ITEM 2. MATERIAL CHANGES

This section describes the material changes to our DC Advisory program since the last amendment of our Form ADV on August 22, 2014.

- Disciplinary History

Item 9 - Disciplinary History has been updated to include the matters listed below.

Date of Action: December 2014

Brought By: State of Vermont Department of Financial Regulation

Entity: UBS Financial Services Inc.

The firm was fined $325,000 for inaccurate books and records, breaches of policies and procedures which prohibited the solicitation of MAC Eligible managers and failure to provide a reasonable supervisory system to prevent such breaches. The Consent Order highlights the Firm's substantial cooperation with the investigation and its enhancements to procedures which were made to prevent recurrence of these facts.

About UBS Financial Services Inc.

UBS Financial Services Inc. ("UBS") is one of the nation's leading securities firms, serving the investment and capital needs of individual, corporate and institutional clients. We are a member of all principal securities and commodities exchanges in the United States including the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"). Our parent company, UBS AG is a global, integrated investment services firm and one of the world's leading banks. We are registered to act as a broker-dealer, investment adviser, and futures commission merchant.

As a registered investment adviser, we complete Part I of Form ADV, which contains additional information about our business and our affiliates. This information is publicly available through our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

This information is current as of the date of this Brochure and is subject to change in our discretion.

Conducting Business with UBS: Investment Advisory and Broker Dealer Services

As a wealth management firm providing services to clients in the United States, we are registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as a broker-dealer and an investment adviser, offering both investment advisory and brokerage services.¹

Our clients work with their Financial Advisors to determine the services that are most appropriate given their goals and circumstances. Based on the services you request, we can fulfill your wealth management needs in our capacity as an investment adviser, as a broker-dealer, or as both. Most of our Financial Advisors are qualified and licensed to provide both brokerage as well as advisory services depending on the services a client has requested.

In addition, some of our Financial Advisors hold educational credentials, such as the Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®)² designation. Holding a professional designation typically indicates that the Financial Advisor has completed certain courses or continuing education. However, use of a designation does not change UBS's or the Financial Advisor's obligation with respect to the advisory or brokerage products and services that may be offered to you.

It is important to understand that investment advisory and brokerage services are separate and distinct and each is governed by different laws and separate contracts with you. While there are certain similarities among the brokerage and advisory services we provide, depending on the capacity in which we act, our contractual relationship and legal duties to you are subject to a number of important differences.

Our Services as an Investment Adviser and our Relationship with You

We offer a number of investment advisory programs to clients, acting in our capacity as an investment adviser, including fee-based financial planning, discretionary account management, non-discretionary investment advisory programs, and advice on the selection of investment managers, mutual funds, exchange traded funds and other securities offered through our investment advisory programs.

¹Examples of our advisory programs and services include our fee-based financial planning services and our ACCESS, Portfolio Management Program, Managed Accounts Consulting, UBS Institutional Consulting, UBS Strategic Advisor, UBS Strategic Wealth Portfolio, UBS Managed Portfolio Program and PACE programs. Examples of our brokerage accounts include our Resource Management Account® and the International Resource Management Account.

² Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. owns the certification marks CFP®, Certified Financial Planner™ and federally registered CFP (with flame design) in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements.

Generally, when we act as your investment adviser, we will enter into a written agreement with you expressly acknowledging our investment advisory relationship with you and describing our obligations to you. At the beginning of our advisory relationship, we will give you our Form ADV brochure(s) for our advisory program(s) which provides detailed information about, among other things, the advisory services we provide, our fees, our personnel, our other business activities and financial industry affiliations and conflicts between our interests and your interests.

How We Charge for Investment Advisory Services We may charge for our investment advisory services in any of the following ways:

- A percentage of the amount of assets held in your advisory account
- A flat annual fee
- A combination of asset based fee and commissions
- Periodic fees
- Advisory financial planning services are available for a fee.

Your Financial Advisor will receive a portion of the fees you pay us.

Our Fiduciary Responsibilities as an Investment Adviser

When you participate in one of our investment advisory programs, we are considered to have a fiduciary relationship with you.³ The fiduciary standards are established under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and state laws, where applicable, and include:

- Obligations to disclose to you all material conflicts between our interests and your interests.
- If we or our affiliates receive additional compensation from you or a third-party as a result of our relationship with you, we must disclose that to you.
- We must obtain your informed consent before engaging in transactions with you for our own account or that of an affiliate or another client when we act in an advisory capacity.
- We must treat you and our other advisory clients fairly and equitably and cannot unfairly advantage one client to the disadvantage of another.
- The investment decisions or recommendations we make for you must be suitable and appropriate for you and consistent with your investment objectives and goals and any restrictions you have placed on us.
- We must act in what we reasonably believe to be your best interests and in the event of a conflict of interest, we must place your interests before our own.

Termination of your advisory account or agreement will end our investment advisory fiduciary relationship with you as it pertains to that account or those services and, depending on the terms of your investment advisory agreement with us, will cause your account to be converted to, and designated as, a brokerage account only.

Our Services as a Broker-Dealer and Our Relationship With You

As a full-service broker-dealer, our services are not limited to taking customer orders and executing securities transactions. As a broker-dealer, we provide a variety of services relating to investments in securities, including providing investment research, executing trades and providing custody services. We also make recommendations to our brokerage clients about whether to buy, sell or hold securities. We consider these recommendations to be part of our brokerage account services and do not charge a separate fee for this advice. Our recommendations must be suitable for each client, in light of the client's particular financial circumstances, goals and tolerance for risk.

