connection with clients' purchase or sale of stocks, bonds, mutual funds, other securities or insurance products through Merrill Lynch or its affiliates may include commissions, spreads, markups and markdowns, and distribution or other fees.

As a broker-dealer effecting transactions on behalf of clients, including those clients who have purchased financial planning products, we or an affiliate may act as agent or as principal for our own account, as permitted by applicable law. Similarly, we or an affiliate may, in transactions involving such clients' securities, act as agent while also representing another client on the other side of the transaction. In addition, we or our affiliates may have a position in, or enter purchase or sale orders for, securities recommended to clients in the normal course of our business as a broker-dealer. We and/or our affiliates may profit from these positions or transactions in securities.

We, acting in our broker-dealer capacity, may recommend that clients invest in a variety of limited partnerships and limited liability companies, for which certain of our affiliates may act as general partners or managing members. The investments of the limited partnerships may vary but include, without limitation, securities, real estate and futures.

INVESTMENTS IN SECURITIES BY MERRILL LYNCH AND OUR PERSONNEL

We and our affiliates act in a variety of capacities to a wide range of clients. From time to time in the course of those duties, confidential information may be acquired that cannot be divulged or acted upon for advisory or other clients. Similarly, we may give advice or take action with regard to certain clients which may differ from that given or taken with regard to other clients. This includes the advice given or actions taken with respect to certain securities or investment managers. In some instances, the actions taken by affiliates with respect to similar services and programs may conflict with the actions taken by us. This is due to, among other things, the differing nature of the affiliate's investment advisory service and differing processes and criteria upon which determinations are made.

Many of the conflicts related to participation or interest in client transactions and personal trading are less pronounced in NextGen. We nevertheless attempt to address conflicts of interest through disclosure in this Brochure and other disclosure documents. We have established a variety of restrictions, procedures and disclosures designed to address potential conflicts of interest – both those arising between and among client accounts as well as between client accounts and our business. For example, our personnel also are subject to personal trading restrictions as detailed in our policies and procedures and Code of Ethics. These policies and procedures and the Code of Ethics require our Financial Advisors to pre-approve certain securities transactions, disclose their investment accounts, and provide or cause Merrill Lynch to receive annual holdings reports and quarterly transaction reports.

BROKERAGE PRACTICES

As described above, our client is NextGen. Any investment advice we or our Financial Advisors provide is incidental to our role as a broker-dealer.

REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

Various Directors and Vice Presidents of the Merrill Lynch Education Savings group and the Merrill Lynch Investment Management & Guidance group conduct quarterly reviews of all NextGen investment portfolios (other than the Principal Plus Portfolio and the NextGen Savings Portfolio) and report to FAME. The reviews involve both qualitative and quantitative analysis, including, among other things, quarterly presentations by each of the Third Party Sub-Advisors and comparisons to portfolio benchmarks and Lipper peer group indices.

CLIENT REPORTS

Annually, typically in the month of May, the Third Party Sub-Advisors will present Merrill Lynch and FAME with recommendations to make changes to portfolio allocation and portfolio investment offered through NextGen.

Every semi-annual period ending June 30 and December 31, Merrill Lynch prepares a presentation for FAME used to review investment performances of the NextGen Savings Portfolio and the Principal Plus Portfolio. The presentation includes a comparison of the two-year gross average return of the NextGen Savings Portfolio and Principal Plus Portfolio with their corresponding benchmarks, as agreed upon with FAME and stated in the PMA.

CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

As described above, we are compensated for our sales and distribution efforts to participants in NextGen out of certain sales charges and ongoing compensation from the underlying funds and other investments. Our Financial Advisors receive a portion of this compensation. In addition, we may receive compensation from Third Party Sub-Advisors to the underlying funds, the underlying funds or from providers of other investments available through NextGen. Our Financial Advisors whose clients are participants in NextGen receive a portion of the sales/distribution efforts compensation paid to us.

CUSTODY

NextGen assets generally are custodied with us in our capacity as a broker-dealer and qualified custodian, with the exception of the iShare Portfolios, the GICs held within the Principal Plus Portfolio, the Bank Deposit Account, and any certificates of deposit issued by banks or financial institutions. We will provide you with periodic account statements for the assets held with us. You should carefully review those statements.

