Item 4 - Services, Fees and Compensation

Relevant Wealth Advisors is a full-service investment adviser and brokerage firm offering comprehensive asset management services. Relevant Wealth Advisors is the sponsor and portfolio manager of the Strategic Asset Management Program, a wrap fee program that provides client with continuous investment advice based on their individual needs. This includes evaluating assets and obligations to determine the appropriate investment allocation necessary to realize the client's objectives. This can be done on either a discretionary or non-discretionary basis. Some of Relevant Wealth Advisors' advisory client(s) have accounts outside of the Strategic Asset Management Program. For disclosure relating to those accounts, please reference the Relevant Wealth Advisors' ADV Part 2A.

Clients invested in the Strategic Asset Management Program are charged a single, all-inclusive fee for portfolio management, brokerage, custodial, recordkeeping and other services associated with managing the account. Relevant Wealth Advisors, a registered broker and member of FINRA, also provides brokerage services to the Strategic Asset Management Program. Relevant Wealth

Advisors generally charges a flat percentage rate that ranges from 0.5% to 1.5%. Fees may be negotiable. Advisory fees are billed after the end of each quarter. Accounts opened between billing periods will be billed on a prorated amount based on the number of days the account was opened during that quarter. Accounts may be closed at anytime without penalty and will be billed through the closing date. Account closing fees may sometimes apply. All fees are paid to Relevant Wealth Advisors.

The single, all-inclusive fee for portfolio management, brokerage, custodial and recordkeeping services may cost the client more or less than the cost of purchasing these services separately. The primary factor affecting the comprehensive fee is the provision by Relevant Wealth Advisors of individualized investment advice and portfolio management services tailored to needs of each individual. Brokerage, custodial and recordkeeping fees also impact the amount of the comprehensive fee, but to a lesser extent. Advisory clients who open accounts outside of the wrap program pay separate fees for these services (advisory, brokerage, custodial and recordkeeping).

A small annual fee may also be charged by the account custodian of Individual Retirement Accounts and qualified plan accounts. This fee will be disclosed upon opening of the account. Additionally, postage may be charged for the mailing of confirmations. Clients who invest mutual funds will also pay mutual fund fees in addition to the comprehensive wrap fee. These mutual fund fees include portfolio management, brokerage, custodial and administrative fees that are paid by fund shareholders. Furthermore, Relevant Wealth Advisors places client funds into a money market fund. Clients invested in money market funds will incur additional fees that will be described in the prospectus.

Relevant Wealth Advisors, as the sponsor and portfolio manager of the Strategic Asset Management Program generally does not use outside portfolio managers and brokers. Relevant Wealth Advisors generally does not pay or receive any referral fees for client referrals. Relevant Wealth Advisors generally does not receive any sales commissions, 12b-1 fees or other fees from mutual funds and ETFs for investing such funds on behalf of advisory clients.

Item 5 - Account Requirements and Types of Clients

The minimum account size to participate in the Strategic Asset Management Program is $10,000,000. A traditional commission-based brokerage account may be more appropriate for smaller accounts. Under certain circumstances, the $10,000,000 minimum amount may be waived. Clients invested in the Strategic Asset Management Program include individuals, high net-worth individuals, trusts & estates, businesses, pension plans and charitable organizations.

Item 6 - Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation

A. Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation

February 10, 2021

Relevant Wealth Advisors is the portfolio manager of the Strategic Asset Management Program. Portfolio management services are provided to clients of the Strategic Asset Management Program by Bruce Raabe, President, Chief Executive Officer, Managing Member and Chief Investment Officer, and Justin Burt, Senior Portfolio Manager. Both Mr. Raabe and Mr. Burt are experienced portfolio managers, hold the Chartered Financial Analyst designation, are registered as General Securities Representatives, and hold undergraduate and/or advanced college degrees. Detailed information regarding Mr. Raabe's and Mr. Burt's experience, education, professional designations and other qualifications are provided in Form ADV, Part 2B.

Clients generally receive quarterly reports from Relevant Wealth Advisors, including performance results. These performance results are generated by Relevant Wealth Advisors using a third-party data aggregator who receives account feeds from the account custodian(s) directly. Performance calculations are in accordance with the Global Investment Performance Standards (GIPS), which are issued by the CFA Institute. Clients receive monthly or quarterly statements showing all account activity from an independent custodian. Performance calculations are reviewed by Mr. Raabe and Mr. Burt to ensure their accuracy.

