No related person of Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. has any other type of interest directly or indirectly with these broker-dealers. These licenses are held to provide the necessary services that clients might need, which would require a securities license. The clients are under no obligation to purchase or sell securities through these related persons.

Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. will let the client choose the broker-dealer where to open the investment advisory accounts.

Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. may recommend broker-dealers where they have arranged for fee-based accounts. Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. has arrangements with Portfolio Resources Group, Inc to provide brokerage and custodial services with their clearing services. Uniwealth Advisors, Inc or any related person will not receive any compensation directly or indirectly from these transactions or from any other cost or fees charged by the broker-dealer to the clients such as maintenance fees or custodial fees.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics

Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. has adopted a Code of Ethics for all supervised persons of the firm describing its high standard of business conduct, and fiduciary duty to its clients. The Code of Ethics includes provisions relating to the confidentiality of client information, a prohibition on insider trading, a prohibition of rumor mongering, restrictions on the acceptance of significant gifts and the reporting of certain gifts and business entertainment items, and personal securities trading procedures, among other things. All supervised persons at Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. must acknowledge the terms of the Code of Ethics annually, or as amended.

Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. anticipates that, in appropriate circumstances, consistent with clients' investment objectives, it will cause accounts over which Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. has management authority to effect, and will recommend to investment advisory clients or prospective clients, the purchase or sale of securities in which Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. its affiliates and/or clients, directly or indirectly, have a position of interest. Uniwealth Advisors, Inc.'s employees and persons associated with Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. are required to follow Uniwealth Advisors, Inc.'s Code of Ethics. Subject to satisfying this policy and applicable laws, officers, directors and employees of Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. and its affiliates may trade for their own accounts in securities which are recommended to and/or purchased for Uniwealth Advisors, Inc.'s clients. The Code of Ethics is designed to assure that the personal securities transactions, activities and interests of the employees of Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. will not interfere with (i) making decisions in the best interest of advisory clients and (ii) implementing such decisions while, at the same time, allowing employees to invest for their own accounts. Under the Code certain classes of securities have been designated as exempt transactions, based upon a determination that these would materially not interfere with the best interest of Uniwealth Advisors, Inc.'s clients. In addition, the Code requires pre-clearance of many transactions, and restricts trading in close proximity to clients trading activity. Nonetheless, because the Code of Ethics in some circumstances would permit employees to invest in the same securities as clients, there is a possibility that employees might benefit from market activity by a client in a security held by an employee. Employee trading is continually monitored under the Code of Ethics, and to reasonably prevent conflicts of interest between Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. and its clients.

Certain affiliated accounts may trade in the same securities with client accounts on an aggregated basis when consistent with Uniwealth Advisors, Inc.'s obligation of best execution. In such circumstances, the affiliated and client accounts will share commission costs equally and receive securities at a total average price. Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. will retain records of the trade order (specifying each participating account) and its allocation, which will be completed prior to the entry of the aggregated order. Completed orders will be allocated as specified in the initial trade order. Partially filled orders will be allocated on a pro rata basis. Any exceptions will be explained on the Order.

Uniwealth Advisors, Inc.'s clients or prospective clients may request a copy of the firm's Code of Ethics by contacting Mr. Stefano Fanfani.

It is Uniwealth Advisors, Inc.'s policy that the firm will not affect any principal or agency cross securities transactions for client accounts. Uniwealth Advisors, Inc. will not cross trades between client accounts. Principal transactions are generally defined as transactions where an adviser, acting as principal for its own account or the account of an affiliated broker-dealer, buys from or sells any security to any advisory client. A principal transaction may also be deemed to have occurred if a security is crossed between an affiliated hedge fund and another client account. An agency cross transaction is defined as a transaction where a person acts as an investment adviser in relation to a transaction in which the investment adviser, or any person controlled by or under common control with the investment adviser, acts as broker for both the advisory client and for another person on the other side of the transaction. Agency cross transactions may arise where an adviser is dually registered as a broker-dealer or has an affiliated broker-dealer.
