SUMMARY OF PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

This Summary of Professional Designations is provided to assist you in evaluating the professional designations and minimum requirements of our investment professionals who hold these designations.

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA®)

This designation is offered by the CFA Institute (formerly the Association for Investment Management and Research [AIMR]). To enroll in the CFA program, an individual must have a bachelor's degree or equivalent, or four years of qualified work experience. A CFA designation requires an individual to:

- Pass three exams that test the individual's knowledge of investments and finance
- Understand and sign a professional conduct statement which commits the individual to the CFA Institute's Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct. These require adherence to a high level of integrity, professionalism and duty to clients among others

Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA®)

In order to be certified as a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA) and be able to use the CPA designation after your name, the following is required:

- Obtain a university degree
- Complete a Provincial Institute/Order student professional program or the equivalent
- Gain prescribed practical experience with a training office approved by a Provincial Institute/Order
- Pass the UFE -- the profession's Uniform Evaluation

Privacy Notice

Hexavest Inc. (“Hexavest”) is committed to protecting your privacy. We are providing you with this Privacy Notice to inform you how we collect, use, and protect the personal information supplied to us by our customers. If we change our information practices, we will notify you of any material changes.

We will request your consent before or when we collect or use your personal information. Subject to legal, contractual requirements and operational constraints, you can refuse to consent to Hexavest collection, use or disclosure of nonpublic personal information as well as withdrawing your consent at any time.

As part of providing you with our services, we may obtain nonpublic personal information about you from sources such as:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, telephone number, social security number, occupation, assets and income;
- Information about your transactions with us.

Hexavest aims to limit the amount of personal information collected. We may use this information to provide services to you, to accept you as an investor, to process a transaction for you, or otherwise in furtherance of our business. In order to service your account and effect your transactions, we may provide your personal information to firms that we have engaged to assist us in servicing your account and which have a need for such information, such as an outside accounting firm, auditor, attorney, or administrator. We may also disclose such information to financial institutions with which we have joint client relationships. We require third party service providers and financial institutions with which we have joint client relationships to protect the confidentiality of your information and to use the information only for the purposes for which we disclose them the information. Except as noted above, or as required by law, we do not otherwise provide information about you to any other third parties without your prior permission.

We will internally safeguard your nonpublic personal information by restricting access to only those employees who provide products or services to you or those who need access to your information to service your account. In addition, we will maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that meet federal and/or state standards to guard your nonpublic personal information. Furthermore, we will keep your personal information only as long as it remains necessary or relevant for the identified purposes or as required by law.

If any personal information to your file changes or is incorrect, please inform the Client Services Department so it may be updated or corrected.

You can request to consult your file in writing to the Chief Compliance Officer. If you have any questions or comments, please call us at (514) 390-8484 or email us at mlajoie@hexavest.com.
