Item 4 - Advisory Business

General Information

Core Wealth Advisors, Inc. ("Core Wealth Advisors") was formed in 2013, (registered as an investment adviser in 2015), and provides financial planning, wealth management, and tax planning services to our clients.

Charles Foss is the principal owner of Core Wealth Advisors. Please see Brochure Supplements, Exhibit A, for more information on this principal owner and other individuals who formulate investment advice and have direct contact with clients, or have discretionary authority over client accounts.

As of December 31, 2020, Core Wealth Advisors managed $324,690,088 on a discretionary basis, and $132,585 of assets on a non-discretionary basis.

SERVICES PROVIDED

At the outset of each client relationship, we spend time with you, asking questions, discussing your investment experience and financial circumstances, and broadly identifying your major goals.

You may elect to retain Core Wealth Advisors to prepare a full financial plan as described below. This written report is presented to you for consideration. In most cases, clients subsequently retain us to manage their investment portfolio on an ongoing basis.

For those financial planning clients making this election, and for other clients who do not need financial planning but retain us for wealth management services, based on all the information initially gathered, Core Wealth Advisors generally develops:

- a financial outline for you based on your financial circumstances and goals, and your risk tolerance level (the "Financial Profile" or "Profile"); and
- your investment objectives and guidelines (the "Investment Plan" or "Plan").

The Financial Profile is a reflection of your current financial picture and a look to your future goals. The Investment Plan outlines the types of investments Core Wealth Advisors will make on your behalf to meet those goals. The Profile and the Plan are discussed regularly with you, but are not necessarily written documents.

With respect to any account for which we meet the definition of a fiduciary under Department Of Labor rules, we acknowledge that both Core Wealth Advisors and its Related Persons are acting as fiduciaries. Additional disclosure may be found elsewhere in this Brochure or in the written agreement between you and Core Wealth Advisors.

Financial Planning

One of the services we offer is financial planning, described below. This service may be provided as a stand-alone service, or may be coupled with ongoing portfolio management.

Financial planning generally includes advice that addresses one or more areas of your financial situation, such as estate planning, risk management, budgeting and cash flow controls, retirement planning, education funding, and investment portfolio design. Depending on your particular situation, financial planning may include some or all of the following:

- Gathering factual information concerning your personal and financial situation;
- Assisting you in establishing financial goals and objectives;
- Analyzing your present situation and anticipated future activities in light of your financial goals and objectives;
- Identifying problems foreseen in the accomplishment of these financial goals and objectives and offering alternative solutions to the problems;
- Making recommendations to help achieve retirement plan goals and objectives;
- Designing an investment portfolio to help meet your goals and objectives;
- Providing estate planning;
- Assessing risk and reviewing basic health, life and disability insurance needs; or
- Reviewing goals and objectives and measuring progress toward these goals.

Once financial planning advice is given, you may choose to have us implement your financial plan and manage your investment portfolio on an ongoing basis. However, you are under no obligation to act upon any of the recommendations made by us under a financial planning engagement and/or to engage the services of any recommended professional.

Wealth Management

As described above, at the beginning of a client relationship, we meet with you, gather information, and perform research and analysis as necessary to develop your Investment Plan. The Investment Plan will be updated from time to time when requested by you, or when determined to be necessary or advisable by us based on changes to your financial or other circumstances.

To implement your Investment Plan, we will manage your investment portfolio on a discretionary basis. As a discretionary investment adviser, we will have the authority to supervise and direct your portfolio without prior consultation with you.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may impose certain written restrictions on us in the management of your investment portfolio, such as prohibiting the inclusion of certain types of investments in an investment portfolio or prohibiting the sale of certain investments held in the account at the commencement of the relationship. You should note, however, that restrictions imposed by you may adversely affect the composition and performance of your investment portfolio. You should also note that your investment portfolio is treated individually by giving consideration to each purchase or sale for your account. For these and other reasons, performance of your investment portfolio within the same investment objectives, goals and/or risk tolerance may differ and you should not expect that the composition or performance of your investment portfolio would necessarily be consistent with similar clients of ours.

Separate Account Managers

When appropriate and in accordance with the Investment Plan for you, we may recommend the use of one or more Separate Account Managers, each a "Manager". Having access to various Managers offers a wide variety of manager styles, and offers clients the opportunity to utilize more than one Manager if necessary to meet the needs and investment objectives of the client. We will select or recommend the Manager(s) we deem most appropriate for you. Factors that we consider in recommending/selecting Managers generally include your stated investment objective(s), management style, performance, risk level, reputation, financial strength, reporting, pricing, and research.