Our Financial Advisors can assist clients in identifying overall investment needs and goals and creating investment strategies that are designed to pursue those investment goals. The advice and services we provide to our clients with respect to their brokerage accounts is an integral part of our services offered as a broker-dealer.

In our capacity as broker-dealer, we do not make investment decisions for clients or manage their accounts on a discretionary basis. Instead, we will only buy or sell securities for brokerage clients based on specific directions from you.

How We Charge for Brokerage Services

If you choose to establish a brokerage account with us, you may elect to:

- Pay us for our brokerage services each time we execute a transaction for your account in a Resource Management Account® (RMA®). If you choose to pay on a transaction-by-transaction basis, we can act as either your agent or "broker," or as a "dealer."
- When acting as your agent or broker, we will charge a commission to you each time we buy or sell a security for you.
- When acting as a "dealer," we act as a principal for our own account on the other side of a transaction from you. Using our own inventory, we will buy a security from or sell a security to you, and seek to make a profit on the trade by charging you a "mark up," "mark-down" or "spread" on the price of the security in addition to the commissions you pay on these transactions.

We pay our Financial Advisors a portion of commissions, profits on principal trades, and other charges.

Our Responsibilities to You as a Broker-Dealer

As a broker-dealer we are subject to the following:

- The Securities Exchange Act of 1934
- The Securities Act of 1933
- The rules of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA)
- The rules of the New York Stock Exchange
- State laws, where applicable

These laws and regulatory agencies have established certain standards for broker-dealers which include:

- As your broker-dealer, we have a duty to deal fairly with you. Consistent with our duty of fairness, we must ensure that the prices you receive when we execute transactions for you are reasonable and fair in light of prevailing market conditions and that the commissions and other fees we charge you are not excessive.
- We must have a reasonable basis for believing that any securities recommendations we make to you are suitable and appropriate for you, given your individual financial circumstances, needs and goals.
- We are permitted to trade with you for our own account or for an affiliate or another client and may earn a profit on those trades. When we engage in these trades, we disclose the capacity in which we acted on your confirmation, though we are not required to communicate this or obtain your consent in advance, or to inform you of the profit earned on the trades.

It is important to note that when we act as your broker-dealer, we do not enter into a fiduciary relationship with you. Absent special circumstances, we are not held to the same legal standards that apply when we have a fiduciary relationship with you, as we do when providing investment advisory services. Our legal obligations to disclose detailed information to you about the nature and scope of our business, personnel, fees, conflicts between our interests and your interests and other matters are more limited than when we have a fiduciary relationship with you.

ITEM 4. ADVISORY BUSINESS

This brochure describes our UBS DC Advisory Consulting Services Program which is a fee-based investment advisory service. We will acknowledge our status as a fiduciary when providing DC Advisory Consulting services in our DC Advisory Consulting Services Agreement under the Investment Advisors Act of 1940 and under Section 3(21) of ERISA for the investment advice we provide to the Plan.

A. Our Firm and Corporate Structure

UBS Financial Services Inc. was organized as a Delaware corporation on June 30, 1969. It is a wholly owned subsidiary of UBS Americas Inc., a Delaware corporation, which in turn is a wholly owned subsidiary of UBS AG, a Swiss stock corporation. UBS Financial Services became a registered investment adviser on January 22, 1971. As of November 28, 2014, UBS AG, has a new Group Holding Company, UBS Group AG, that is now the ultimate parent of UBS Financial Services Inc.

B. Our Advisory Services

DCA is a program designed to provide advisory services to defined contribution retirement plans. The ongoing advice of your DCA Financial Advisor is one of the key components and services provided.

The Program is designed for defined contribution plans that seek assistance with:

- the search and selection of retirement plan program providers
- assistance with plan conversions
- fiduciary support
- plan feature reviews
- fee analysis and benchmarking
- plan program liaison
- investment policy statement assistance
- investment selection and investment reviews
- employee education and enrollment meetings

1. Plan Program Consulting. We can assist you with the following:

- Program Provider Search. We may include an analysis of your current program; development of criteria used in selecting service providers; and evaluation of proposals received from prospective service providers.

Searches may include program providers who are available through the UBS Select for Corporate Plans program ("UBS Select program"). We may also include program providers who are not available through the UBS Select program and which are not subject to review by UBS.

- Conversion Assistance. Services can include investment fund mapping and planning employee education strategies.
- Fiduciary Support. We can provide you with the UBS Defined Contribution Plan Fiduciary Kit, as well as periodic newsletters and/or whitepapers which address retirement plan issues for plan fiduciaries.

- Plan Feature Review. We can assist you in benchmarking and reviewing various plan features including determining whether they are meeting the needs of the plan and the plan participants.
- Fee Analysis and Benchmarking. We can assist you in conducting a benchmarking analysis of your plan's fees utilizing data obtained from your program provider.
- Plan Program Liaison. We can assist you in communicating with record keepers and other third party service providers regarding plan features, investments, services and fees.
- Additional Consulting. As agreed between us, we may also consult with you on matters related to news and developments in the capital markets and asset classes based on information generally available from us or our affiliates, or more specifically prepared for you based on publicly available information.

2. Investment Consulting. We will assist you with review of the plan's Investment Policy Statement and your selection of the plan's investments.

