Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Fortune is a licensed insurance agent/broker. He may offer insurance products and receive customary fees as a result of insurance sales. A conflict of interest may arise as these insurance sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation earned. To mitigate this potential conflict, Mr. Fortune, as a fiduciary, will act in the client's best interest.

Mr. Fortune consults with clients of Monarch Tax Credits, LLC, with regards to informing and advising those clients on State and Federal Tax credits. Mr. Fortune may refer clients of Hamilton Capital Partners, LLC, to Monarch Tax Credits, LLC. This service is independent of our firm's financial planning, family office, and investment advisory services and is governed under a separate engagement agreement. Clients have the option of engaging Monarch Tax Credits, LLC with regards to State and Federal Tax Credits, however, they are under no obligation to do so.
