Item 3. Disciplinary Information

Without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Order, on March 8, 2013 advisory affiliate Donald W. Phillips (“Phillips”) consented to the entry of a settled administrative proceeding filed by the Securities and Exchange Commission, naming Ranieri Partners LLC (“Ranieri Partners”) and Mr. Phillips, formerly a senior official of Ranieri Partners, as respondents. The Order alleged that William M. Stephens (“Stephens”), an independent consultant working for, and soliciting investors on behalf of, Ranieri Partners, violated applicable regulation by failing to register as a broker or dealer. Ranieri Partners and Mr. Phillips, the Order alleged, provided materials to Stephens, or did not take adequate steps to prevent Stephens from having substantive contacts with potential investors in Ranieri Partners’ funds. As a result, Ranieri Partners was alleged to have caused, and Mr. Phillips was alleged to have caused and aided and abetted, Stephens’ violations. Mr. Phillips consented to the imposition of sanctions consisting of suspension from association with a regulated entity in a supervisory capacity for a period of nine (9) months, payment of a $75,000 civil monetary penalty, and a cease and desist order. The Order contained no allegations of client harm or loss, and WP Global was not a party to the proceeding.

Item 4. Other Business Activities

Mr. Phillips is a member of WP Management Equity LLC (“WP Management”). WP Management is the vehicle through which its members, including Mr. Phillips, own the majority of the voting stock of WP Global.