The Manager(s) will generally be granted discretionary trading authority to provide investment supervisory services for your portfolio. Under certain circumstances, Core Wealth Advisors retains the authority to terminate the Manager's relationship or to add new Managers. In other cases, you will ultimately select one or more Managers recommended by us. Fees paid to such Manager(s) are separate from and in addition to the fee assessed by us.

In any case, with respect to assets managed by a Manager, our role will be to monitor your overall financial situation to monitor the investment approach and performance of the Manager(s), and to assist you in understanding the investments of your portfolio.

Tax Planning and Preparation

In addition to the foregoing services, we may provide tax planning and annual tax preparation services to you. The fees for tax-related services will be individually negotiated with you at the time of engagement for the applicable project.

Item 5 - Fees and Compensation

General Fee Information

Fees paid to us are exclusive of all custodial and transaction costs paid to your custodian, brokers or other third party consultants. Please see Item 12 – Brokerage Practices for additional information. Fees paid to us are also separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds, ETFs (exchange traded funds) or other investment pools to their shareholders (generally including a management fee and fund expenses, as described in each fund's prospectus or offering materials). You should review all fees charged by funds, brokers, Core Wealth Advisors and others to fully understand the total amount of fees paid by you for investment and financial-related services.

Financial Planning Fees

When we provide stand-alone financial planning services to you, these fees are negotiated at the time of the engagement for such services and are normally an hourly fee based on the scope of the engagement.

Wealth Management Fees

The standard annual fee schedule, based on a percentage of assets under management, is 1.50%. There is no minimum annual fee for any account. We may, at our discretion, make exceptions to the foregoing or negotiate special fee arrangements where we deem it appropriate under the circumstances.

Portfolio management fees are generally payable quarterly, in advance and are calculated based on the value of your portfolio on the last day of the prior quarter. Fees are rounded up or down to the nearest dollar, and are prorated for cash flows in excess of $10,000 (in or out of the portfolio) occurring the prior quarter. If management begins after the start of a quarter, fees will be prorated accordingly. With your authorization, unless other arrangements are made fees are normally debited directly from your account(s).

Either you or Core Wealth Advisors may terminate your Investment Management Agreement at any time, subject to any written notice requirements in the agreement. In the event of termination, any paid but unearned fees will be promptly refunded to you based on the number of days that the account was managed, and any fees due to us from you will be invoiced or deducted from your account prior to termination.

Separate Account Manager Fees

In instances where the services of a Separate Account Manager are utilized, the Separate Account Manager fees will be charged in addition to our fee, and will be detailed in the Management Agreement signed by you.

Tax Planning Fees

When we provide tax planning services to you, these services are generally separate from our financial planning and wealth management services. Fees for tax planning are negotiated at the time of the engagement for such services, and are normally based on an hourly or fixed fee basis.

Item 6 - Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

We do not have any performance-based fee arrangements. "Side by Side Management" refers to a situation in which the same firm manages accounts that are billed based on a percentage of assets under management and at the same time manages other accounts for which fees are assessed on a performance fee basis. Because we have no performance-based fee accounts, we have no side-by-side management.

Item 7 - Types of Clients

We serve individuals, high net worth individuals, corporations, and charitable organizations. We do not generally impose a minimum portfolio value for conventional investment advisory services or a minimum fee.

Item 8 - Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Methods of Analysis

In accordance with the Investment Plan, we will primarily invest in ETFs, individual bonds, and mutual funds. Individual stocks will only be included in the portfolio if they are transferred in and being held for tax purposes or at your request.

Mutual funds and ETFs are generally evaluated and selected based on a variety of factors, including, as applicable and without limitation, past performance, fee structure, portfolio manager, fund sponsor, overall ratings for safety and returns, and other factors.

Fixed income investments may be used as a strategic investment, as an instrument to fulfill liquidity or income needs in a portfolio, or to add a component of capital preservation. We will generally evaluate and select individual bonds or bond funds based on a number of factors including, without limitation, rating, yield and duration.

Investment Strategies:

Our strategic approach is to invest your portfolio in accordance with the Plan that has been developed specifically for you. This means that the following strategies may be used in varying combinations over time for you, depending upon your individual circumstances.

Long Term Purchases – securities purchased with the expectation that the value of those securities will grow over a relatively long period of time, generally greater than one year.

Short Term Purchases – securities purchased with the expectation that they will be sold within a relatively short period of time, generally less than one year, to take advantage of the securities' short term price fluctuations.

