I.

On March 5, 2008, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) instituted public administrative and cease-and-desist proceedings pursuant to Sections 203(f) and 203(k) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (“Advisers Act”) and Sections 9(b) and 9(f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (“Investment Company Act”) against Scott E. DeSano, Thomas H. Bruderman, Timothy J. Burnieika, Robert L. Burns, David K. Donovan, Edward S. Driscoll, Jeffrey D. Harris (“Harris” or “Respondent Harris”), Christopher J. Horan, Steven P. Pascucci, and Kirk C. Smith.

II.

In response to these proceedings, Respondent Harris has submitted an Offer of Settlement (“Offer”) which the Commission has determined to accept. Solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, or to which the Commission is a party, and without admitting or denying the findings herein, except as to the Commission's jurisdiction over him and the subject matter of these proceedings, which are admitted, Respondent Harris consents to the entry of this Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions and a Cease-and-Desist Order Pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and Sections 9(b) and 9(f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as to Jeffrey D. Harris ("Order"), as set forth below.

III.

On the basis of this Order and Respondent Harris' Offer, the Commission finds<sup>1</sup> that:

Settling Respondent

1. Harris, age 35, lives in Charlestown, Massachusetts. He was an equity trader at FMR Co., Inc. from 1998 until his resignation in July 2005. At all relevant times, he was a sector trader specializing in technology stocks.

Other Relevant Parties

2. Fidelity Management & Research Company ("FMR") is a privately held Massachusetts corporation registered with the Commission as an investment adviser pursuant to Section 203(c) of the Advisers Act, with its principal place of business in Boston, Massachusetts. FMR is a wholly owned subsidiary of FMR LLC, a privately held Delaware corporation. FMR is an adviser to various institutional clients and has approximately $1.25 trillion in assets under management. FMR's institutional clients include a group of approximately 350 registered investment companies marketed under the "Fidelity Investments" trade name and managed by FMR and its affiliates (hereafter "the Fidelity Funds").

3. FMR Co., Inc. is a privately held Massachusetts corporation registered with the Commission as an investment adviser pursuant to Section 203(c) of the Advisers Act, with its principal place of business in Boston, Massachusetts. FMR Co., Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of FMR (collectively "Fidelity") and provides portfolio management services as a sub-adviser to certain clients of FMR, including the Fidelity Funds.<sup>2</sup>

Summary

4. These proceedings concern Harris' acceptance of travel and tickets from securities brokerage firms ("brokerage firms") with which he, through Fidelity, conducted business on

<sup>1</sup> The findings herein are made pursuant to Respondent Harris' Offer and are not binding on any other person or entity in this or any other proceeding.

<sup>2</sup> On March 5, 2008, the Commission instituted related administrative and/or cease-and-desist proceedings against Fidelity and certain of its employees. See In the Matter of Fidelity Management & Research Co. and FMR Co. Inc., Advisers Act Release No. 2713, Admin. Proc. File No. 3-19276 (March 5, 2008); In the Matter of Peter S. Lynch, Company Act Release No. 28189, Admin. Proc. File No. 3-12980 (March 5, 2008); In the Matter of Bart A. Grenier, Advisers Act Release No. 2714, Admin. Proc. behalf of the Fidelity Funds. During the period from January 1, 2002 to October 2004 (the "Relevant Period"), Harris accepted tickets to several events and a significant amount of travel, including trips with brokers that included private jet travel and lodging. By accepting that travel and those tickets, Harris willfully<sup>3</sup> violated Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act.

Background

5. During the Relevant Period, Harris worked as a sector trader on Fidelity's equity trading desk and was an affiliated person of FMR Co., Inc., which is an affiliated person of registered investment companies (the Fidelity Funds). Fidelity's advisory clients (including the Fidelity Funds) gave Fidelity authority to select brokerage firms to execute securities transactions in their managed accounts. Portfolio managers initiated securities trades by contacting Fidelity's equity trading desk with orders to purchase or sell securities for client accounts under their management. As a Fidelity trader, Harris was responsible for, among other things, selecting brokerage firm(s) from a list of brokerage firms approved by Fidelity to execute securities transactions to fulfill the portfolio managers' orders.

Harris Accepted Travel and Tickets from Brokerage Firms

6. Harris received tickets to several events as well as a significant amount of travel from representatives of brokerage firms during the Relevant Period, consisting of some or all of his lodging and travel expenses on a significant number of trips with brokers to destinations such as a golf club in South Carolina and to the Super Bowl. Many of the trips were by private jet and were attended by other Fidelity employees.

Harris Violated Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act

7. As a result of the conduct described above, Harris willfully violated Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act, which makes it unlawful for an affiliated person of a registered investment company, or an affiliate of an affiliate, when acting as an agent, to accept compensation from any source (other than a salary or wages from the registered investment company) for the purchase or sale of any property to or for the registered investment company. A violation of Section 17(e)(1) is complete upon receipt of the compensation. Harris was an affiliated person of Fidelity, which is an affiliated person of investment companies (the Fidelity Funds), because Fidelity advises those funds. Harris' receipt of travel and tickets from representatives of brokerage firms constituted compensation in violation of Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act.

<sup>3</sup> A willful violation of the securities laws means merely "that the person charged with the duty knows what he is doing." Wonsover v. SEC, 205 F.3d 408, 414 (D.C. Cir. 2000) (quoting Hughes v. SEC, 174 F.2d 969, 977 (D.C. Cir. 1949)). There is no requirement that the actor "also be aware that he is violating one of the Rules or Acts." Id. (quoting Gearhart & Otis, Inc. v. SEC, 348 F.2d 798, 803 (D.C. Cir. 1965)).

IV.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest to impose the sanctions agreed to in Harris' Offer.

Accordingly, pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Advisers Act and Sections 9(b) and 9(f) of the Investment Company Act, it is hereby ORDERED that:

- A. Respondent Harris cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act;
- B. Respondent Harris is censured; and
- C. Respondent Harris shall, within ten days of the entry of this Order, pay disgorgement of $45,000, prejudgment interest of $15,986.84 and a civil money penalty in the amount of $30,000 to the United States Treasury. If timely payment is not made, additional interest shall accrue pursuant to SEC Rule of Practice 600. Payment shall be: (A) made by United States postal money order, certified check, bank cashier's check or bank money order; (B) made payable to the Securities and Exchange Commission; (C) hand-delivered or mailed to the Office of Financial Management, Securities and Exchange Commission, Operations Center, 6432 General Green Way, Stop 0-3, Alexandria, VA 22312; and (D) submitted under cover letter that identifies Harris as a Respondent in these proceedings, the file number of these proceedings, a copy of which cover letter and money order or check shall be sent to David P. Bergers, Regional Director, Securities and Exchange Commission, 33 Arch St., 23rd Floor, Boston, MA 02110.

By the Commission.
