Use of Affiliated Manager – As a part of the Family Office services, Clients may engage the Affiliated Manager for its all-inclusive advisory service, where the Client is referred to utilize the portfolio management services of affiliated investment advisors (“Affiliated Manager”) for all or a portion of the Client’s portfolio. Please refer to the section titled - Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations for additional information. The Client will be provided with the Affiliated Manager’s Form ADV Part 2A (or a brochure that makes the appropriate disclosures) of those parties.

Financial Planning Services - Inscription Family, as a part of its Family Office services, may provide a variety of financial planning and consulting services to Clients. Services are offered in several areas of a Client’s financial situation, depending on their goals, objectives and financial circumstance. Generally, such financial planning services involve preparing a formal financial plan or rendering a specific financial consultation based on the Client’s financial goals, objectives and any other area of need of the Client.

A financial plan developed for, or financial consultation rendered to the Client will usually include general recommendations for a course of activity or specific actions to be taken by the Client. For example, recommendations may be made that the Client start or revise their investment programs, commence or alter retirement savings, establish education savings and/or charitable giving programs.

Inscription Family may also refer Clients to an accountant, attorney or other specialists, as appropriate for their unique situation. For certain engagements, the Advisor will provide a written summary of the Client’s financial situation, observations, and recommendations. For consulting or ad-hoc engagements, the Advisor may not provide a written summary.

Financial planning and consulting recommendations may pose a conflict between the interests of the Advisor and the interests of the Client. For example, a recommendation to engage an Affiliated Manager for investment management services or to increase the level of investment assets with an Affiliated Manager would pose a conflict, as it would increase revenue generated for the Affiliated Manager. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendations made by the Advisor or maintain an ongoing relationship with the Advisor. If the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations made by the Advisor, the Client is under no obligation to implement the transaction through the Advisor.

CLIENT ACCOUNT MANAGEMENT

Prior to engaging Inscription Family to provide Family Office services, each Client is required to enter into an agreement with Inscription Family that defines the scope of services, terms, conditions, authority and responsibilities of both Inscription Family and the Client. As noted above Inscription Family provides investment advisory services on discretionary basis and may transact in certain securities for cash management purposes. Ongoing investment management services are provided in one's separate capacities with an Affiliated Manager or other Investment Manager.

WRAP FEE PROGRAMS

Inscription Family does not manage or place Client assets into a wrap fee program.

ASSETS UNDER MANAGEMENT

Inscription Family is a newly established advisor. There are currently no Regulatory Assets under Management as of December 31, 2019. Clients may request more current information at any time by contacting the Advisor.

FEES AND COMPENSATION

The following paragraphs detail the fee structure and compensation methodology for services provided by the Advisor. Each Client engaging the Advisor for services described herein shall be required to enter into a written agreement with the Advisor.

FEES FOR ADVISORY SERVICES

Family Office Services

Inscription Family offers its services for a fixed annual fee ranging up to $500,000, or an annual percentage of total assets advised upon, ranging from 0.10% to 0.40%. Fees are based on the nature, complexity and size of each relationship. Fees will be payable quarterly in arrears, at the end of each calendar quarter. Fees may be negotiable at the sole discretion of the Advisor. All securities held in accounts managed by Inscription Family will be independently valued by the Custodian. Inscription Family will not have the authority or responsibility to value portfolio securities.

Use of Affiliated Manager – For Clients referred to Affiliated Managers and engaged with the Affiliated Manager for its all-inclusive advisory service, the Affiliated Manager will deduct the total advisory fee from the Client account[s], where a portion of the fees will be provided to the Advisor. The Advisor will not receive any additional fees from the Affiliated Manager.

The Advisor's fee is exclusive of, and in addition to, brokerage fees, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses, which may be incurred by the Client. However, the Advisor shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs.

FEE BILLING

Family Office Services

Fixed fee arrangements are invoiced by the Advisor, at the end of each quarter, and are due upon receipt or will be deducted from the Client's account[s] at the Custodian. Asset based fees are calculated by the Advisor or its delegate and deducted from the Client's account[s] at the Custodian. The Advisor shall send an invoice to the Custodian indicating the amount of the fees to be deducted from the Client's account[s] at the end of the quarter. The amount due is calculated by applying the quarterly rate (annual rate divided by 4) to the total assets advised with Inscription Family at the end of each quarter. Clients will be provided with a statement, at least quarterly, from the Custodian reflecting deduction of the fee. It is the Client's responsibility to review the deducted fees to ensure they are correct, as the Custodian will not do so. Clients provide written authorization permitting fees to be deducted by Inscription Family to be paid directly from their account[s] held by the Custodian as part of the agreement and separate account forms provided by the Custodian.