- Investment Policy Statement ("IPS") Assistance. We will assist you in the development and preparation of an Investment Policy Statement. The IPS describes your overall investment objectives and guidelines and outlines the criteria utilized to review the investments offered in the plan. We will review the IPS with you periodically during our engagement.
- Investment Reviews. This service includes periodic investment reviews of the investment funds offered as investment options under the plan. The reports may include: alerts for investment options not meeting IPS criteria; performance compared to peers and benchmarks; risk and return analysis; style drift; investment costs; plan asset allocation summary; correlation matrix; stock intersection; Morningstar measures; and UBS fund scoring.
- Investment Searches. We will identify investment funds for your consideration that align with your IPS which are offered by the Firm or for which the Firm has conducted a review. In determining which share classes of an investment fund to identify, we will consider the limitations of the plans record keeper platform and/or custodian and the plan fiduciary's direction regarding plan expenses. Investment funds are identified based on the information provided by you and publicly available information regarding various investment funds.
- Model Portfolio Service (non-discretionary). We anticipate offering a Model Portfolio Service during 2014, which will include risk-based asset allocation advice to retirement plans that hold assets in custody at a custodian other than UBS. This service will identify certain strategic asset allocation models that are established by UBS's Wealth Management Americas Asset Allocation Committee (the "WMA AAC"). Any changes made by WMA AAC will be communicated to you within a reasonable period of time however no more frequently than once in a calendar quarter.

In addition, we can identify certain groupings of funds that are offered under the plan that are consistent with the components of the asset allocation models provided. You may then make these fund populated asset allocation models ("model portfolios") available to participants. As the services are non-discretionary, you must make the final choice of funds to populate the model portfolio.

It will be your responsibility to ensure model portfolios identified can be implemented within your recordkeeper's platform. UBS may assist in determining the capabilities of your recordkeeper; however it will be your ultimate responsibility to ensure any model portfolios are implemented and offered to participants in a manner that is consistent with your overall goals and objectives.

Performance reporting for such model portfolios, which will include model performance comprised of the fund performance within the model, will be provided by your record keeper. You should confirm whether or not your recordkeeper is able to provide such performance reporting.

You will be responsible for making any updates or changes to such model portfolios with your recordkeeper. If requested, UBS may provide education to plan participants in regard to risk tolerance through various approved educational pieces, however any such education will not constitute UBS either providing investment advice to participants, exercising discretion, or expanding its fiduciary responsibilities.

- 3. Employee Education Consulting. We will review the Plan's current program and recommend strategies for improving participation and education. We can work with your program provider to implement these strategies and to deliver materials. We can provide general investment education, which may include educational newsletters, seminars and other materials which have been reviewed and approved for use by our Firm. These materials are intended to help the recipients understand the important financial issues they face and may cover topics such as investing, saving for retirement, distribution planning and retirement planning and transition. They are generic in nature and do not contain recommendations to invest in a particular security.

4. Limitations on Our Services

- Investment Recommendations:

- While we can identify investment funds from an extensive list of options, our investment searches are limited to those which are offered by the Firm or for which the Firm has conducted a review and are available on the plan's record keeper platform. Our investment searches therefore do not include every investment option available in the industry.
- Affiliated/Proprietary Products: Our investment searches will not include UBS affiliated/proprietary mutual or sub advised funds. Inclusion of affiliated or proprietary mutual or sub advised funds in our investment searches raises a conflict of interest as purchasing those funds will result in increased compensation to UBS Financial Services Inc. and/or a member of the UBS organization. If the plan retained a UBS affiliated mutual or sub advised fund prior to entering into the DCA Consulting Services Agreement or purchases one in the future you understand the conflicts of interest associated with holding those funds while you are in a DCA Program relationship with us and that we will exclude the value of the plan's investments in any UBS affiliated/proprietary fund when calculating the DCA program Fee.
- Employer Securities: Our services do not include a review of the performance or recommendations regarding whether a plan should offer or continue to offer employer securities as an investment option under the plan. If our fees are based on the value of the assets in your plan, we will not include the value of the employer securities when we calculate the DCA Program Fee.

- We do not provide legal, tax or actuarial advice: We will not be responsible for ensuring that your investment policy statement or plan document complies with ERISA, state or local laws, or other regulations or other requirements that apply to you. That responsibility rests solely with you, and you should consult with your legal and tax advisors regarding those matters.
- Third-Party Information: In connection with the provision of our services we rely on third-party information, including information received where assets are held at other institutions. We obtain this information from publicly available sources or from your plan program providers. While we believe the information and reports obtained from external sources are accurate, we do not independently verify or guarantee the information presented or its accuracy.

5. Termination.

The plan fiduciaries may terminate DCA services within five business days of executing the DCA Consulting Services Agreement and receive a full refund of all fees paid to us. Thereafter, either party may terminate this relationship by notifying the other party in writing, and termination will become effective upon receipt of the notice. Upon termination, we will have no further obligation to act or advise the plan or the plan fiduciaries with respect to the plan assets. Note that termination of the DCA Consulting Services Agreement will end our investment advisory fiduciary relationship with the plan as it pertains to the plan assets covered by the DCA Consulting Services Agreement.

6. Other Investment Advisory Services.

We offer other advisory services not described in this brochure. We do not hold ourselves out as specializing in a particular type of advisory service or strategy. Instead, our advisory programs and services offer a broad variety of strategies, investment options and asset allocations and features. If you would like more information please ask your Financial Advisor for the Form ADV Disclosure Brochure for those programs and services.

