Brochure Supplement prepared on March 30, 2020

This supplement provides information about Mr. Avila that supplements the Toroso Investments, LLC brochure (the "Brochure"). You should have received a copy of the Brochure. Please contact Mr. Daniel Carlson, Chief Compliance Officer, at dcarlson@torosoinv.com or 844-986-7676 if you did not receive the Brochure or if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement.

Additional information about Mr. Avila is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. The searchable IARD/CRD number is 2058210.

Item 2. – Educational Background and Business Experience:

Juan Carlos Avila (born 1968) joined Toroso Investments, LLC (Toroso) in December of 2012. Juan Carlos is Co-Head of FARO Advisory, a division of Toroso Advisors (which itself is a division of Toroso). Juan has over 30 years of financial service industry experience. FARO Advisory's advisory practice specializes in providing culturally relevant and inclusive financial services to today's diverse markets.

Education Background:

He received his Bachelor of Science degree in economics from the University of Wisconsin at Madison, and his Master's in Business Administration degree from Northwestern University Kellogg School of Management. In 2011 he earned the Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) professional designation. The AIF designation signifies specialized knowledge of fiduciary responsibility and the ability to implement policies and procedures that meet a defined standard of care. The designation is the culmination of a rigorous training program, which includes a comprehensive, closed-book final examination under the supervision of a proctor, and agreement to abide by the Center's Code of Ethics and Conduct Standards. On an ongoing basis, completion of continuing education and adherence to the Code of Ethics and Conduct Standards are required to maintain the AIF designation.

Business Background:

Prior to joining Toroso, Mr. Avila spent three years as a Senior Vice President with Mesirow Financial where he co-led an investment advisory practice. Prior to joining Mesirow Financial, he spent 19 years at Merrill Lynch as a Senior Financial Advisor, Vice President, with the Private Client Group. Additionally, Mr. Avila was recognized as Diversity MBA 2017 Top 100 Under 50 Executive & Emerging Leaders and received the 2016 Servant Leadership Award from the Hispanic Alliance for Career Enhancement (HACE). In 2014 he was named to Negocios Now "Who's Who in Hispanic Chicago" inaugural edition and recognized as the Chicago State University Latino Resource Center Corporate Citizen Honoree.

Item 3. – Disciplinary Information

Mr. Avila (the "supervised person") has not been involved with any legal or disciplinary events material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of the supervised person.

Item 4. – Other Business Activities:

- (A) Except as described below, the supervised person is not actively engaged in any other investment-related business or occupation, including being registered, or having an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), or commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), nor is the supervised person an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA.
- (B) Mr. Avila is a licensed Health and Life Insurance Producer in the state of Illinois. He is also licensed to sell variable insurance contracts. Mr. Avila is affiliated with Alliant Insurance Services, Inc. ("Alliant") and FARO Associates, LLC ("Faro") and receive commissions from clients that form insurance relationships with Alliant. There is a potential conflict of interest for Toroso to recommend its clients to Alliant. However, all Alliant insurance relationships existed before those insurance clients became advisory clients of Toroso. Furthermore, no new accounts with Alliant were formed after Mr. Avila joined Toroso. Consequently, Toroso does not currently believe that their status as licensed insurance producers create any conflicts with the interests of Toroso's advisory clients as Toroso believes no clients of Toroso will become clients of either Alliant or Faro. Faro and Toroso are not affiliated. an operation consulting team for businesses, nonprofits, and government entities. FARO Associates LLC is certified with the State of Illinois Department of Central Management Services' (CMS') Business Enterprise Program (BEP) as a Minority Owned Business (MBE). FARO Associates LLC is a separate legal entity and is not affiliated with Toroso.

- (C) Mr. Avila serves as Board Emeritus for the Hispanic Alliance for Career Enhancement (HACE), Trustee for the Illinois Children's Healthcare Foundation (ILCHF), Trustee for National Louis University, Trustee for the Chicago Community Catalyst Fund and a Board Member for the West Loop Community Organization.

Item 5. – Additional Compensation:

Mr. Avila may receive fees or commissions from clients of Alliant Insurance Services, Inc. Insurance commissions earned by Mr. Avila are separate and in addition to Toroso's advisory fees. Except as described, Mr. Avila does not receive any additional economic benefit from a non-advisory client for the provision of advisory services.