Risk of Loss

While we seek to diversify your investment portfolio across various asset classes consistent with your Investment Plans in an effort to reduce risk of loss, all investment portfolios are subject to risks. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that your investment portfolio will be able to fully meet your investment objectives and goals, or that investments will not lose money.

Below is a description of several of the principal risks that your investment portfolio faces.

Management Risks. While we manage your investment portfolio, or recommend one or more Managers, based on our experience, research and proprietary methods, the value of your investment portfolio will change daily based on the performance of the underlying securities in which they are invested. Accordingly, your investment portfolio is subject to the risk that we or a Manager allocate your assets to individual securities and/or asset classes that are adversely affected by unanticipated market movements, and the risk that our specific investment choices could underperform their relevant indexes.

Risks of Investments in Mutual Funds, ETFs and Other Investment Pools. As described above, we or a Manager(s) may invest your portfolio in mutual funds, ETFs and other investment pools ("pooled investment funds"). Investments in pooled investment funds are generally less risky than investing in individual securities because of their diversified portfolios; however, these investments are still subject to risks associated with the markets in which they invest. In addition, pooled investment funds' success will be related to the skills of their particular managers and their performance in managing their funds. Pooled investment funds are also subject to risks due to regulatory restrictions applicable to registered investment companies under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Equity Market Risks. We and any Manager(s) will generally invest portions of your assets directly into equity investments that invest in the stock market. As noted above, while pooled investments have diversified portfolios that may make them less risky than investments in individual securities, funds that invest in stocks and other equity securities are nevertheless subject to the risks of the stock market. These risks include, without limitation, the risks that stock values will decline due to daily fluctuations in the markets, and that stock values will decline over longer periods (e.g., bear markets) due to general market declines in the stock prices for all companies, regardless of any individual security's prospects.

Fixed Income Risks. We and any Manager(s) may invest portions of your assets directly into fixed income instruments, such as bonds and notes, or may invest in pooled investment funds that invest in bonds and notes. While investing in fixed income instruments, either directly or through pooled investment funds, is generally less volatile than investing in stock (equity) markets, fixed income investments nevertheless are subject to risks. These risks include, without limitation, interest rate risks (risks that changes in interest rates will devalue the investments), credit risks (risks of default by borrowers), or maturity risk (risks that bonds or notes will change value from the time of issuance to maturity).

Foreign Securities Risks. We and any Manager(s) may invest portions of your assets into pooled investment funds that invest internationally. While foreign investments are important to the diversification of your investment portfolio, they carry risks that may be different from U.S. investments. For example, foreign investments may not be subject to uniform audit, financial reporting or disclosure standards, practices or requirements comparable to those found in the U.S. Foreign investments are also subject to foreign withholding taxes and the risk of adverse changes in investment or exchange control regulations. Finally, foreign investments may involve currency risk, which is the risk that the value of the foreign security will decrease due to changes in the relative value of the U.S. dollar and the security's underlying foreign currency.

Item 9 - Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of Core Wealth Advisors or the integrity of our management. We have no disciplinary events to report.

Item 10 - Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Neither Core Wealth Advisors nor its Management Persons have any other financial industry activities or affiliations to report.

Item 11 - Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Code of Ethics and Personal Trading

We have adopted a Code of Ethics ("the Code"), the full text of which is available to you upon request. Our Code has several goals. First, the Code is designed to assist us in complying with applicable laws and regulations governing its investment advisory business. Under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, we owe fiduciary duties to our clients. Pursuant to these fiduciary duties, the Code requires persons associated with us (managers, officers and employees) to act with honesty, good faith and fair dealing in working with clients. In addition, the Code prohibits such associated persons from trading or otherwise acting on insider information.

Next, the Code sets forth guidelines for professional standards for our associated persons. Under the Code's Professional Standards, we expect our associated persons to put the interests of our clients first, ahead of personal interests. In this regard, our associated persons are not to take inappropriate advantage of their positions in relation to our clients.

Third, the Code sets forth policies and procedures to monitor and review the personal trading activities of associated persons. From time to time our associated persons may invest in the same securities recommended to you. Under our Code, we have adopted procedures designed to reduce or eliminate conflicts of interest that this could potentially cause. The Code's personal trading policies include procedures for limitations on personal securities transactions of associated persons, reporting and review of such trading [and pre-clearance of certain types of personal trading activities]. These policies are designed to discourage and prohibit personal trading that would disadvantage clients. The Code also provides for disciplinary action as appropriate for violations.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

As outlined above, we have adopted procedures to protect client interests when our associated persons invest in the same securities as those selected for or recommended to clients. In the event of any identified potential trading conflicts of interest, our goal is to place client interests first.

