INVESTMENT ADVISERS ACT OF 1940

INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-12978

I.

On March 5, 2008, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") instituted public administrative and cease-and-desist proceedings pursuant to Sections 203(f) and 203(k) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act") and Sections 9(b) and 9(f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Investment Company Act") against Scott E. DeSano, Thomas H. Bruderman, Timothy J. Burnieika, Robert L. Burns, David K. Donovan, Edward S. Driscoll, Jeffrey D. Harris, Christopher J. Horan ("Horan" or "Respondent Horan"), Steven P. Pascucci, and Kirk C. Smith.

II.

In response to these proceedings, Respondent Horan has submitted an Offer of Settlement ("Offer") which the Commission has determined to accept. Solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, or to which the Commission is a party, and without admitting or denying the findings herein, except as to the...
Commission’s jurisdiction over him and the subject matter of these proceedings, which are admitted, Respondent Horan consents to the entry of this Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions and a Cease-and-Desist Order Pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and Sections 9(b) and 9(f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as to Christopher J. Horan (“Order”), as set forth below.

III.

On the basis of this Order and Respondent Horan’s Offer, the Commission finds\(^1\) that:

Settling Respondent

1. Horan, age 37, lives in Milton, Massachusetts. He was an equity trader at FMR Co., Inc. from 1999 until September 2005, when he was reassigned to other duties that do not involve trading. At all relevant times, he was a sector trader specializing in insurance, aerospace and defense, and restaurant stocks.

Other Relevant Parties

2. Fidelity Management & Research Company ("FMR") is a privately held Massachusetts corporation registered with the Commission as an investment adviser pursuant to Section 203(c) of the Advisers Act, with its principal place of business in Boston, Massachusetts. FMR is a wholly owned subsidiary of FMR LLC, a privately held Delaware corporation. FMR is an adviser to various institutional clients and has approximately $1.25 trillion in assets under management. FMR’s institutional clients include a group of approximately 350 registered investment companies marketed under the “Fidelity Investments” trade name and managed by FMR and its affiliates (hereafter “the Fidelity Funds”).

3. FMR Co., Inc. is a privately held Massachusetts corporation registered with the Commission as an investment adviser pursuant to Section 203(c) of the Advisers Act, with its principal place of business in Boston, Massachusetts. FMR Co., Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of FMR (collectively “Fidelity”) and provides portfolio management services as a sub-adviser to certain clients of FMR, including the Fidelity Funds.\(^2\)

\(^1\) The findings herein are made pursuant to Respondent Horan’s Offer and are not binding on any other person or entity in this or any other proceeding.

Summary

4. These proceedings concern Horan’s acceptance of travel, lodging and tickets from securities brokerage firms (“brokerage firms”) with which he, through Fidelity, conducted business on behalf of the Fidelity Funds. During the period from January 1, 2002 to October 2004 (the “Relevant Period”), Horan accepted a significant amount of travel, including by private jet, lodging, and a number of tickets to sporting events that he did not attend with the representatives of the brokerage firms. By accepting the travel, lodging and tickets, Horan willfully violated Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act.

Background

5. During the Relevant Period, Horan worked as a sector trader on Fidelity’s equity trading desk and was an affiliated person of FMR Co., Inc., which is an affiliated person of registered investment companies (the Fidelity Funds). Fidelity’s advisory clients (including the Fidelity Funds) gave Fidelity authority to select brokerage firms to execute securities transactions in their managed accounts. Portfolio managers initiated securities trades by contacting Fidelity’s equity trading desk with orders to purchase or sell securities for client accounts under their management. As a Fidelity trader, Horan was responsible for, among other things, selecting brokerage firm(s) from a list of brokerage firms approved by Fidelity to execute securities transactions to fulfill the portfolio managers’ orders.

Horan Accepted Gifts and Travel from Brokerage Firms

6. Horan received a significant amount of travel from representatives of brokerage firms during the Relevant Period, consisting of some or all of his lodging and other travel expenses on numerous trips, many of which were by private jet, to destinations such as Las Vegas, Martha’s Vineyard, the Pebble Beach golf course in California, and from the Super Bowl in Houston. On three occasions, Horan attended a trip with a broker who provided him with the personal use of a one-way private jet as part of the trip. In addition, Horan received a number of tickets to sporting events – including to certain Super Bowl and playoff games – that he did not attend with the representatives of the brokerage firms.

Horan Violated Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act

7. As a result of the conduct described above, Horan willfully violated Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act, which makes it unlawful for an affiliated person of a registered investment company, or an affiliate of an affiliate, when acting as an agent, to accept compensation from any source (other than a salary or wages from the registered investment company) for the purchase or sale of any property to or for the registered investment company.

3 A willful violation of the securities laws means merely “‘that the person charged with the duty knows what he is doing.’” Wonsover v. SEC, 205 F.3d 408, 414 (D.C. Cir. 2000) (quoting Hughes v. SEC, 174 F.2d 969, 977 (D.C. Cir. 1949)). There is no requirement that the actor “‘also be aware that he is violating one of the Rules or Acts.’” Id. (quoting Gearhart & Otis, Inc. v. SEC, 348 F.2d 798, 803 (D.C. Cir. 1965)).
A violation of Section 17(e)(1) is complete upon receipt of the compensation. Horan was an affiliated person of Fidelity, which is an affiliated person of investment companies (the Fidelity Funds), because Fidelity advises those funds. Horan’s receipt of gifts and travel from representatives of brokerage firms constituted compensation in violation of Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act.

IV.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest to impose the sanctions agreed to in Horan’s Offer.

Accordingly, pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Advisers Act and Sections 9(b) and 9(f) of the Investment Company Act, it is hereby ORDERED that:

A. Respondent Horan cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of Section 17(e)(1) of the Investment Company Act;

B. Respondent Horan is censured;

C. Respondent Horan shall, within ten days of the entry of this Order, pay disgorgement of $63,000, prejudgment interest of $21,678.86 and a civil money penalty in the amount of $30,000 to the United States Treasury. If timely payment is not made, additional interest shall accrue pursuant to SEC Rule of Practice 600. Payment shall be: (A) made by United States postal money order, certified check, bank cashier's check or bank money order; (B) made payable to the Securities and Exchange Commission; (C) hand-delivered or mailed to the Office of Financial Management, Securities and Exchange Commission, Operations Center, 6432 General Green Way, Alexandria, VA 22312, Stop 0-3; and (D) submitted under cover letter that identifies Horan as a Respondent in these proceedings, the file number of these proceedings, a copy of which cover letter and money order or check shall be sent to David P. Bergers, Regional Director, Securities and Exchange Commission, 33 Arch St., 23rd Floor, Boston, MA 02110.

By the Commission.