Relevant Wealth Advisors recognizes that potential conflicts of interest may arise because its employees, Mr. Raabe and Mr. Burt, are the portfolio managers of the Strategic Asset Management Program. However, Relevant Wealth Advisors has addressed these issues by requiring that its ongoing evaluations of the portfolio managers' performance be based on objective criteria (e.g. standardized performance results and adherence to client determined guidelines). Relevant Wealth Advisors has also adopted a Code of Ethics, described in Item 9.C. below and Form ADV, Part 2A, requiring its employees to always act in the best interest of the firm's clients in accordance with the firm's high fiduciary standards. The Code of Ethics also prohibits all employees of Relevant Wealth Advisors from abusing confidential client information for their personal gain.

B. Description of Wrap Fee Program Services

Relevant Wealth Advisors provides investment advisory services to its wrap fee program clients and other advisory clients based on the individual needs of each client. Advisory services include consulting with each client about their financial needs and objectives; providing advice regarding investment strategy and asset allocation; selecting, purchasing, and selling securities for clients; monitoring securities; and providing appropriate reports as to asset holdings and valuation. Generally, Relevant Wealth Advisors develops a personalized investment policy for each client and creates and manages a portfolio based on that policy. Relevant Wealth Advisors also provides certain clients with wealth management services, which may include advice on personal assets, professional relationships, charitable giving, retirement plans, taxes, business succession, liability management, family giving and investment policy development.

Clients may impose restrictions on their investments upon request. These restrictions may include prohibitions or limits on individual securities, security types, asset classes, allocation, liquidity, credit quality, and income. Relevant Wealth Advisors, as a registered broker-dealer and member of the NYSE and FINRA, provides trade execution services to clients invested in the Strategic Asset Management Program. Brokerage clearing services are provided by RBC Correspondent & Advisor Services, an independent registered broker-dealer and member of the NYSE, FINRA, and SIPC.

The primary difference between wrap fee program clients and other advisory clients is that wrap fee clients pay a single, all-inclusive fee for portfolio management, trade execution, and custodial services. Clients who are not invested in the wrap fee program pay for these services separately. Clients invested in the wrap-fee program do not have the discretion to select their own broker.

C. Performance Based Fees and Side-by-Side Management

Relevant Wealth Advisors does not charge performance-based fees (fees based on a share of capital gains on or capital appreciation of the assets of a client). Relevant Wealth Advisors does not believe any material conflicts of interest exist between management of clients invested in the Strategic Asset Management Program and other advisory clients because each client portfolio is individually tailored to the unique needs and objectives of each client.

D. Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear.

Relevant Wealth Advisors' research focuses on fundamental analysis. This disciplined approach evaluates companies individually based on past and expected financial performance relative to the price of related security. Additionally, Relevant Wealth Advisors' portfolio managers may use technical, charting, and cyclical analysis to time the sale or purchase of investments. The main sources of information used for this analysis include annual reports, financial news services, research materials prepared by others and corporate rating services.

The primary investment strategy used to implement investment advice given to a client is to make long-term purchases (securities held for at least one year). However, based on the client's specific desires, short-term and margin transactions may also be a part of the investment strategy. Relevant Wealth Advisors offers advice on the following types of securities: (1) equities (exchange listed, over-the-counter and foreign issues); (2) warrants; (3) corporate debt securities; (4) municipal securities; (5) United States government securities; (6) options contracts on securities; (7) mutual funds and Exchange Traded Funds ("ETFs"), and (8) alternative investments.

E. Voting Client Securities (i.e., Proxy Voting)

Relevant Wealth Advisors may or may not have authority for voting client securities (proxy voting), depending on the terms of the applicable client's Investment Management Agreement. For those client accounts where Relevant Wealth Advisors has accepted proxy voting authority, Relevant Wealth Advisors will be responsible for the voting of all proxies related to securities held in those client accounts. Relevant Wealth Advisors uses a third-party proxy voting service, Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), to vote client proxies in accordance with its standard proxy voting guidelines.

February 10, 2021

Conflicts may arise when any employees have any financial, business or personal relationship with the issuer of a proxy proposal for a security held in a client's account. To avoid potential conflicts of interest, Relevant Wealth Advisors votes proxies in accordance with predetermined guidelines. In limited situations, we may consider voting under our own initiative for a particular issue, if we believe that it is in the best interest of the client. Before Relevant Wealth Advisors reclaims proxy voting authority from ISS, Relevant Wealth Advisors will determine and confirm that no potential conflict of interest exists.

