SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 71949 / April 15, 2014

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-15843

In the Matter of

ROBERT C. RICE,

Respondent.

ORDER INSTITUTING
ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS
PURSUANT TO SECTION 15(b) OF THE
SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934,
MAKING FINDINGS, AND IMPOSING
REMEDIAL SANCTIONS

I.

The Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") against Robert C. Rice ("Rice" or "Respondent").

II.

In anticipation of the institution of these proceedings, Respondent has submitted an Offer of Settlement (the "Offer") which the Commission has determined to accept. Solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, or to which the Commission is a party, and without admitting or denying the findings herein, except as to the Commission’s jurisdiction over him and the subject matter of these proceedings and the findings contained in Section III.2 below, which are admitted, Respondent consents to the entry of this Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings Pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions ("Order"), as set forth below.
III.

On the basis of this Order and Respondent’s Offer, the Commission finds that:

1. Rice, age 50, is a resident of Tallahassee, Florida. In the civil action entitled Securities and Exchange Commission v. K2 Unlimited, Inc., et al., Civil Action Number 1:11-cv-11649, in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, the Commission alleged that Rice offered clients of K2 Unlimited, Inc. and 211 Ventures, LLC securities without being registered as a broker or dealer in accordance with Section 15(b) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78o(b)].

2. On April 4, 2014, a final judgment was entered by consent against Rice, permanently enjoining him from future violations of Sections 5(a) and (c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (“Securities Act”), Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Section 15(a) of the Exchange Act, in the civil action entitled Securities and Exchange Commission v. K2 Unlimited, Inc., et al., Civil Action Number 1:11-cv-11649, in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

3. The Commission’s complaint alleged that Rice, through K2 Unlimited, Inc., and through 211 Ventures, LLC, purported to offer venture capital financing to clients by the use of fictitious instruments called bank guarantees, and also offered clients direct investments in fraudulent and non-existent trading programs, promising high returns and guarantees against loss. The Commission alleged that Rice, with others, defrauded investors of at least $1.8 million by offering these fictitious investments.

IV.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest to impose the sanctions agreed to in Respondent Rice’s Offer.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED pursuant to Section 15(b)(6) of the Exchange Act that Respondent Rice be, and hereby is:

Barred from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, municipal securities dealer, municipal advisor, transfer agent, or nationally recognized statistical rating organization; and barred from participating in any offering of a penny stock, including: acting as a promoter, finder, consultant, agent or other person who engages in activities with a broker, dealer or issuer for purposes of the issuance or trading in any penny stock, or inducing or attempting to induce the purchase or sale of any penny stock.

Any reapplication for association by the Respondent will be subject to the applicable laws and regulations governing the reentry process, and reentry may be conditioned upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the satisfaction of any or all of the following: (a) any disgorgement ordered against the Respondent, whether or not the Commission has fully or partially waived payment of such disgorgement; (b) any arbitration award related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; (c) any self-regulatory organization arbitration award to a customer, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; and (d) any restitution order by a self-regulatory organization, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order.

By the Commission.
