I.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) against Steven E. Malin (“Respondent”).

II.

In anticipation of the institution of these proceedings, Respondent has submitted an Offer of Settlement (the “Offer”) which the Commission has determined to accept. Solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, or to which the Commission is a party, and without admitting or denying the findings herein, except as to the Commission’s jurisdiction over him and the subject matter of these proceedings, and the findings contained in Section III.2 below, which are admitted, Respondent consents to the entry of this Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings Pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (“Order”), as set forth below.

III.

On the basis of this Order and Respondent’s Offer, the Commission finds that:

1. Steven E. Malin, age 52, is a resident of New York, New York. From approximately August 1993 through December 1996, Malin was employed as a consultant at A.B. Watley Group, Inc., the parent company of A.B. Watley, Inc., a day trading firm registered with the Commission as a broker-dealer. From approximately May 1996 through the present, Malin was CEO and Chairman of the Board of A.B. Watley Group, Inc. During the time in which he engaged in the conduct underlying the civil action referenced below, Respondent was associated with a broker-dealer.

2. On March 21, 2011, a final judgment was entered by consent against Steven E. Malin, permanently enjoining him from future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (“Securities Act”) and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and from aiding and abetting violations of Section 15(c) of the Exchange Act in the civil action entitled Securities and Exchange Commission v. A.B. Watley Group, Inc., et al., Civil Action Number 1:06-CV-1274, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

3. The Commission’s complaint alleged, inter alia, that while Steven E. Malin was associated with a broker-dealer, he participated in a scheme to improperly obtain material confidential information from broker-dealers’ “squawk boxes” so that day traders at the broker-dealer can trade ahead of the broker-dealers’ institutional orders.

IV.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest to impose the sanctions agreed to in Respondent Malin’s Offer.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:

Pursuant to Section 15(b)(6) of the Exchange Act that Respondent Steven E. Malin be, and hereby is barred from association with any broker or dealer, with the right to reapply for association after 1 year to the appropriate self-regulatory organization, or if there is none, to the Commission.

Any reapplication for association by the Respondent will be subject to the applicable laws and regulations governing the reentry process, and reentry may be conditioned upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the satisfaction of any or all of the following:

(a) any disgorgement ordered against the Respondent, whether or not the Commission has fully or partially waived payment of such disgorgement; (b) any arbitration award related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; (c) any self-regulatory organization arbitration award to a customer, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; and (d) any restitution order by a self-regulatory organization, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order.

By the Commission.