Consistent with the foregoing, we maintain policies regarding participation in initial public offerings (“IPOs”) and private placements to comply with applicable laws and avoid conflicts with client transactions. If our associated person wishes to participate in an IPO or invest in a private placement, he or she must submit a pre-clearance request and obtain the approval of the Chief Compliance Officer.

Finally, if associated persons trade with client accounts (i.e., in a bundled or aggregated trade), and the trade is not filled in its entirety, the associated person’s shares will be removed from the block, and the balance of shares will be allocated among client accounts in accordance with our written policy.

Item 12 - Brokerage Practices

Best Execution and Benefits of Brokerage Selection

When given discretion to select the brokerage firm that will execute orders in your account, we seek “best execution” for client trades, which is a combination of a number of factors, including, without limitation, quality of execution, services provided and commission rates. Therefore, we may use or recommend the use of brokers who do not charge the lowest available commission in the recognition of research and securities transaction services, or quality of execution. Research services received with transactions may include proprietary or third party research (or any combination), and may be used in servicing any or all of our clients. Therefore, research services received may not be used for the account for which the particular transaction was effected.

We participate in the Fidelity Institutional Wealth Services (“FIWS”) program. While there is no direct link between the investment advice we provide and participation in the FIWS program, we receive certain economic benefits from the FIWS program. These benefits may include software and other technology that provides access to client account data (such as trade confirmations and account statements), facilitates trade execution (and allocation of aggregated orders for multiple client accounts), provides research, pricing information and other market data, facilitates the payment of our fees from our clients’ accounts, and assists with back-office functions, recordkeeping and client reporting. Many of these services may be used to service all or a substantial number of our accounts, including accounts not held at Fidelity. Fidelity may also make available to us other services intended to help us manage and further develop our business. These services may include consulting, publications and conferences on practice management, information technology, business succession, regulatory compliance and marketing. In addition, Fidelity may make available, arrange and/or pay for these types of services to be rendered to us by independent third parties. Fidelity may discount or waive fees it would otherwise charge for some of these services, pay all or a part of the fees of a third-party providing these services to us, and/or Fidelity may pay for travel expenses relating to participation in such training. Finally, participation in the FIWS program provides us with access to mutual funds which normally require significantly higher minimum initial investments or are normally available only to institutional investors.

The benefits received through participation in the FIWS program do not necessarily depend upon the proportion of transactions directed to Fidelity. The benefits are received by us, in part because of commission revenue generated for Fidelity by our clients. This means that the investment activity in client accounts is beneficial to Core Wealth Advisors, because Fidelity does not assess a fee to us for these services. This creates an incentive for us to continue to recommend Fidelity to our clients. While it may be possible to obtain similar custodial, execution and other services elsewhere at a lower cost, we believe that Fidelity provides an excellent combination of these services. These services are not soft dollar arrangements, but are part of the institutional platform offered by Fidelity.

For our clients' accounts that Fidelity maintains, Fidelity generally does not charge you separately for custody services but is compensated by charging you commissions or other fees on trades that it executes or that settle into your Fidelity account. Certain trades may not incur Fidelity commissions or transaction fees. Fidelity is also compensated by earning interest on the uninvested cash in your account.

Directed Brokerage

We do not generally allow directed brokerage accounts.

Aggregated Trade Policy

We may enter trades as a block where possible and when advantageous to clients whose accounts have a need to buy or sell shares of the same security. This method permits the trading of aggregate blocks of securities composed of assets from multiple client accounts. It allows us to execute trades in a timely, equitable manner, and may reduce overall costs to clients

We will only aggregate transactions when we believe that aggregation is consistent with our duty to seek best execution (which includes the duty to seek best price) for our clients, and is consistent with the terms of our Investment Advisory Agreement with each client for which trades are being aggregated. No advisory client will be favored over any other client; each client that participates in an aggregated order will participate at the average share price for all Core Wealth Advisors' transactions in a given security on a given business day. Transaction costs for participating accounts will be assessed at the custodian's commission rate applicable to each account; therefore, transaction costs may vary among accounts. Accounts may be excluded from a block due to tax considerations, client direction or other factors making the account's participation ineligible or impractical.

