

Scam artists aren't smarter than you.
They're just more experienced.

Take the time to protect your money from investment fraud.

A good investment takes time to find. Sometimes what looks like a smart way to invest your money is, in truth, just a scam. These scam artists are experts at making bad business deals sound legitimate — so anyone can fall victim to their deception. The best way to protect yourself is to research valid ways to grow your money. Come learn how to protect yourself from fraud and how to invest your money wisely.

Attend this safe investing seminar sponsored by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the Connecticut Department of Banking and AARP Connecticut.

Monday, May 14

Registration and free continental breakfast: 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. • Program: 9:00 to 11:30 a.m.
The Aqua Turf Club, 556 Mulberry St., Plantsville, CT

Seminar, continental breakfast and parking are free of charge.

Registration required. Call toll-free at 1-877-926-8300 to attend this free information-packed educational session paid for by the Campaign for Wise and Safe Investing. Bring your friends and family, too. You'll all be glad you came.

Visit aarp.org/investmentfraud for more information.