Certain clients may elect to pay Family Office fees directly versus a deduction from the client's account with the Custodian.

Use of Affiliated Manager – For Clients referred by the Advisor to the Affiliated Manager, the Client's overall fees will be deducted by the Affiliated Manager.

OTHER FEES AND EXPENSES

Clients may incur certain fees or charges imposed by entities, other than Inscription Family, in connection with investments made on behalf of the Client, including investment advisory fees, commissions, custody fees and/or securities execution fees. The Family Office services charged by Inscription Family is separate and distinct from these fees. In addition, all fees paid to Inscription Family are separate and distinct from the expenses charged by mutual funds and exchange-traded funds to their shareholders, if applicable. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees and expenses will generally be used to pay management fees for the funds, other fund expenses, account administration (e.g., custody, brokerage and account reporting), and a possible distribution fee.

ADVANCED PAYMENT OF FEES AND TERMINATION

Family Office Services

Inscription Family is compensated for its services at the end of each quarter, after services are rendered. Either party may terminate the Family Office agreement by providing advance notice to the other party. Upon termination, the Client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the Client. The Client's agreement with the Advisor is non-transferable without the Client's prior consent.

Use of Affiliated Manager – In the event that a Client should wish to terminate their relationship with the Affiliated Manager, the terms for termination will be set forth in the respective agreements between the Client and that Affiliated Manager. Inscription Family will assist the Client with the termination and transition as appropriate.

COMPENSATION FOR SALES OF SECURITIES

Inscription Family does not buy or sell securities to earn commissions and does not receive any compensation for securities transactions in any Client account, other than the investment advisory fees noted above.

Certain Advisory Persons are also registered representatives of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments ("PKS"). PKS is a registered broker-dealer (CRD No. 35747), member FINRA, SIPC. In one's separate capacity as a registered representative of PKS, the Advisory Person may implement securities transactions under PKS and not through Inscription Family. In such instances, the Advisory Person will receive commission-based compensation in connection with the purchase and sale of securities, including 12b-1 fees for the sale of investment company products. Compensation earned by the Advisory Person in one's capacity as a registered representative is separate and in addition to the Advisor's fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because the Advisory Person who is a registered representative has an incentive to effect securities transactions for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on the Client. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendation provided by the Advisor nor Advisory Persons. Neither the Advisor nor Advisory Persons will earn ongoing investment advisory fees in connection with any products or services implemented in the Advisory Person's separate capacity as a registered representative. Please refer to section titled - Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations.

Certain Advisory Persons are also licensed as independent insurance professionals. As an independent insurance professional, the Advisory Person may earn commission-based compensation for selling insurance products, including insurance products they sell to you. Insurance commissions earned by these persons are separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because the person providing investment advice on behalf of the Advisor who is also an insurance agent has an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. However, you are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase insurance products through any Advisory Person affiliated with the Advisor.

PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT

Inscription Family does not charge performance-based fees for its investment advisory services. The fees charged by Inscription Family are as described in section titled “Fees and Compensation” above and are not based upon the capital appreciation of the funds or securities held by any Client.

Inscription Family does not manage any proprietary investment funds or limited partnerships (for example, a mutual fund or a hedge fund) and has no financial incentive to recommend any particular investment options to its Clients.

TYPES OF CLIENTS

Inscription Family offers investment advisory services to high net worth individuals and any affiliations, including but not limited to, trusts and estates. Inscription Family generally does not impose a minimum relationship size.

METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

METHODS OF ANALYSIS

Inscription Family offers investment advisory services and will gather information from financial newspapers, magazines, inspection of corporate activities, research materials, annual reports, prospectuses and company releases in order to effectively implement its services for the Client.

RISK OF LOSS

While the methods of analysis help the Advisor in evaluating a potential investment or perform its Family Office service, it does not guarantee that the investment will increase in value. Assets meeting the investment criteria utilized in these methods of analysis may lose value and may have negative investment performance. The Advisor monitors these economic indicators to determine if adjustments to strategic allocations are appropriate.

