Other Business Activities

In addition to being an Investment Advisor Representative (hereafter "IA Rep") of WesBanco Securities, Inc. (Hereafter "WSI Advisor"), Mr. Starcher is licensed as an insurance agent.

Mr. Starcher may make recommendations on insurance products and may sell those recommended insurance products to advisory clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Mr. Starcher may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. WSI Advisor requires that Mr. Starcher disclose this conflict of interest when such recommendations are made. Also, WSI Advisor requires Mr. Starcher to disclose that advisory clients may purchase recommended insurance products from other insurance agents not affiliated with WSI Advisor.

Additional Compensation

Aside from the sales commissions paid by insurance companies to Mr. Starcher (see the "Other Business Activities" section above), Mr. Starcher does not receive any additional compensation from non-clients for providing advisory services. All advisory compensation is paid by clients directly.

Supervision

All activities of Mr. Starcher as an IA Rep are reviewed by the Principals of the firm. Financial plan recommendations are reviewed by the Principal(s) before the plan is completed. For portfolio management recommendations, the Principal(s) review all recommended transactions at the end of each day. The Principal(s) review account documentation and activity periodically in addition to the quarterly calculation of advisory fees. Advisory clients may contact WSI Principals directly:

Requirements for State-Registered Advisors

WSI Advisor would be required to disclose additional information for Mr. Starcher if either had ever been the subject of a bankruptcy petition or even been found liable in either: (a) an arbitration; or (b) a civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding. As none of these apply, WSI Advisor has no information to disclose in this regard. WSI is SEC registered, therefore, this does not apply.