7. Qualifications of Financial Advisors and Specialists Who Provide DC Advisory Services.

Most of our Financial Advisors are registered as broker-dealer and investment adviser representatives. Financial Advisors who provide DCA services are usually required to have at least three years of industry experience, meet certain client asset thresholds at UBS and complete education requirements. These education requirements may include (1) the Chartered Retirement Plans Specialist^{SM4} designation from the College for Financial Planning; and (2) Essentials of Investment Consulting from the Investment Management Consultants Association. Waivers of the education requirements are granted for Financial Advisors who hold similar designation and training experience. The timeframe to meet the requirements may be extended under certain circumstances including recruitment situations.

When you enter into a DCA Agreement, we will provide to you a Brochure Supplement for your Financial Advisor and, if applicable, any specialist involved in providing investment advisory services to you. The Brochure Supplement includes information regarding your Financial Advisor's education, business experience, disciplinary history, outside business activities, their compensation and supervision. You may also obtain information about your Financial Advisor, their licenses, educational background, employment history, and if they have had any problems with regulators or received serious complaints from investors through the FINRA BrokerCheck service available from FINRA at <http://www.finra.org>, or from the Securities and Exchange Commission at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

You can also contact your state securities regulator through the North American Securities Administrators Association's website at <http://www.nasaa.org> and request information about our firm and your Financial Advisor.

C. How We Tailor Our Advisory Services

Our DC Advisory services are customized to the needs of the plan based on the information you provide.

We tailor our DC Advisory services to your specific investment objectives, goals and circumstances in various ways, including the following:

⁴ Individuals who hold the CRPS® designation have completed a course of study encompassing design, installation, maintenance and administration of retirement plans. Additionally, individuals must pass an end-of-year course examination that tests their ability to synthesize complex concepts and apply theoretical concepts to real-life situations.

- Search of a plan provider is customized based on the complexity of the services requested and the needs of the plan participants and fiduciaries.
- Investment Policy Statement Assistance. We will work with you to identify and review the criteria which will be used to select and monitor investments based on the needs and preferences of the plan fiduciaries.

Model Portfolios. UBS will identify which of the plan's existing investment options are consistent with the components of the asset allocation models provided. You may then make these customized asset allocation models available to participants.

- Investment reviews we provide can be customized to meet your particular needs and goals. You and your financial advisor can determine which types of analysis to include in your reports.

D. Provision of Portfolio Management Services in Wrap Fee Programs

Our DC Advisory Program Services do not include the participation in or offering of portfolio management services in wrap fee programs.

We provide our own portfolio management services, and in some programs our Financial Advisors act as discretionary portfolio managers in the wrap fee programs we sponsor. We receive a wrap fee for those services and share a portion of that fee with Financial Advisors who participate in the wrap programs. Details of the programs are available in our Wrap Fee Disclosure Brochure which is available from your Financial Advisor.

Our activities as portfolio manager and sponsor of wrap fee programs are separate from our DC Advisory Program services

E. Assets Under Management

Our assets under management as of December 31, 2013 are listed below. These figures include asset values for DVP accounts as of 12/31/13 (where data is available), but excludes (i) assets in separately managed accounts for which we do not have the authority to hire and fire managers, and (ii) assets in institutional investment advisory programs in which the value of assets managed by other investment advisers could not be segregated from those non-discretionary assets for which we provide ongoing advice and recommendations. Although this information does not apply to our DC Advisory Program Consulting Services, it provides you additional background regarding our activities as an investment adviser.

• Non-discretionary Programs:	161,283,206,222
• Discretionary Programs:	110,999,155,620
Total:	272,282,361,842

ITEM 5. FEES AND COMPENSATION

A. DCA Program Fees

The fee that you pay for DC Advisory services covers the specific services agreed to in your DC Advisory Consulting Services Agreement.

Fees for our DCA Program are negotiable, and are at our sole discretion, may be waived, and may differ from client to client based on a number of factors. These factors include, but are not limited to:

- type and size of the plan
- the number of plans for the client
- the number and type of services selected
- the scope of the engagement
- the complexity of the services provided and preferences of the plan fiduciaries
- the expected frequency with which services may be needed
- the nature and amount of client assets involved

Fees, as well as other account requirements, may vary as a result of the application of prior policies depending upon when you engaged us to provide advisory services.

Fee Ranges:

- Plan Program Consulting: $10,000 to $60,000.
- Investment Consulting Services: 0.15% to 0.75% on eligible plan assets.
- Employee Education Consulting: 0.15% to 0.75% on eligible plan assets.

Minimum Program Fee: Our fees in the DCA Program are negotiable, but generally we charge a minimum fee of either the greater of $5,000 or 0.50% based on the amount of eligible plan assets.

We may customize the fee structure so that some services may be obtained under one payment option and other services under a different option.

B. Billing Practices

The billing process described below is subject to change upon prior written notice to you.

Valuation and Billing: We rely on the value of the plan's assets provided by the plan's custodian or program provider for purposes of determining or calculating the DCA Program fees. We do not review or verify the valuation information provided to us.

Generally, DCA Program fees are billed in arrears on a calendar quarter basis. If the fee is based on the percentage of assets, the fees are calculated based on the asset value of the account at the end of the preceding quarter and prorated for the number of days in the quarter. If the fee is an annual flat dollar amount we will bill you in four equal amounts. The first fee will be prorated from the date that your DCA Agreement is effective or as otherwise agreed.

Fees for plan program consulting and additional consulting services will be billed for half of our total fee once we have executed the DCA Consulting Services Agreement and the remainder of our fee will be billed once we complete the agreed upon services.