Item 6. – Supervision:

Mr. Avila understands that he owes a fiduciary duty to clients and therefore must serve the interests of clients with a high standard of care and diligence in accordance with Toroso's internal policies and procedures. Mr. Avila takes Toroso Investments, LLC's internal policies and procedures seriously. Mr. Carlson, Toroso's Chief Compliance Officer, and Mr. Michael Venuto, Toroso's Chief Investment Officer, respectively, monitor Mr. Avila's personal trades in accordance with Toroso's Code of Ethics. Mr. Carlson and Mr. Venuto can be reached at 844-986-7676. Mr. Venuto's extension is 702, and Mr. Carlson's extension is 703.

Additional information about Mr. Hofheimer is available on the SEC’s website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. The searchable IARD/CRD number is 851441.

Item 2. – Educational Background and Business Experience:

Mr. James Hofheimer (born 1955) is the Executive Vice President of the wealth advisory practice for Toroso Advisors, a division of Toroso Investments, LLC (Toroso). He is focused on advising corporations and people on all financial planning matters and has spoken to industry groups on the need for transparency in retirement plans.

Education Background:

Mr. Hofheimer is a graduate of the Certified Investment Management Analyst program at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business, the Accredited Investment Fiduciary program at the Katz Graduate School of Business at the University of Pittsburgh, a Certified Retirement Planning Specialist, and has an MBA degree from the J.L. Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University. The Certified Investment Management Analyst® (CIMA®) Certification is the only credential of its kind designed specifically for financial professionals seeking to distinguish themselves as advanced investment consultants. It requires successful completion of the educational component followed by a passing score on the CIMA® Certification Exam. Furthermore, individuals who hold the CRPS® designation have completed a course of study encompassing design, installation, maintenance and administration of retirement plans. Additionally, individuals must pass an end-of-course examination that tests their ability to synthesize complex concepts and apply theoretical concepts to real-life situations. All designees have agreed to adhere to Standards of Professional Conduct and are subject to a disciplinary process. Designees renew their designation every two-years by completing 16 hours of continuing education, reaffirming adherence to the Standards of Professional Conduct and complying with self-disclosure requirements.

Business Background:

Before joining Toroso, Mr. Hofheimer was with Rothschild Investment Corporation as Vice President, Senior Institutional Consultant and Corporate Retirement Consultant. Previously, he was at Salomon Brothers, initially on the institutional desk and later growing the firm's futures operation into one of the largest at the Chicago Board of Trade. Following Salomon Brothers, he founded Hofheimer Commodities before joining Morgan Stanley in 1998. Jim is also a past member of the Board of Directors of the Chicago Board of Trade, Home Federal Bank, Highland Park Hospital, Blythedale Children's Hospital, the Executive Board of The Forward Association

Item 3. – Disciplinary Information

Mr. Hofheimer (the "supervised person") has not been involved with any legal or disciplinary events material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of the supervised person.

Item 4. – Other Business Activities:

- (A) Except as described below, the supervised person is not actively engaged in any other investment-related business or occupation, including being registered, or having an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), or commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), nor is the supervised person an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA.
- (B) Mr. Hofheimer serves as a chairperson of FINRA Dispute Resolution. The Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) administers a dispute resolution forum for investors, brokerage firms, and their registered employees in the U.S. through its network of 71 hearing locations, including at least one in each state and Puerto Rico. FINRA annually administers between 4,000 and 8,500 arbitrations and numerous mediations. FINRA maintains a diverse roster of over 7,100 arbitrators and 200 mediators. The National Arbitration and Mediation Committee (NAMC), which is composed of investor, industry, and neutral (arbitrator and mediator) representatives, provides policy guidance to FINRA's Dispute Resolution staff. A majority of the NAMC members and its chair are public. FINRA is regulated by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The Chairperson directs the entire proceeding and his/her competency determines the hearing's success.

Item 5. – Additional Compensation:

Mr. Hofheimer does not receive any economic benefit from a non-advisory client for the provision of advisory services.

Item 6. – Supervision:

Mr. Hofheimer understands that he owes a fiduciary duty to clients and therefore must serve the interests of clients with a high standard of care and diligence in accordance with Toroso's internal policies and procedures. Brochure Supplement prepared on March 30, 2020

This supplement provides information about Mr. Weiskopf that supplements the Toroso Investments, LLC brochure (the “Brochure”). You should have received a copy of the Brochure. Please contact Mr. Daniel Carlson, Chief Compliance Officer, at dcarlson@torosoinv.com or 844-986-7676 if you did not receive the Brochure or if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement.

