Education and Background Experience

Item 2 Max Kamp born 1954, has been in the financial services industry since 1977 and is the founder, CEO and President of Continental Investors Services, Inc. He graduated from Mark Morris High School in 1972 and joined Interpacific Investors Services, Inc. in 1977. In 1991 he founded Continental Investors Services, Inc. with other shareholders and he has continued to provide financial services since that time.

Disciplinary Information

Item 3 There are no disciplinary or legal issues to disclose that specifically relate to Max Kamp. However, as a shareholder and President of Continental since 1991, he has been involved in three issues that occurred with Continental's broker-dealer ("BD"). In September of 2003 the BD paid a $500 civil penalty for executing a trade in the State of New Mexico prior to the firm being licensed in New Mexico. The BD also completed a rescission offer for the customer.

In November 2003 the BD paid a $5,000 fine, without admitting or denying the allegations or findings for failure to report specific trades on municipal securities within 75 minutes after execution.

In August 2011 the BD paid a $35,000 fine without admitting or denying the allegations or findings, for fair pricing of municipal securities. If you would like further information, please call (360) 423-5110.

Other Business Activities

Item 4 Max Kamp donates approximately 4-5 hours a month as an Advisory Board Member of the Southwest Washington Community Foundation. His role on the board is to work with other board members to determine how to make grants to non-profits organizations. Mr. Kamp does not manage any assets, nor earn any fees or income for his services on the board and has no conflicts to disclose on this activity.

Additional Compensation

Item 5 In addition to fees received for investment advisory services, Max Kamp receives additional compensation for licensed insurance sales through Northwest Financial Services, a company 100% owned by Max Kamp. Mr. Kamp receives no economic benefit from third party insurance companies including incentives, marketing allowances, and other practical support or benefits from the sale of insurance products and their sponsors. There could be a conflict of interest to recommend an insurance product over advisory services based on the commissions received for the product sales. Mr. Kamp spends less than 5% of his time on the insurance sales and only makes insurance recommendations if it is thought to be the best solution for the client. He also receives income as the managing shareholder of Continental Investors Services, Inc.

Supervision

Item 6 Max Kamp is the Chief Compliance officer of Continental and is responsible for the supervision of all Representatives, as well as his own accounts.