We will exclude, and advise your plan program provider to exclude, the following from the value of the plan assets for purposes of calculating our fees:

- the value of the plan's investments in any UBS affiliated/proprietary fund
- the value of the employer securities
- the value of any self-directed brokerage accounts
- the value of participation loans.

We can invoice you for our services. We will not bill the custodian or program provider directly for our fees. Depending on the plan's program provider, the plan fiduciaries may be able to direct the plan provider to automatically calculate and pay our fees from the assets of, or generated by, the plan. In those situations in which your program provider automatically calculates and remits the program fees to us, we will provide you with a quarterly statement, rather than an invoice, with details on the amount of fees we have received. We will not accept 12b-1 fees, transaction based compensation, finder's fees or other revenue directly from the investments offered in the plan.

Our ability to charge a fee less than the maximum or waive the fee may result in one client paying for the same set of services provided to another client at a lower fee or free of charge. We may also discount fees for clients purchasing multiple services or in connection with sales promotions or marketing campaigns.

We may customize the fee structure so that some services may be obtained under one payment option and other services under a different option.

Potential Conflicts of Interest. As is the case with all our Financial Advisors who are duly licensed to conduct advisory business, DCA Financial Advisors (in their capacity as brokers/Financial Advisors) can provide clients with brokerage services outside of DCA. Since services similar to those available in DCA may also be available to you through our brokerage services, your DCA Financial Advisor may have an incentive to recommend to you the DCA services, which may result in increased compensation to them. Depending on the services you select, you may find that variations of the individual DCA services are available to you outside of DCA and may be available for more or less than you would pay in the program. Please discuss our various product offerings, their features and costs with your Financial Advisor.

You should consider these factors carefully before participating or engaging in the DCA program for a fee.

C. Fees/Other Charges Not Covered by Your DCA Program Fee

The fee you pay covers only our advice and services provided in the DCA program. The DCA Program Fee does not cover:

- any other services, accounts or products we provide to you
- transaction based charges or commissions, account maintenance fees or other charges you may incur in implementing our advice
- custody fees imposed by other financial institutions
- fees for recordkeeping, trust and plan administration charges
- precious metals custody fees imposed by affiliates, or other financial institutions
- mark-ups/mark-downs on principal transactions with us or other broker-dealers
- internal trust fees
- costs relating to trading in foreign securities (other than commissions otherwise payable to us)
- internal administrative, management, redemption and performance fees that may be imposed by collective investment vehicles such as open-end and closed-end mutual funds, UITs, hedge funds and other alternative investments, exchange-traded funds or real estate investment trusts
- redemption fees for active trading imposed by mutual fund sponsors
- other specialized charges, such as transfer taxes, and fees we charge to customers to off-set fees we pay to exchanges and/or regulatory agencies on certain transactions.

Please review the applicable prospectus and offering documents for the investment vehicles we offer carefully for a detailed description of the additional fees associated with such investments.

D. Refund of Fee Paid

Clients may cancel the DCA Program Agreement and receive a full refund of fees paid by contacting their Financial Advisor within 5 business days from the date the Agreement is accepted by us. After that period, the fee is non-refundable.

E. Compensation to Financial Advisors for Providing DCA Services

If you obtain services through the DCA program, a portion of the fees you pay to us in connection with this program are allocated on an on-going basis to your Financial Advisor. Neither UBS nor its Financial Advisors receive 12b-1 fees, transaction based compensation, finder's fees or other revenue directly from the investments offered in the plan.

In general, we pay our Financial Advisors a percentage of the fees (called a payout or grid rate), that each Financial Advisor generates from the clients he or she serves, minus certain adjustments that are requested by our Financial Advisors, according to an established schedule. Under certain circumstances (e.g., acquisitions and recruitment), some Financial Advisors or producing Branch Office Managers may be compensated differently.

The percentage of firm revenues credited to Financial Advisors in asset-based programs is higher than the percentage of firm revenues credited on most other products and services, including the compensation they would receive if you paid separately for advice, brokerage and other services. The difference in compensation creates an incentive for Financial Advisors to recommend products for which they receive higher compensation.

Financial Advisors also receive certain awards based on their production amount, business mix and net new assets. However, certain plan recordkeeping providers utilized by DCA clients may be unable to provide net new asset data to UBS and these assets will not be included for awards. We reserve the right, at our discretion and without prior notice, to change the methods by which we compensate our Financial Advisors.

ITEM 6. PERFORMANCE BASED FEES AND SIDE BY SIDE MANAGEMENT

Our advisory services in the DCA Program do not impose performance fees.

ITEM 7. TYPES OF CLIENTS

A. Type of Clients

The DCA Program is designed to provide advisory services to sponsors of defined contribution retirement plans.

B. Requirements for Participation in the DCA Program

1. Minimum Asset Requirement. We do not impose a minimum asset requirement.
2. Custody and Other Account Services. Plans in the DCA Program may not implement our advice or investment recommendations through UBS. All trading and custody activity must be conducted through other firms.
3. Plan Information. Our DCA Program Services are based upon the information and selection criteria you provide to us including plan goals, risk tolerance, and objectives. We rely on this information in providing our advisory services, so we require you to review the information and notify us promptly if there are any discrepancies or if your objectives have changed. You agree to review this information and provide us with updates as necessary or any material change in your circumstances which may affect our services and investment recommendations.

You are responsible for providing us with a current address for both the plan and fiduciaries of the plan. If we are unable to invoice the plan fiduciaries by mail, we will be required to terminate the relationship from the DCA Program.