Additional information about Mr. Weiskopf is available on the SEC’s website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. The searchable IARD/CRD number is 46106.

Item 2. – Educational Background and Business Experience:

Dan Weiskopf joined Toroso Investments, LLC (Toroso) in May 2018 as a Portfolio Manager and member of its Investment Committee. Dan is also an investment specialist for Toroso's affiliate, Tidal ETF Services LLC (Tidal), where his primary role is liaising with exchange-traded fund (ETF) issuers and ETF allocators on portfolio construction and strategies. He has over 30 years of portfolio management experience. For the past 15 years, Dan has focused on ETF research with a view that "structure matters" (more than fees) in managing client portfolios.

Education Background:

Mr. Weiskopf graduated with an MBA in marketing from Fordham University and a BA from Colorado College and currently serves as the Treasurer of the Quogue Association.

Business Background:

Prior to Toroso and Tidal, Dan managed client portfolios as an investment advisor with Investment Planners, Inc.. He was a vice president at UBS Financial where he built the Team's ETF database. Before focusing exclusively on ETFs, he founded MH Capital Partners, L.P. a long / short small-cap hedge fund, and worked at American Diversified Enterprises, a family office affiliated with Allen & Company.

Brochure Supplement prepared on March 30, 2020

This supplement provides information about Mr. Gayed that supplements the Toroso Investments, LLC brochure (the "Brochure"). You should have received a copy of the Brochure. Please contact Mr. Daniel Carlson, Chief Compliance Officer, at dcarlson@torosoinv.com or 844-986-7676 if you did not receive the Brochure or if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement.

Additional information about Mr. Gayed is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. The searchable IARD/CRD number is 6152829.

Item 2. – Educational Background and Business Experience:

Michael Gayed is the Portfolio Manager of the ATAC Rotation Fund (tickers: ATACX and ATCIX), which was launched in 2012 and is designed to be a tactical, “risk-on, risk-off” mutual fund that provides low correlation and defends in advance of market volatility. Mr. Gayed served as the Fund’s portfolio manager in his previous role with Pension Partners, LLC, an investment advisor managing mutual funds and separate accounts. Based on the Fund’s new advisory relationship with Toroso Investments anticipated to be effective in April 2020, the Fund’s strategy will not change. Fund investors of record as of February 20, 2020, are in the process of receiving a proxy requesting approval that Mr. Gayed remain the Fund’s lead portfolio manager in his new role as Portfolio Manager at Toroso Investments.

Education Background:

Mr. Gayed earned his B.S. from New York University, and is a CFA Charterholder.

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Minimum Qualifications: The Chartered Financial Analyst (“CFA”) designation is an international professional certification issued by the CFA Institute (formerly AIMR) to qualified candidates who complete a series of three examinations. To become a candidate for a CFA charter, candidates must meet one of the following requirements: 1) Undergraduate degree and four years of professional experience involving investment decision-making, or; 2) Four years qualified work experience (full time, but not necessarily investment related). Candidates may become a CFA Charterholder if they successfully pass three course exams, Levels 1, 2, and 3. The CFA Institute has stated that the average candidate may need approximately 250 hours of study for each of the three levels. The CFA curriculum includes these topic areas: Ethical and Professional Standards; Quantitative Methods (such as the time value of money, and statistical inference); Economics; Financial Reporting and Analysis; Corporate Finance; Analysis of Investments; Portfolio Management and Analysis. CFA Charterholders are also obligated to adhere to a strict Code of Ethics and Standards governing their professional conduct.

Business Background:

Mr. Gayed was previously the Co-Portfolio Manager and Chief Investment Strategist at Pension Partners, LLC, an investment advisor managing mutual funds and separate accounts. He is the co-author of four award-winning research papers on market anomalies and investing. He is an active contributor to MarketWatch and has been a regular commentator on CNBC, Bloomberg, and Fox Business, as well as The Wall Street Journal Live for his unique approach to interpreting market movements. His analysis has also been featured by Marc Faber of the Gloom, Boom and Doom Report. Michael earned his B.S. from New York University and is a CFA Charterholder.

