SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

INVESTMENT ADVISERS ACT OF 1940

Administrative Proceeding
File No. 3-12935

In the Matter of Joseph A. Ferona, Jr.

In the Order Instituting Proceedings ("Order"), the Division of Enforcement alleges that Ferona entered a guilty plea to one count of mail fraud and that he was permanently enjoined by default from future violations of the securities laws. The Division of Enforcement further alleges that Ferona was an associated person of an unregistered investment adviser, Castle Rock Trading Company, and that he acted as a broker or dealer when he sold securities in the Global Prosperity Fund.

By order dated February 22, 2006, an administrative law judge dismissed without prejudice a prior administrative proceeding against Ferona, which was based upon the entry of the injunction against him, due to the Division of Enforcement’s failure to serve Ferona with the Order Instituting Proceedings. See Investment Advisers Act Release No. 2447 (November 25, 2005). The Commission thereafter ratified the actions taken resulting in the dismissal and authorized the institution of this proceeding.

A hearing will be scheduled before an administrative law judge to determine whether the allegations contained in the Order are true, to provide Ferona an opportunity to dispute these allegations, and to determine what remedial sanctions, if any, are appropriate in the public interest. The Order requires the administrative law judge to issue an initial decision no later than 210 days from the date of service of the Order, pursuant to Rule 360(a)(2) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice.