4. DCA Program Agreement. As a DCA client, the plan fiduciaries will enter into a written agreement with us. The agreement will identify the service you selected, the fees charged, and our respective rights and obligations under the agreement. The agreement to participate in DCA will not be effective until accepted by an authorized member of DCA Program Management.

5. Investment Recommendations. Except for providing assistance in the selection of funds for inclusion in a plan's investment menu, our DCA services do not include the recommendation or solicitation of any other types of securities. Also, we do not advise plan participants regarding their investment options in the plan.

6. Broker of Record. Neither UBS nor any of our Financial Advisors may be listed as broker of record for any of the mutual funds you select for your plan platform. The plan's record-keeper must confirm in writing that neither UBS nor any of its Financial Advisors are listed as broker of record for the plan's investments.

7. Reliance of Plan Fiduciaries and Limits of DC Advisory's Responsibility. In making the services described in this brochure available to the Plan and the plan fiduciaries, we rely on the information provided to us by the plan fiduciaries. This means that:

- it is the responsibility of the plan fiduciaries to provide us with all material and pertinent information as well as any other relevant matters that we may request from time to time.
- we will rely on the information provided to us by the plan fiduciaries without further verification.
- the plan fiduciaries should notify us promptly of any material changes in the financial condition, risk tolerance, needs or objectives of the plan.

As it pertains to our services:

- DCA services are suggestions, and are not binding on the plan. The plan fiduciaries retain absolute discretion over, and responsibility for, the implementation of any of DCA's suggestions. All investment decisions are the responsibility of the plan fiduciaries.
- DCA is not a portfolio management program. Neither we nor our Financial Advisors:
 - manage the plan's assets or exercise any investment discretion or control over the plan's assets, unless we specifically agree to do so in our DCA Consulting Services Agreement.
 - assume any responsibility nor are we liable for the conduct or investment performance, either historical or prospective, of any investment fund suggested by a DCA Financial Advisor and selected by the plan fiduciaries,
 - provide any legal, accounting or actuarial advice or prepare any legal, accounting or actuarial document.

8. Implementing Our Advice: It is your responsibility to determine if, and how, the advice we provide to you in the Program should be implemented or otherwise followed. You should carefully consider all relevant factors in making these decisions, and we encourage you to consult with your legal counsel and/or accountant or tax professional regarding the legal or tax implications of a particular recommendation.

9. Electronic delivery of documents. To the extent permissible by applicable law, we may deliver Form ADV Disclosure brochures, reports, analysis, prospectuses, offering documents and other documents and notices related to your DCA Program relationship via electronic format.

ITEM 8. METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

All investments carry the risk of loss. Please review the documents, profiles and investment proposals we provide to you for a description of the specific risks associated with the funds you selected. Please see the end of this section for risks associated with investments offered in the DCA Program.

A. Our Performance Monitoring and Evaluation Reports and Investment Search Services

We may provide you with performance monitoring and evaluations generated by UBS, UBS affiliates, or third parties. Our investment search services help you evaluate mutual, exchange traded, stable value and collective funds. Our investment searches are limited to those which are offered by the Firm or for which the Firm has conducted a review and are available on the plans record keeper platform.

B. Information Provided to You

We may provide information from third party or proprietary databases regarding different mutual, exchange traded, stable value and collective funds. We do not verify or guarantee this information, including past performance information, which may not be calculated on a uniform or consistent basis.

We may make available descriptive profiles of selected funds that include past performance information. Profiles are not available for every fund identified in our search services.

As with other investments, past performance does not guarantee or indicate future results.

C. Risks Associated with Certain Investments in the DCA Program

This section is not intended to enumerate all the risks associated with these investments.

- Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds (ETF)

Mutual funds and exchange traded funds are sold by prospectus. To determine whether a particular investment is an appropriate investment for you, carefully consider the important information on the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. Please read the prospectus and offering documents carefully before you invest. Your Financial Advisor can provide a copy of the prospectus. You should be aware that the return and principal value of the Fund and ETF will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. We recommend that you read these documents carefully and consider investment objectives, risks, charges and expense before investing and maintain them in your files for future reference. If you have any questions, please contact your Financial Advisor.

Shareholders of these investments pay fees to the service providers of the funds, for example, management and administrative fees. The actual returns of your investment will be reduced by those fees and expenses.

There are risks involved with investing, including possible loss of principal. There is no guarantee that the investments will appreciate during the time that you hold them and some or all may depreciate in price. The risks for each investment will vary depending on the investment objective and underlying investments of each mutual fund and ETF. The prospectus lists the applicable risks. Please review those risks carefully before investing.

- Exchange Traded Funds

When you purchase an ETF share, you purchase an interest in an underlying basket of securities, designed to obtain investment results that correspond generally to price and yield performance of a particular index of securities, such as the S&P 500. There is no assurance that the ETF investments will match the index it aims to replicate. Investors in ETFs are subject to different risks than investors in mutual funds, as some of these instruments do not issue and redeem shares on a continuous basis. As a result, these securities may not be as liquid as open-end mutual funds. The price of these securities trading on an exchange can move independently of, and at a discount to, the net asset value (NAV) of securities comprising the fund's portfolio.

- Collective Investment Trusts or Funds

A collective trust fund is not open to individual investors. The strategies may be speculative and involve significant risk. Unlike a mutual fund, the only way that an investor can gain access to a collective trust fund is through a retirement plan such as a 401(k) plan. Additionally, regulation of mutual funds and collective trust funds varies. For instance, the mutual fund industry is governed by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Mutual funds lay out an investment strategy in legal documents that are filed with financial regulators in a region so investors are aware of the risks and rewards that are likely with a fund.