Clients engaged with the Advisor, must provide full and accurate disclosure of requested information, which is essential for the analysis of a Client's engagement. The Advisor shall rely on the financial and other information provided by the Client or their designees without the duty or obligation to validate the accuracy and completeness of the provided information. It is the responsibility of the Client to inform the Advisor of any changes in financial condition, goals or other factors that may affect this analysis.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities and other investments involve a risk of loss that each Client should understand and be willing to bear. Clients are reminded to discuss these risks with the Advisor.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Alvaro Trullenque has a court action initiated against him by Rodney Starkey, Et Al. The principal relief sought is restitution. The filing date of the Court Action was 05/08/2009. The principal product type named in the action was an International Bank CD. Formal Action was brought in the 19th Judicial District Court, Parish of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, (C578192). The employing firm when the activity occurred which led to the civil judicial action was Stanford Group Company. The allegations related to this civil action were: material representation, negligence, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, and unfair trade practices. The current status is pending.

The affiliated person, Alvaro Trullenque, has only one client in this class action suit. The client, an accredited investor invested a small percentage of his investable assets in an international certificate of deposit(s) as part of an overall diversified portfolio. This matter relates solely to that investment.

Inscription Family values the trust you place in us. As we advise all Clients, we encourage you to perform the requisite due diligence on any advisor or service provider with whom you partner. Our backgrounds are available on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching with our firm name or our CRD# 301900.

OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

RELATED REGISTERED INVESTMENT ADVISOR

Inscription Family is under common control with the Affiliated Managers, which are two affiliated SEC-registered investment advisors, Inscription Capital, LLC (CRD# 291780 and herein referred to as "Inscription") and Camden Wealth Advisors LLC (CRD# 148518 and herein referred to as "Camden"). Inscription and Camden serve as investment managers, primarily serving high net worth individuals, family offices and trusts. Certain Advisory Persons of Inscription Family also serve as Advisory Persons of Inscription or Camden. Inscription and Camden may also provide investment advisory services to Clients of Inscription Family. In such instances, Inscription and/or Camden provides each Client with all relevant disclosures, including the Inscription and/or Camden Disclosure Brochure.

Additionally, the Advisor is affiliated, through common control, with Inscription and Camden. In certain circumstances, Inscription Family may recommend Inscription and/or Camden to act as an investment manager to a portion or all Client assets. Inscription and/or Camden may provide financial planning, investment advisory and certain portfolio management services. This poses a conflict of interest as owners may benefit from additional revenues generated. Clients of Inscription Family are under no obligation to accept the recommendations of Inscription Family to engage with Inscription and/or Camden for advisory services.

MERCHANT WEALTH MANAGEMENT HOLDINGS, LLC

Merchant Wealth Management Holdings, LLC ("Merchant Wealth"), a subsidiary of Merchant Investment Management, LLC ("Merchant Investment"), owns a minority, non-controlling interest in the Advisor. Merchant Investment, through subsidiaries other than Merchant Wealth, has ownership interests in various companies that provide investment and other consulting services to registered investment advisors ("Investment Solutions"). The Advisor is provided access for their use, or recommend that Clients use, these Investment Solutions, where the Advisor utilizes certain Investment Solutions pursuant to an engagement that the Advisor enters into directly with the Investment Solution. These investment solutions include, but are not limited to, third party money managers, private investments, pooled investment vehicles, or other investment products for which a commission is earned. Engagement of and with these Investment Solutions poses a potential conflict of interest due to the minority ownership interest that Merchant Investment's various subsidiaries own in the third parties providing these investment solutions. Through Merchant Investment's minority ownership interests in the third parties that provide these investment solutions, Merchant Investment will benefit from additional revenue that is generated when the Advisor engages any of these third-party service providers. Accordingly, the Advisor may have an incentive to engage one or more of these third parties to provide investment solutions. In an effort to ensure these conflicts of interest are addressed, the Advisor has implemented a risk control and disclosure framework, the objective of which is for the Advisor to select investment solutions that are in the best interest of the Client. Lastly, as referenced above, the Advisor is not controlled by Merchant Wealth or Merchant Investment, and is operated independently where Merchant Investment and all other related subsidiaries are not involved with the services offered by the Advisor and maintains its own office space.

INSURANCE AGENCY AFFILIATIONS

As noted in section titled “Fees and Compensation”, certain Advisory Persons are also licensed insurance professionals. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from one’s role with Inscription Family. As an insurance professional, the Advisory Person may receive customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. The Advisory Person is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This may cause a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by the Advisory Persons or the Advisor.

