Item 2. Educational Background and Business Experience

Ms. Himebaugh, born in 1952, is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional at Matson Financial Advisors, Inc. Ms. Himebaugh also serves as an investment adviser representative of Matson Financial Advisors, Inc.

The certified financial planner certification process, administered by the CFP Board, identifies to the public that those individuals who have been authorized to use the CFP® certification marks in the U.S. have met rigorous professional standards and have agreed to adhere to the principles of integrity, objectivity, competence, fairness, confidentiality, professionalism, and diligence when dealing with clients. CFP® professionals must pass the comprehensive CFP® certification examination, pass the CFP Board's Fitness Standards for Candidates and Professionals Eligible for Reinstatement, agree to abide by the CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility and Rules of Conduct that put client interests first, and comply with the Financial Planning Practice Standards, which spell out what clients should be able to reasonably expect from the financial planning engagement. To renew a CFP® certification, one must pay an annual certification fee, submit a properly completed certification application every two years, and complete thirty hours of continuing education accepted by the CFP Board every two years.