Managers of collective funds are not regulated by the SEC. Instead, these investment advisers adhere to less stringent guidelines and are overseen by the U.S. Office of the Comptroller of the Currency or by a state banking authority. As a result of less stringent governance, managers of collective funds have to disclose fund performance and the components of a portfolio only once a year, although most collective fund managers communicate performance to investors on a more frequent basis.

- Stable Value Funds

The objective of most stable value funds is to provide safety of principal and an investment return that is generally higher than a money market return, while providing participants the ability to withdraw their assets for ordinary transactions at book rather than market value. You understand, however, that the ability to withdraw stable value assets at book value has limitations based on the insurance contracts that wrap the underlying assets. In addition, most stable value funds require a hold period before assets can be withdrawn from the fund by the plan sponsor at book value and may refuse to honor book value withdrawals after communications from a plan sponsor or plan fiduciaries that it determines caused participants' withdrawals. Additionally, the plan is often restricted from offering investment alternatives or plans that are viewed as competitive with the stable value offering. Finally, you understand that stable value funds are subject to counterparty risk of the insurers that provide the fund's book value liquidity.

B. Disciplinary History

Below is a summary of the material legal and disciplinary events against UBS Financial Services Inc. during the last 10 years. As of the date of this brochure, there are no reportable legal and disciplinary events for our senior management personnel or those individuals in senior management responsible for determining the general investment advice available to our clients.

The disciplinary reporting requirements for broker-dealers and investment advisers differ in some ways, with FINRA requiring broker-dealers to report on matters (for example, pending complaints and arbitrations) which are not required to be reported by investment advisers. Since our firm operates as both broker-dealer and investment adviser we file the information as required by each entity. The information in this report is not the only resource you can consult. You can access additional information about our firm and our management personnel on the Securities and Exchange Commission's website, located at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov, as well as the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority's website, www.finra.org/brokercheck.

The DC Advisory program was not involved in any of the instances described below.

ITEM 11. CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

A. Code of Ethics

The Firm maintains and enforces a written code of ethics in accordance with Rule 204A-1 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The code and any subsequent amendments, is provided to all employees of the Firm and each employee is responsible for acknowledging receipt.

The code, which supplements the Firm's code of conduct, has a dual purpose:

- To set forth standards of conduct that apply to all employees of the firm, including the firm's fiduciary obligation to its clients
- To address conflicts of interest associated with the personal trading activities of a subset of employees defined as "access persons."⁵

Employees are required to promptly report any suspected violation of the code. Violations of the code may result in discipline, up to and including termination. Clients or prospective clients may obtain a copy of the Investment Adviser Code of Ethics upon request.

⁵ Access Person: all branch office employees, regardless of their job function, and any other Firm employee who works from a branch location or home office employees who place trades on behalf of money managers who participate in the Firm's advisory programs and home office employees that develop, manage or place trades for the UBS Managed Portfolio Program.

B. Sources of Compensation from Third Parties

Because the DCA Program neither permits you to purchase or custody funds at UBS nor to list UBS or any of its Financial Advisors as broker of record for any of the investment options you select under the DCA Program, we will only receive the DCA fee as compensation for the services provided in this program.

In relationships that are separate and distinct from DCA, UBS, our Financial Advisors and affiliates receive additional compensation when clients use UBS's account, execution, custody or other services, including other investment advisory services. We may also act as agent or principal for our own account when executing transactions and may profit or receive compensation in connection with such transactions.

Sources of Compensation from the Sale and Distribution of Mutual Funds.

The following compensation is not received with respect to assets subject to a DC Advisory Consulting Services Agreement; however, these fees may be received in connection with other client assets.

With respect to the sale of mutual funds, compensation to UBS, its Advisors and affiliates can result from receipt of distribution (e.g., 12b-1 fees), shareholder servicing, administration (e.g., omnibus or networking fees), marketing, investment management, revenue sharing or referral agreements we and/or affiliates have with vendors or sponsors of those securities and other services. The source of some of this compensation is from the fees you pay the fund sponsor or investment adviser who then pays a portion of those fees to us. The mutual fund's prospectus will include information about the various forms of compensation paid by the fund or its advisors. In addition, information regarding revenue-sharing arrangements is available at our website, www.ubs.com/mutualfundrevenuesharing

We also receive additional compensation as a result of inter-company profit sharing and servicing agreements. As a result of the various payments to us or our affiliated companies, the amount of compensation that UBS entities receive with respect to the sale of affiliated or proprietary mutual funds, including the money market funds used as sweep vehicles in advisory accounts, is greater than the amount payable to the organization as a whole from the sale of unaffiliated mutual funds.

For UBS proprietary products, our affiliates receive fees for providing investment management and other services ancillary to the execution of purchases of shares in affiliated funds, including, administration and shareholder services to the affiliated funds in the Programs.

Contributions to Training and Education Expenses.

Investment managers, mutual fund vendors, unit investment trust sponsors, retirement plan platforms, annuity, life insurance companies or their affiliates and sponsors of ETFs whose products are available on our platform may contribute funds to support our Financial Advisor education programs.