We will prepare, before entering an aggregated order, a written statement ("Allocation Statement") specifying the participating client accounts and how it intends to allocate the order among those clients. If the aggregated order is filled in its entirety, it will be allocated among clients in accordance with the Allocation Statement. If the order is partially filled, it will generally be allocated pro-rata, based on the Allocation Statement, or randomly in certain circumstances. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the order may be allocated on a basis different from that specified in the Allocation Statement if all client accounts receive fair and equitable treatment, and the reason for different allocation is explained in writing and is approved by an appropriate individual/officer of Core Wealth Advisors. Our books and records will separately reflect, for each client account included in a block trade, the securities held by and bought and sold for that account. Funds and securities of clients whose orders are aggregated will be deposited with one or more banks or broker-dealers, and neither the clients' cash nor their securities will be held collectively any longer than is necessary to settle the transaction on a delivery versus payment basis; cash or securities held collectively for clients will be delivered out to the custodian bank or broker-dealer as soon as practicable following the settlement, and we will receive no additional compensation or remuneration of any kind as a result of the proposed aggregation.

Cross Trades

From time to time, we may direct a "cross trade" of securities (including, without limitation, fixed income securities) between client accounts, whereby we arrange for one client account to purchase a security directly from another client. In such cases, we will seek to obtain a price for the security from one or more independent sources. We are not a broker-dealer and receive no compensation from a cross trade; however, the broker-dealer facilitating the cross trade normally charges administrative fees to the clients' accounts.

We may direct a cross trade when we believe that the transaction is in the best interest of the clients, that no client will be disfavored by the transaction, and that the transaction is consistent with our duty to seek best execution.

Item 13 - Review of Accounts

Managed portfolios are reviewed at least quarterly, but may be reviewed more often if requested by you, upon receipt of information material to the management of your portfolio, or at any time such review is deemed necessary or advisable by us. These factors generally include, but are not limited to, the following: change in your general circumstances (marriage, divorce, retirement); or economic, political or market conditions. All accounts will be reviewed by the investment committee.

For those clients to whom we provide separate financial planning and/or consulting services, reviews are conducted on an as needed or agreed upon basis. Such reviews are conducted by one of our investment adviser representatives or principals.

Account custodians are responsible for providing monthly or quarterly account statements which reflect the positions (and current pricing) in each account as well as transactions in each account, including fees paid from an account. Account custodians also provide prompt confirmation of all trading activity, and year-end tax statements, such as 1099 forms. We will provide additional written reports as needed or requested by you.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

As noted above, we receive an economic benefit from Fidelity in the form of support products and services it makes available to Core Wealth Advisors and other independent investment advisors whose clients maintain accounts at Fidelity. These products and services, how they benefit our firm, and the related conflicts of interest are described in Item 12 - Brokerage Practices. The availability of Fidelity's products and services to us is based solely on our participation in the programs and not on the provision of any particular investment advice. Neither Fidelity nor any other party is paid to refer clients to us.

Item 15 - Custody

Fidelity is the custodian of nearly all client accounts at Core Wealth Advisors. From time to time however, you may select an alternate broker to hold accounts in custody. In any case, it is the custodian's responsibility to provide you with confirmations of trading activity, tax forms and at least quarterly account statements. You are advised to review this information carefully, and to notify us of any questions or concerns. You are also asked to promptly notify us if the custodian fails to provide statements on each account held.

From time to time and in accordance with our agreement with clients, we will provide additional reports. The account balances reflected on these reports should be compared to the balances shown on the brokerage statements to ensure accuracy. At times there may be small differences due to the timing of dividend reporting, pending trades or other similar issues.

Item 16 - Investment Discretion

As described above under Item 4 - Advisory Business, we manage portfolios on a discretionary basis. This means that after an Investment Plan is developed for your investment portfolio, we will execute that plan without specific consent from you for each transaction. For discretionary accounts, a Limited Power of Attorney ("LPOA") is executed by you, giving us the authority to carry out various activities in the account, generally including the following: trade execution; the ability to request checks on your behalf; and, the withdrawal of advisory fees directly from your account. We then direct investment of your portfolio using our discretionary authority. You may limit the terms of the LPOA to the extent consistent with your investment advisory agreement with us and the requirements of your custodian. The discretionary relationship is further described in the agreement between you and Core Wealth Advisors.

Item 17 - Voting Client Securities

As a policy and in accordance with our client agreement, we do not vote proxies related to securities held in client accounts. The custodian of the account will normally provide proxy materials directly to you. You may contact us with questions relating to proxy procedures and proposals; however, we generally do not research particular proxy proposals.

Item 18 - Financial Information

We do not require nor solicit prepayment of more than $1,200 in fees per client, six months or more in advance, and therefore have no disclosure with respect to this item.

Based upon the potential for long-term economic uncertainty, in April 2020, Core Wealth received funding from the US Small Business Administration as part of the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP").
