Confidential Planning I, LLC

Confidential Planning I, LLC is a registered investment advisory firm focused on bringing single provider 403(b) retirement plans to educators and employees of schools, hospitals and not-for-profit (501c) organizations. The IARs may offer Plan Sponsors with customized investment advisory services, diversified investment menus, consulting, reporting, and participant educational programs.

Retirement Services Program

The Retirement Services program offer IARs two options of assisting Plan Sponsors with some or all of the following; customized investment advisory services, diversified investment menus, consulting and reporting, and participant educational programs.

Investment Advisory Services

Confidential Planning I, LLC has a relationship with Benefit Plans Administrators in Utica, NY and PenServ Plan Services in West Columbia, SC, to provide recordkeeping services and third-party-administration services. Through the SmartChoice and MultiChoice programs, the IAR provides investment advisory service and assists Plan Sponsors with developing a customized investment plan to fit the needs of individual plan participants. Confidential Planning I, LLC and the IAR may use a variety of mutual fund company shares (including no-load and load-waived mutual funds). Each plan will consist of a diversified mix of investment options to assist plan participants of the plan in meeting their individual needs. The mix and weightings of investments will be based on the available plan options and each plan participant's risk profile, investment objectives, and individual preferences. Each plan and plan participants will have the opportunity to meet with the IAR at periodic educational sessions and the plan will have the opportunity to review the assets in the plan periodically with the IAR. Plan participants will have the ability to either generate online account statements through the TPA's website, or receive account statements from the recordkeeping agent, showing account activity, positions, and asset values held in the account no less frequently than quarterly. Additionally, participants can make changes to their investment allocation on an ad-hoc basis, in accordance with the terms of the respective plan documents. The assets of each plan account will be held at a qualified custodian.

Minimum Account Size

There is no minimum account size requirement.

Statement of General Policy

This Code of Ethics ("Code") has been adopted by Confidential Planning I, LLC and is designed to comply with Rule 204A-1 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act").

This Code establishes rules of conduct for all employees of Confidential Planning I, LLC and is designed to, among other things; govern personal securities trading activities in the accounts of employees, immediate family/household accounts and accounts in which an employee has a beneficial interest. The Code is based upon the principle that Confidential Planning I, LLC and its employees owe a fiduciary duty to Confidential Planning I, LLC's clients to conduct their affairs, including their personal securities transactions, in such a manner as to avoid (i) serving their own personal interests ahead of clients, (ii) taking inappropriate advantage of their position with the firm and (iii) any actual or potential conflicts of interest or any abuse of their position of trust and responsibility.

The Code is designed to ensure that the high ethical standards long maintained by Confidential Planning I, LLC continue to be applied. The purpose of the Code is to preclude activities which may lead to or give the appearance of conflicts of interest, insider trading and other forms of prohibited or unethical business conduct. This is especially important given affiliations with other Investment Advisors and the Broker-Dealer within the "Pinnacle Family of Companies". The excellent name and reputation of our firm continues to be a direct reflection of the conduct of each employee.

Pursuant to Section 206 of the Advisers Act, both Confidential Planning I, LLC and its employees are prohibited from engaging in fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative conduct. Compliance with this section involves more than acting with honesty and good faith alone. It means that the Confidential Planning I, LLC has an affirmative duty of utmost good faith to act solely in the best interest of its clients.

Confidential Planning I, LLC and its employees are subject to the following specific fiduciary obligations when dealing with clients:

- The duty to have a reasonable, independent basis for the investment advice provided;
- The duty to obtain best execution for a client's transactions where the Firm is in a position to direct brokerage transactions for the client;
- The duty to ensure that investment advice is suitable to meeting the client's individual objectives, needs and circumstances; and
- A duty to be loyal to clients.

In meeting its fiduciary responsibilities to its clients, Confidential Planning I, LLC expects every employee to demonstrate the highest standards of ethical conduct for continued employment with Confidential Planning I, LLC. Strict compliance with the provisions of the Code shall be considered a basic condition of employment with Confidential Planning I, LLC. Confidential Planning I, LLC's reputation for fair and honest dealing with its clients has taken considerable time to build. This standing could be seriously damaged as the result of even a single securities transaction being considered questionable in light of the fiduciary duty owed to our clients. Employees are urged to seek the advice of the firm's Chief Compliance Officer for any questions about the Code or the application of the Code to their individual circumstances. Employees should also understand that a material breach of the provisions of the Code may constitute grounds for disciplinary action, including termination of employment with Confidential Planning I, LLC.

The provisions of the Code are not all-inclusive. Rather, they are intended as a guide for employees of Confidential Planning I, LLC in their conduct. In those situations where an employee may be uncertain as to the intent or purpose of the Code, he/she is advised to consult with the firm's Chief Compliance Officer who may grant exceptions to certain provisions contained in the Code only in those situations when it is clear beyond dispute that the interests of our clients will not be adversely affected or compromised. All questions arising in connection with personal securities trading should be resolved in favor of the client even at the expense of the interests of employees.

The firm's Chief Compliance Officer will as necessary report to senior management/board of directors of Confidential Planning I, LLC to document compliance with this Code.

PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS

It is the expressed policy of Confidential Planning I, LLC that no person employed by Confidential Planning I, LLC may participate or have interest in client transactions.
