Other Business Activities

Keats, Connelly and Associates, Inc.

Keats, Connelly and Associates, LLC ("KeatsConnelly") is a subsidiary of Keats, Connelly and Associates, Inc. ("Keats Connelly, Inc."). KeatsConnelly was formed and registered in 1/2009 as a new advisory firm and to transition Keats Connelly, Inc.'s advisory business to Keats, Connelly and Associates LLC (KeatsConnelly). The transition was accomplished in 2010, and Keats Connelly, Inc. was de-registered as a registered investment advisory firm with the SEC. Keats Connelly, Inc. continues to exist as the parent company of KeatsConnelly.

National Advisor Holdings, Inc.

Robert F. Keats of Keats Connelly, Inc. is a shareholder of National Advisor Holdings, Inc. ("NAH"), a Delaware corporation organized in August of 1999. He holds approximately 1.0%, in the aggregate, of the outstanding stock of NAH. NAH has chartered an institution through the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) known as National Advisers Trust Company ("NATC"). NATC provides trust services to clients of registered investment advisory firms, such as KeatsConnelly, across the United States. Robert F. Keats is a member of the NATC Board of Directors and their Audit Committee Chair receiving nominal compensation for his time.

Mr. Keats devotes substantially all his time and efforts to KeatsConnelly for services to its clients. Mr. Keats does receive compensation as a Board of Director and Audit Committee Chair for NATC. Mr. Keats is Founder, President and Director of the Keats Foundation, his own family foundation created to support family charitable giving, he receives no compensation for his services to this foundation. In addition, Mr. Keats has authored books relating to his expertise in cross border financial planning.

Because Robert Keats has an interest in NAH, and therefore indirectly has an interest in NATC, a small amount of the fees earned by NATC will accrue to the benefit of the principal and thus create a conflict of interest. However, clients of KeatsConnelly will be able to make their own determination as to whether to use trust services to be provided by NATC and may be able to choose to use another fiduciary and still retain KeatsConnelly to provide the investment advice to the client in the manner currently used.

Additional Compensation

Mr. Keats devotes substantially all his time and efforts to KeatsConnelly for services to its clients. Mr. Keats does receive compensation as a Board of Director and Audit Committee Chair for NATC. Mr. Keats is Founder, President and Director of the Keats Foundation, his own family foundation created to support family charitable giving, he receives no compensation for his services to this foundation. In addition, Mr. Keats has authored books relating to his expertise in cross border financial planning.

Supervision

As the sole principal of KeatsConnelly, Mr. Keats is responsible for all supervision, formulation and monitoring of advisory services offered to clients as well as the general direction and business strategy of the firm. Mr. Keats can be reached at 602-955-5007

Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Mr. Keats has never filed for bankruptcy or been involved with any arbitration hearings or proceedings by any civil, administrative or self-regulatory bodies.
