Designations

AIF® - Accredited Investment Fiduciary

Advisors who have earned the Accredited Investment Fiduciary designation are able to immediately show that they are interested in and working towards the best interests of their clients. They have gone through training, met the qualifications, and passed the exam allowing use of the AIF® designation.

Qualifications:

There are four requirements for attaining the AIF® designation:

1. Enroll in and complete the AIF® Training
2. Pass the AIF® Examination

The examination is a computer-based, timed, closed-book assessment that must be attempted unaided in the presence of a proctor. The designation examinations consist of:

- AIF® examination consists of sixty (60) multiple choice questions with a time-limit of ninety (90) minutes. A paper-based examination is available upon prior arrangement by Fi360 or the exam taker, and may only be proctored by Fi360 personnel.

3. Meet the experience requirement

One of the following combinations of education, industry experience, and/or professional development is required to meet the experience requirement for the AIF® designation. Relevant experience is that which has been accrued in a non-clerical role within the financial services (or a related) industry.

- Minimum of two (2) years of relevant experience; a bachelor's degree (or higher); and a professional credential.
- Minimum of five (5) years of relevant experience; a bachelor's degree (or higher) or a professional credential.
- Minimum of eight (8) years of relevant experience.

4. Submit the application and dues

Included in the application are sections to attest to both the Code of Ethics and Conduct Standards. The Code of Ethics consists of the tenets of ethical conduct expected of all credential holders, while the Conducts Standards pertain to any past criminal and civil litigation, regulatory events, and personal and professional conduct.

Continuing Education Requirement:

AIF® designees must accrue a minimum of six hours of continuing education annually. The CE requirement is effective immediately upon attainment of the AIF® designation, and CE hours may be accrued from a variety of sources. All CE is subject to audit by, and final approval from, Fi360.

Other Business Activities

Charles G. Herendeen is a Registered Representative of American Portfolios Financial Services, Inc., an Investment Adviser Representative of American Portfolios Advisors, Inc., and a licensed insurance agent. From time to time, the representative may offer clients advice or products from these activities. Clients should be aware that these services may pay a commission and may involve a possible conflict of interest, as commissionable products can conflict with the fiduciary duties of an Investment Adviser Representative. Novem Group always acts in the best interest of the client including the sale of commissionable products to advisory clients. Clients are in no way required to implement the plan through any Investment Adviser Representative of Novem Group in their capacity as a Registered Representative or licensed insurance agent.

Charles G. Herendeen is currently the Treasurer for the Victor Boys' Youth Lacrosse, and a board member for the New York Employee Benefits Conference (NYEBC).

Additional Compensation

Charles G. Herendeen does not receive any economic benefit from any person, company, or organization, other than Novem Group, in exchange for providing clients advisory services through Novem Group.

Supervision

As an Investment Adviser Representative, Charles G. Herendeen works closely with his supervisor and all advice provided to clients and account-related transactions are reviewed by his supervisor. Charles G. Herendeen adheres to all required regulations regarding the activities of an Investment Adviser Representative and follows all policies and procedures outlined in the firm's Written Supervisory Procedures manual, including the Code of Ethics, and regulatory requirements.

Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of this representative's business.