BROKER-DEALER AFFILIATION

Certain Advisory Persons are also registered representatives of PKS. PKS is a registered broker-dealer (CRD No. 35747), member FINRA, SIPC. In one’s separate capacity as a registered representative, the Advisory Person will typically receive commissions for the implementation of recommendations for commissionable transactions. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendation provided by the Advisory Person. Neither the Advisor nor the Advisory Person will earn ongoing investment advisory fees in connection with any services implemented in the Advisory Person’s separate capacity as a registered representative.

CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

CODE OF ETHICS

Inscription Family has implemented a Code of Ethics (the “Code”) that defines our fiduciary commitment to each Client. This Code applies to all persons associated with Inscription Family (our “Supervised Persons”). The Code was developed to provide general ethical guidelines and specific instructions regarding our duties to you, our Client. Inscription Family and its Supervised Persons owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client. It is the obligation of Inscription Family’s Supervised Persons to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code, but also to the general principles that guide the Code. The Code covers a range of topics that address employee ethics and conflicts of interest. To request a copy of our Code, please contact us at (832) 649-7700.

PERSONAL TRADING WITH MATERIAL INTEREST

Inscription Family allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, through an Affiliated Manager. Inscription Family does not act as principal in any transactions. In addition, the Advisor does not act as the general partner of a fund, or advise an investment company. Inscription Family or the Affiliated Manager does not have a material interest in any securities traded in Client accounts.

PERSONAL TRADING IN SAME SECURITIES AS CLIENTS

Inscription Family allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, through an Affiliated Manager. Owning the same securities presents a conflict of interest that, as fiduciaries, we must disclose to you and mitigate through policies and procedures. As noted above, we have adopted the Code to address insider trading (material non-public information controls); gifts and entertainment; outside business activities and personal securities reporting. When trading for personal accounts, through an Affiliated Manager, Supervised Persons may have a conflict of interest if trading in the same securities. The fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its Clients can potentially be violated if personal trades are made with more advantageous terms than Client trades, or by trading based on material non-public information. This risk is mitigated by Inscription Family requiring reporting of personal securities trades by its Supervised Persons for review by the Chief Compliance Officer ("CCO") or delegate. We have also adopted written policies and procedures to detect the misuse of material, non-public information.

PERSONAL TRADING AT SAME TIME AS CLIENT

While Inscription Family allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, through an Affiliated Manager, such trades are typically aggregated with Client orders or traded afterwards. At no time will Inscription Family, or any Supervised Person of Inscription Family, transact in any security to the detriment of any Client.

BROKERAGE PRACTICES

RECOMMENDATION OF CUSTODIAN[S]

Inscription Family does not have discretionary authority to select the broker-dealer/custodian for custody and execution services. The Client will engage the broker-dealer/custodian (herein the "Custodian") to safeguard Client assets and authorize Inscription Family to direct trades to the Custodian as agreed upon in the investment advisory agreement. Further, Inscription Family does not have the discretionary authority to negotiate commissions on behalf of our Clients on a trade-by-trade basis.

Where Inscription Family does not exercise discretion over the selection of the Custodian, it may recommend the Custodian[s] to Clients for custody and execution services. Clients are not obligated to use the Custodian recommended by the Advisor and will not incur any extra fee or cost associated with using a Custodian not recommended by Inscription Family. However, the Advisor may be limited in the services it can provide if the recommended Custodian is not engaged. Inscription Family may recommend the Custodian based on criteria such as, but not limited to, reasonableness of commissions charged to the Client, services made available to the Client, and its reputation and/or the location of the Custodian's offices.

Following are additional details regarding the brokerage practices of the Advisor:

1. Soft Dollars - Soft dollars are revenue programs offered by broker-dealers whereby an advisor enters into an agreement to place security trades with the broker-dealer/custodian in exchange for research and other services.

Inscription Family does not participate in soft dollar programs sponsored or offered by any broker-dealer.

2. Brokerage Referrals - Inscription Family does not receive any compensation from any third party in connection with the recommendation for establishing an account.

3. Directed Brokerage - All Clients are serviced on a "directed brokerage basis", where Inscription Family will place trades within the established account[s] at the Custodian designated by the Client. Further, all Client accounts are traded within their respective brokerage account[s]. The Advisor will not engage in any principal transactions (i.e., trade of any security from or to the Advisor's own account) or cross transactions with other Client accounts (i.e., purchase of a security into one Client account from another Client's account[s]). Inscription Family will not be obligated to select competitive bids on securities transactions and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available transaction costs. These costs are determined by the Custodian.

