Item 2 – Material Changes

On July 28, 2010, the United State Securities and Exchange Commission published “Amendments to Form ADV” which amends the disclosure document that we provide to clients as required by SEC Rules. This Brochure originally dated March 31, 2011 is a new document prepared according to the SEC’s new requirements and rules. As such, this Document is materially different in structure and includes certain new information that our previous brochure did not include.

In the future, this Item will discuss only specific material changes that are made to the Brochure and provide clients with a summary of such changes. We will also reference the date of our last annual update of our brochure.

Annual Review & Update:

March 21, 2014; March 26, 2015; March 25, 2016; February 2, 2017; March 27, 2019;
March 30, 2020; March 22, 2021

In the past we have offered or delivered information about our qualifications and business practices to clients on at least an annual basis. Pursuant to new SEC Rules, we will ensure that you receive a summary of any materials changes to this and subsequent Brochures within 120 days of the close of our business’ fiscal year. We may further provide other ongoing disclosure information about material changes as necessary.

We will further provide you with a new Brochure as necessary based on changes or new information, at any time, without charge.

Currently, our Brochure is emailed to our clients along with their March 31 quarter end or second quarter end if off quarter, report invoice.

Additional information about Standard Valuations, Inc. is also available via the SEC’s web site www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 4 – Advisory Business

Standard Valuations, Inc. is an investment consulting and performance measurement company owned by Clarence Dean Derby and Shari Corkrum Derby.

Standard Valuations has provided statistical return data and comparative data to trustees of pension funds and other institutional clients since 1975. Our investment consulting services do not include management of any client accounts or any specific securities recommendations.

Standard Valuations provides other services, including assisting with manager selection, assisting with the drafting and implementation of investment policy statements, assisting clients with the development and monitoring of asset allocation strategies, preparing search criteria and conducting performance monitoring.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

Standard Valuations receives its compensation in the form of quarterly fees payable after delivery of quarterly statistical analysis reports. The fees are billed to clients as opposed to being drawn automatically from their custodial accounts. Fixed fees are negotiated based on, but not limited to, the scope of accountabilities, size of the fund, complexity of the investment guidelines and other factors. Standard Valuations advisory fees are fully disclosed in the client contract executed by each client; copies of which are retained by each party. Fee refunds due at termination are not specifically covered in the client contract or Form ADV due to the fact that fees are only billed and collected for services in arrears, after completed delivery of contracted services.

Standard Valuations does not provide investment management, custodial, or securities trading services. Thus, the client will contract separately for those services and will incur separate fees for those service.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Standard Valuations does not enter into agreements that provide for performance-based fees.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

Standard Valuations provides investment consulting and performance measurement services to corporate pension and profit-sharing plans, Taft-Hartley multiemployer plans, charitable institutions, foundations, endowments, and certain state and municipal government entities.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Standard Valuations investment consulting services do not include management of any client accounts or any specific securities recommendations.

Standard Valuations uses the data gathered in its statistical performance monitoring service to advise trustees in their selection of investment managers. The data Standard Valuations gathers includes information on financial matters and indexes from financial institutions, financial publications and independent financial data collections services.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of Standard Valuations or the integrity of Standard Valuations' management. Standard Valuations has no information to disclose in this regard.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Standard Valuations business is wholly independent. Standard Valuations has no material relationships with any other parties which would create a material conflict of interest with a client of Standard Valuations..

Item 11 – Code of Ethics

Standard Valuations has adopted a Code of Ethics for all supervised persons of the firm describing its high standard of business conduct, and fiduciary duty to its clients. The Code of Ethics includes provisions relating to the confidentiality of client information, a prohibition on insider trading, a prohibition of rumor mongering, restrictions on the acceptance of significant gifts and the reporting of certain gifts and business entertainment items, and personal securities trading procedures, among other things. All supervised persons at Standard Valuations must acknowledge the terms of the Code of Ethics annually, or as amended. A written copy of this Code of Ethics is available upon request.

This code of ethics is intended to reflect fiduciary principals that govern the conduct of Standard Valuations and its employees in those situations where Standard Valuations would act as an investment advisor as defined under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 in providing investment advice to clients.

Standard Valuations, Inc. employees with respect to Section 204A-1 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940:

1-Will not use or share any non-public information they may have acquired due to their positions at Standard Valuations, Inc.

2-If Standard Valuations, Inc. ever managed investments, employees would be required to submit personal holdings reports pursuant to the reporting requirements of the newly adopted rule 204A-1 Investment Advisers Code of Ethics.

3-Standard Valuations, Inc. employees shall not give or receive gifts of greater than nominal value.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices
