Educational Background and Business Experience

Form ADV Part 2B, Item 2

Dalya Inhaber Ph.D., CFP® Dalya is the Founder of Minerva Wealth Advisory, where she is responsible for portfolio management and client relationships. Dalya founded Minerva Wealth Advisory with the mission of serving clients through the lens of financial planning in a collaborative relationship. The firm strives for transparency in its investment approach, which is based on low cost exposure to a diversified set of asset classes.

Prior to Minerva Wealth Advisory, she was a financial advisor at Gerstein Fisher, a Registered Investment Advisor from October 2010 to December 2014. Dalya worked with individuals and families to help them achieve their financial goals. This covered all aspects of financial planning, including investments, estate planning, tax and retirement planning.

Prior to joining Gerstein Fisher, Dalya was managing director of curriculum and programming at TIGER21, an investment club of high net worth investors. At TIGER21, she directed member education through a speakers program that addressed various aspects of wealth management including investing, family dynamics, philanthropy and legacy.

Prior to that role, Dalya was vice president of municipal investment banking at PaineWebber, working with state and local governments to structure and market bond offerings to investors.

Formerly a research economist at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Dalya specialized in the monetary aggregates both in research projects and in weekly briefings to senior officers on the open market desk.

Dalya received a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Michigan and a B.A. in economics from the University of California at Santa Barbara. She is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and Series 65 registered.