Relevant Wealth Advisors maintains records in accordance with Rule 204 under the Advisers Act relating to proxy voting for securities in client accounts. Such records include:

- A copy of related policies and procedures;
- Proxy statements received regarding client securities, which were satisfied by relying on the third-party vendor contracted to provide voting services;
- A record of each vote cast, which the third-party vendor maintains on our behalf; and
- Each written client request for proxy voting records and any written response.

A client may obtain the following information by submitting a verbal request by calling the firm or a written request to the firm's mailing address:

- A copy of the Standard ISS Proxy Voting Manuals, which detail the policies and procedures for casting proxy votes; and
- Information about how the client's proxies were voted.

Item 7 - Client Information Provided to Portfolio Managers

All client information is provided to the portfolio managers of the Strategic Asset Management program. This information includes background information, investment objectives and guidelines, risk tolerance, restrictions on investments, and other information detailing each client's personal financial and investment needs and objectives.

Item 8 – Client Contact with Portfolio Managers

There are no restrictions on clients' ability to contact portfolio managers.

Item 9 – Additional Information

A. Disciplinary Information

February 10, 2021

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of Relevant Wealth Advisors or the integrity of Relevant Wealth Advisors' management. Relevant Wealth Advisors has no information applicable to this Item.

B. Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Relevant Wealth Advisors is a registered broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of FINRA. Bruce Raabe, President, Chief Executive Officer, and Managing Member, is registered as representative of Relevant Wealth Advisors as a broker-dealer agent, Investment Advisor Representative. Mr. Raabe may receive commissions in accordance with industry standards as compensation for providing brokerage services to advisory clients.

It is anticipated that Mr. Raabe will spend approximately 80% of his time on investment advisory activities and 20% of his time on broker-dealer activities. These estimates are expected to change from time to time.

Relevant Wealth Advisors' or Mr. Raabe's receipt of fees, commissions or other compensation for providing brokerage services may result in potential conflicts of interest with the fiduciary duty to act in the best interests of advisory clients. Relevant Wealth Advisors has addressed these potential conflicts of interest by recognizing its fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its advisory clients at all times, by providing advisory clients with written disclosure of potential conflicts of interest, and by adopting and implementing compliance policies and procedures and a Code of Ethics designed to ensure that Relevant Wealth Advisors acts in the best interests of its clients at all times.

C. Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Relevant Wealth Advisors has adopted a Code of Ethics for all supervised persons of the firm describing its high standard of business conduct and fiduciary duty to its clients. The Code of Ethics includes provisions that require employees to act in the best interests of clients at all times, prohibit employees and others from using confidential client information for their personal benefit, and require employees to submit at least quarterly reports of their personal securities transactions and holdings.

Relevant Wealth Advisors does not participate or have an interest in transactions of clients who participate in the wrap fee program. However, employees of Relevant Wealth Advisors may personally invest in securities owned by clients invested in the Strategic Asset Management Program. Employees' personal securities transactions are subject to Relevant Wealth Advisors' Code of Ethics, and such transactions are monitored by Relevant Wealth Advisors to ensure that employees' personal investment do not conflict with Relevant Wealth Advisors' fiduciary duty to always act in its clients' best interests. Relevant Wealth Advisors does not act in the capacity of a principal in executing advisory clients' securities transactions. Relevant Wealth Advisors also does not engage in cross-trades among advisory clients (e.g. causing one advisory client to buy or sell a security to or from another advisory client). Relevant Wealth Advisors' present policy is not to execute agency-cross transactions (e.g. Relevant Wealth Advisors acting as an investment advisor on behalf of one client to buy or sell a security while acting as the broker for the other party to the same transaction.)).

D. Review of Accounts

Client accounts are continually monitored. These reviews include a Portfolio Summary, a Performance Summary, and any other additional information necessary to accurately review the account. Reviews are conducted by the portfolio managers Mr. Raabe and Mr. Burt.

E. Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Relevant Wealth Advisors generally does not pay or receive client referral fees.

F. Financial Information

Registered investment advisers are required in this Item to provide you with certain financial information or disclosures regarding any financial conditions that may impair their ability to meet contractual commitments to clients. Relevant Wealth Advisors has no financial conditions that impairs its ability to meet contractual and fiduciary commitments to clients and has not been the subject of a bankruptcy proceeding.