The contributions are used to subsidize the cost of training seminars we offer to Financial Advisors through specialized firm-wide programs and regional training forums. These seminars are designed to provide training and education to Financial Advisors, Branch Office Managers, Field Leadership, and other personnel who regularly solicit clients to participate in the various types of businesses listed above. These contributions also subsidize a significant portion of the costs incurred to support the Financial Advisor training, Financial Advisor and Client education, and product marketing efforts conducted regionally and nationally by product specialists employed by UBS. The training events and seminars can (and often) include a non-training element to the event.

Not all vendors contribute to our education efforts. Neither contribution towards these training and educational expenses, nor lack thereof, is considered as a factor in analyzing or determining whether a vendor should be included or should remain in our programs or our platform. Contributions can vary by vendor and event. Some vendors may decide to contribute at levels different than those we request. Additional contributions may be made by certain vendors in connection with specialized events or training forums.

Your Financial Advisor does not receive a portion of these payments. However, their attendance and participation in these events, as well as the increased exposure to vendors who sponsor the events, may lead Financial Advisors to recommend the products and services of those vendors as compared those who do not.

Please see the section "Non-Cash Compensation" for a description of additional types of support and/or contributions we receive from vendors.

Non-Cash Compensation. In addition to the contributions to training and education expenses described above, we and our Financial Advisors, may, from time to time, receive non-cash compensation from mutual fund companies, investment managers, insurance vendors, and sponsors of products that we distribute. This compensation may include the following:

- Occasional gifts
- Occasional meals, tickets or other entertainment
- Sponsorship support of training events and seminars
- Access to industry tools which facilitate the delivery of certain services including fee benchmarking
- Various forms of marketing and servicing support and, in certain limited circumstances, the development of tools used by the firm for training or recordkeeping purposes.

These payments do not relate to any particular transactions or investment made by DCA or any other clients. At your request, your Financial Advisor can provide you with an annual estimate of the value of the non-cash compensation they may have received, if any.

Other Compensation. In addition, our affiliates receive trading commissions and other compensation from mutual funds and insurance companies whose products we distribute.

UBS or our affiliates may engage in a variety of transactions with (or provide other services to) the investment managers, mutual funds, their affiliates or service providers with which you are doing business. We may, in turn, receive compensation from these entities. Those transactions and services that we provide may include:

- Executing transactions in securities or other instruments
- Broker-dealer services for our own account
- Research services
- Consulting services
- Performance evaluation services
- Investment banking services
- Banking or insurance services

C. Other Interests in Client Transactions

Advice/Services to Other Clients and Activities in our Proprietary Accounts

We and our affiliates provide investment banking, research, brokerage, investment advisory and other services for different types of clients. In providing those services, we and our affiliates may:

- give advice to, or take actions for, those clients or for our or our affiliates own accounts that differs from advice given to, or the timing and nature of actions taken for you,
- buy and sell securities for our own or other accounts,
- act as a market maker or an underwriter for securities recommended, purchased or sold.

UBS and our affiliates occasionally may not be free to divulge or act upon certain information in their possession on behalf of investment advisory or other clients. We are not obligated to execute any transaction for your account that we believe to be improper under applicable law or rules or contrary to our own policies. In particular, you should note that some of our programs may recommend asset allocations or analyze markets and the economy in a different way than would be recommended by some of our research, trading or other departments.

We have adopted policies and procedures that limit transactions for our proprietary accounts and the accounts of our employees. These policies and procedures are designed to prevent, among other things, improper or abusive conduct when there may be a potential conflict with the interests of a client.

ITEM 12. BROKERAGE PRACTICES

Our DCA Program services do not include the review or recommendation of broker-dealers for client transactions. Clients may choose to implement our advice through other financial institutions. However, we will not review or otherwise make recommendations on broker-dealers.

ITEM 13. REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

We have various policies and procedures applicable to the review and supervision of consulting services provided through DCA. Those policies are designed to comply with the requirements of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and where applicable, ERISA and other applicable rules and regulations.

DCA program clients meet with the Financial Advisors periodically (usually, quarterly). Items generally reviewed include, but are not limited to the following:

- Consistency of the plan's investments with the Investment Policy Statement
- Review of performance compared to peers and benchmarks and style drift of plan's mutual funds.
- Analysis of risk and return and investment costs
- Determination whether a change should be made to the plan's investment line up.

Branch Office Managers are responsible for the supervision of Financial Advisors who provide DC Advisory services, while home office Program Managers are responsible for enforcing the various program guidelines.

ITEM 14. CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

We neither receive nor pay compensation for referrals of DCA Program clients.

Separate and distinct from the DCA Program, we and our Financial Advisors may be compensated for referring clients to affiliates or third parties, as well as receive compensation from third parties or affiliates for their referral of clients to us.

ITEM 15. CUSTODY

Clients in the DCA Program may not establish a custodial account at UBS and, accordingly, UBS Financial Services Inc. does not act as a custodian for DCA clients. However, UBS Financial Services Inc. is a qualified custodian and has custody of client funds and securities.

ITEM 16. INVESTMENT DISCRETION

The DCA Program does not involve the delegation or exercise of discretion on our part over your assets. We offer discretionary portfolio management services which are described in a separate brochure. Please contact your Financial Advisor with questions.

ITEM 17. VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

The DCA Program does not include proxy voting services.

ITEM 18. FINANCIAL INFORMATION

UBS Financial Services Inc. is a qualified custodian (as defined in SEC Rule 206(4)-2). As a result, we have not included the balance sheet required under "Financial Information" of this Form ADV.

- As of the date of this Brochure, there is no financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet our contractual commitment to our clients.
- Our Firm has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time during the last ten years.