Prior to these roles, he served as Portfolio Manager for a large international investment group, trading long/short investment ideas. From 2004 – 2008, he was a Portfolio Strategist at AmeriCap Advisers, LLC. As a member of the investment committee, he performed detailed analysis and helped to structure client portfolios. In 2007, Mr. Gayed launched his own long/short hedge fund, using various trading strategies focused on taking advantage of stock market anomalies.

Item 3. – Disciplinary Information

Mr. Gayed (the “supervised person”) has not been involved with any legal or disciplinary events material to a client’s or prospective client’s evaluation of the supervised person.

Item 4. – Other Business Activities:

- (A) Except as described below, the supervised person is not actively engaged in any other investment-related business or occupation, including being registered, or having an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant (“FCM”), commodity pool operator (“CPO”), or commodity trading advisor (“CTA”), nor is the supervised person an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA.

- (B) Mr. Gayed is also affiliated, as of the date of this filing with another registered investment adviser, Pension Partners. Pension Partners is a fee-based SEC-registered investment adviser with its principal place of business located in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Pension Partners has been in business since 1999. Edward Dempsey is the Managing Member and Chief Investment Officer since the firm was founded and was the sole owner through September 2012 when Michael A. Gayed acquired a membership interest. Mr. Gayed has served as the firm's Chief Investment Strategist since September 2010. The firm currently provides portfolio management services to clients using model and asset allocation portfolios over which it has discretionary investment authority. The portfolios are designed to meet a particular investment goal. The model and asset allocation portfolios have featured active rotating allocations to equity and bond ETFs and cash or cash equivalents, depending on the firm's assessment of expected relative outperformance by each asset class. The portfolios invest directly in ETFs.

During 2012, Pension Partners sponsored the organization of the ATAC Rotation Fund ("The Fund") mutual fund, a series of the Managed Portfolio Series (the "Trust"). The firm serves as the Fund's investment adviser and Mr. Dempsey and Mr. Gayed are the Fund's Co-Portfolio Managers on behalf of the firm as of the date of this filing. The Fund's Prospectus and a Statements of Additional Information are a part of the Trust's Registration Statement filed with the SEC. Copies of the Trust's complete Registration Statement may be obtained from the SEC upon payment of the prescribed fee or may be accessed free of charge at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Information about the Fund is also available at <https://www.atacfunds.com/index.htm>.

Michael Gayed, also owns and operates a firm named Lead-Lag Publishing, LLC. Lead-Lag Publishing, LLC produces a newsletter named the Lead-Lag Report, a subscription-based newsletter offered through the Seeking Alpha Marketplace. The Lead-Lag Report is a weekly newsletter that seeks to provide subscribers with actionable market signals and analysis that they can apply to their own investing decisions. The Lead-Lag Report delivers weekly analysis on different market segments and potential risk or return opportunities and seeks to identify market direction signals that may help subscribers to position their portfolio appropriately. Mr. Gayed's activities through Lead-Lag Publishing are separate and distinct from the activities of Toroso Investments, however, the firm has engaged with Lead-Lag Publishing to provide limited advertising for the firm. Toroso maintains policies and procedures reasonably designed to mitigate conflicts of interest and reasonably ensure that advertising matters are conducted in the best interest of clients. Furthermore, it is the express policy of Toroso that no person employed by Toroso may use material, non-public information obtained during the course of his or her work in deciding whether to purchase or sell any security prior to any pending transaction(s) being executed for an advisory account. We do not believe Mr. Gayed's activities present a conflict of interest.

Michael Gayed is also the owner Felix Culpa Publishing, LLC. The company is not directly investment-related and does not involve a substantial amount of Mr. Gayed's time nor does it represent 10% or more of his income.

Item 5. – Additional Compensation:

Mr. Gayed does not receive any other economic benefits for providing advisory services other than his regular salary from Toroso.

Item 6. – Supervision:

Mr. Gayed understands that he owes a fiduciary duty to clients and therefore must serve the interests of clients with a high standard of care and diligence in accordance with Toroso's internal policies and procedures. Mr. Gayed takes Toroso's internal policies and procedures seriously. Mr. Carlson, Toroso's Chief Compliance Officer, monitors Mr. Gayed's personal trades in accordance with Toroso's Code of Ethics. Mr. Carlson can be reached at 844-986-7676.
