I.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) against David Plate (“Respondent”).

II.

In anticipation of the institution of these proceedings, Respondent has submitted an Offer of Settlement (the “Offer”) which the Commission has determined to accept. Solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, or to which the Commission is a party, and without admitting or denying the findings herein, except as to the Commission’s jurisdiction over him and the subject matter of these proceedings, and the findings contained in Sections III.2, III.3 and III.5 below, which are admitted, Respondent consents to the entry of this Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings Pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (“Order”), as set forth below.
III.

On the basis of this Order and Respondent’s Offer, the Commission finds that:

1. Plate, age 36, resides in Brooklyn, New York. During the relevant time period, Plate was a registered representative and a proprietary trader at Schottenfeld Group LLC, a New York limited liability company and registered broker-dealer based in New York, New York. Plate was then a registered representative at G-2 Trading, LLC. At the relevant time, Plate held Series 7, 55 and 63 securities licenses.

2. On January 31, 2012, a judgment was entered by consent against Plate, permanently enjoining him from future violations of Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, in the civil action entitled Securities and Exchange Commission v. Arthur J. Cutillo, et al., Civil Action Number 09-CV-9208, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

3. On June 28, 2011, a judgment was entered by consent against Plate, permanently enjoining him from future violations of Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, in the civil action entitled Securities and Exchange Commission v. Galleon Management, LP, et al., Civil Action Number 09-CV-8811, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

4. The Commission’s complaints alleged, inter alia, that, while working as a trader at Schottenfeld in 2007, Plate was tipped material, nonpublic information concerning the acquisitions of Axcan Pharma Inc. (“Axcan”) and Kronos Inc. (“Kronos”), which had been misappropriated in violation of a duty. The complaints further allege that Plate traded in the securities of Axcan and Kronos based on that material, nonpublic information, and also tipped the material, nonpublic information concerning the Kronos acquisition to others.

5. On July 16, 2010, Plate pled guilty to one count of conspiracy to commit securities fraud and one count of securities fraud in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Section 371 and Title 15 United States Code, Sections 78j(b) and 78ff, in the District Court for the Southern District of New York, in United States v. David Plate, 10-CR-0056.

6. The counts of the criminal information to which Plate pled guilty alleged, inter alia, that Plate, and others, participated in a scheme to defraud by executing securities trades based on material, nonpublic information regarding certain inside information concerning public companies that had been misappropriated in violation of duties of trust and confidence, and that he unlawfully, willfully and knowingly did so, directly and indirectly, by use of the means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce, and of the mails, and of the facilities of national securities exchanges, in connection with the purchase and sale of securities.
IV.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest to impose the sanctions agreed to in Respondent Plate’s Offer.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:

Pursuant to Section 15(b)(6) of the Exchange Act, that Respondent Plate be, and hereby is barred from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, municipal securities dealer or transfer agent, and is barred from participating in an offering of penny stock, including: acting as a promoter, finder, consultant, agent or other person who engages in activities with a broker, dealer or issuer for purposes of the issuance or trading in any penny stock, or inducing or attempting to induce the purchase or sale of any penny stock.

Any reapplication for association by the Respondent will be subject to the applicable laws and regulations governing the reentry process, and reentry may be conditioned upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the satisfaction of any or all of the following: (a) any disgorgement ordered against the Respondent, whether or not the Commission has fully or partially waived payment of such disgorgement; (b) any arbitration award related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; (c) any self-regulatory organization arbitration award to a customer, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; and (d) any restitution order by a self-regulatory organization, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order.

By the Commission.