AGGREGATING AND ALLOCATING TRADES

The Advisor only transacts in cash or cash equivalents, tailored specifically to the Client's objectives and cash needs. Therefore, the Advisor will not block or aggregate trades on behalf of its Clients.

REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

FREQUENCY OF REVIEWS

Cash and cash equivalents in Client accounts are monitored on a continuous basis by the Advisor. Formal reviews are generally conducted at least annually or more frequently depending on the needs of the Client.

The Advisor will be performing ongoing reviews of Family Office Client's situations and needs. The Client is encouraged to notify Inscription Family if changes occur in the Client's personal financial situation that might adversely affect the Client's investment plan or needs. Additional reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events.

CAUSES FOR REVIEWS

Each Client account shall be reviewed at least annually. Reviews may be conducted more frequently at the Client's request. Accounts and the respective cash needs may be reviewed as a result of major changes in economic conditions, known changes in the Client's financial situation, and/or large deposits or withdrawals in the Client's account[s]. The Client is encouraged to notify Inscription Family if changes occur in the Client's personal financial situation that might adversely affect the Client's objectives or cash needs.

REVIEW REPORTS

The Client will receive brokerage statements no less than quarterly from the Custodian. These brokerage statements are sent directly from the Custodian to the Client. The Client may also establish electronic access to the Custodian's website so that the Client may view these reports and their account activity. Client brokerage statements will include all positions, transactions and fees relating to the Client's account[s].

CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION RECEIVED BY INSCRIPTION FAMILY

Inscription Family may refer Clients to various unaffiliated, non-advisory professionals (e.g. attorneys, accountants, estate planners) to provide certain financial services necessary to meet the goals of its Clients. Likewise, Inscription Family may receive non-compensated referrals of new Clients from various third-parties.

CLIENT REFERRALS FOR SOLICITORS

Inscription Family does not engage paid solicitors for Client referrals.

CUSTODY

Inscription Family will in certain circumstances have “custody” of client accounts as defined in Rule 206(4)-2 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. As an example, should the client select bill pay services as part of the Family Office Services, this would be considered custody. All Clients must place their assets with a “qualified custodian”. Clients are required to enter into an agreement with the Custodian to retain their funds and securities and direct Inscription Family to utilize the Custodian for the Client’s security transactions. Clients should review statements provided by the Custodian and compare to any reports provided by Inscription Family to ensure accuracy as the Custodian does not perform this review.

SURPRISE INDEPENDENT EXAMINATION

When Inscription Family is deemed to have custody over certain Client accounts and/or securities as part of its Family Office and/or trustee services, pursuant to securities regulations the Advisor is required to engage an independent accounting firm to perform an annual surprise examination of those assets and accounts over which Inscription Family maintains custody. Any related opinions issued by an independent accounting firm are filed with the SEC and are publicly available on the SEC’s Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website (<http://adviserinfo.sec.gov>).

INVESTMENT DISCRETION

Inscription Family may make transactions in Client Account[s] for cash management purposes, where the Advisor will generally has discretion over Client accounts. This investment discretion grants the Advisor the authority to determine the selection and amount of securities to be bought or sold in Client accounts without obtaining prior consent or approval from the Client. However, these purchases or sales may be subject to specified objectives, guidelines, or limitations previously set forth by the Client and agreed to by Inscription Family. Discretionary authority will only be authorized upon full disclosure to the Client. The granting of such authority will be evidenced by the Client’s execution of an agreement containing all applicable limitations to such authority. All discretionary trades made by Inscription Family will be in accordance with each Client’s investment objectives and goals.

VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

Inscription Family does not accept proxy-voting responsibility for any Client. Clients will receive proxy statements directly from the Custodian. The Advisor will assist in answering questions relating to proxies, however, the Client retains the sole responsibility for proxy decisions and voting.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Neither Inscription Family, nor its management, have any adverse financial situations that would reasonably impair the ability of Inscription Family to meet all obligations to its Clients. Neither Inscription Family, nor any of its Advisory Persons, have been subject to a bankruptcy or financial compromise. Inscription Family is not required to deliver a balance sheet along with this Disclosure Brochure as the Advisor does not collect advance fees of $1,200 or more for services to be performed six months or more in the future.