For iShares Portfolios, BlackRock is the custodian of the assets. You will receive account statements directly from BlackRock regarding iShares Portfolios and may also receive account statements and performance reports from us that reflect those assets. You should understand that BlackRock will provide the official records of the holdings and transactions for the iShares Portfolios. You are urged to compare the account statements you receive from BlackRock with any that you receive from us.

The GIC assets are considered part of the general assets of Transamerica Life Insurance Company, the GIC's issuer, and therefore, these assets do not have a custodian.

The Bank Deposit Account is an omnibus bank deposit account with BANA and certificates of deposit are issued by various banks and/or financial institutions. You will receive account statements directly from BANA for the Bank Deposit Account and from the applicable banks and/or financial institutions for the certificates of deposit. You should carefully review those statements.

INVESTMENT DISCRETION

We do not accept discretionary authority in connection with NextGen.

VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

FAME, in its capacity as Plan Administrator of NextGen, votes client securities on behalf of the Plan.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Not applicable.

GLOSSARY

“Advisers Act” means the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended.

“AWC” means a FINRA Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent.

“BANA” means Bank of America, N.A.

“Bank of America” means Bank of America Corporation.

“Bank Deposit Account” means an interest-bearing omnibus bank deposit account with Bank of America, N.A., an affiliate of the Program Manager, in which deposits are FDIC-insured up to $250,000 per Participant.

“BlackRock” means BlackRock, Inc. and its affiliates.

“BlackRock Funds” means Funds sponsored, managed and/or distributed by affiliates of BlackRock, Inc.

“Brochure” means the Merrill Lynch program brochure relating to NextGen College Investing Plan, as amended or updated from time to time. The Brochure is also referred to as the Disclosure Statement.

“Cash Allocation Account” means a separate account that seeks current income, preservation of capital and liquidity. The Cash Allocation Account is invested directly in a diversified portfolio of money market securities and may also be invested in certificates of deposit issued by Maine financial institutions. BlackRock serves as the investment manager for the Cash Allocation Account under a separate agreement with Merrill Lynch.

“Code of Ethics” means Merrill Lynch’s Investment Adviser Code of Ethics.

“Disclosure Statement” means the Merrill Lynch program brochure relating to NextGen College Investing Plan, as amended or updated from time to time. The Disclosure Statement is also referred to as the Brochure.

“ETF” means an Exchange Traded Fund.

“Exchange Act” means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

“FAME” means the Finance Authority of Maine.

“FINRA” means the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc.

“FDS” means Financial Data Services, Inc., an affiliate of Merrill Lynch.

“Financial Advisor” means a Merrill Lynch Financial Advisor.

“GICs” means guaranteed insurance contracts.

“Initial Sales Charge” means a fee based on a percentage of a contribution that is deducted from certain contributions prior to their investment in the account.

“Investment Company Act” means the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

“Investment Manager” means an investment adviser that is registered with the SEC or one or more state regulatory authorities, or which is exempt from the registration requirement.

“Maine Distribution Agents” means participating broker-dealers (other than Merrill Lynch).

“Merrill Lynch,” “we” or “us” means Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated.

“NextGen” means the NextGen College Investing Plan.

“NextGen Savings Portfolio” means the Bank Deposit Account.

“Participation Agreement” means the contract between the participant and FAME, which establishes the account and the obligations of FAME and the participant, as amended.

“PMA” means the Program Management Agreement between FAME and Merrill Lynch.

“Principal Plus Portfolio” means the guaranteed investment contracts (GICs) issued by one or more insurance companies, deposits in the Bank Deposit Account, and, to the extent approved by FAME, corporate fixed-income investments and/or similar instruments.

“Program Description” means the current NextGen College Investing Plan’s Program Description and any effective supplements to it.

“Program Manager” means the company that is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the program as well as its marketing and distribution. Currently, Merrill Lynch is the Program Manager.

“Related Company” means a company that is an affiliate of Merrill Lynch or in which Merrill Lynch or an affiliate of Merrill Lynch has a material ownership interest. BlackRock is not considered a Related Company.

“SEC” Means the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

“Securities Act” means the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

“Third Party Sub-Advisors” means a registered investment advisor, other than the Program Manager, that recommends underlying funds and the allocation of such underlying fund for one or more portfolio comprised of underlying funds advised by such investment adviser or any of its affiliates..

“Treasurer” means the Treasurer of the State of Maine.

“Unit Class” means the A, or C, Units that represent investments within each of the portfolios in the Client Select Series, each of which has its own sales charge and expense structure.

“Units” means interests in a portfolio that are purchased with contributions to an account.