The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (“Advisers Act”) against Naseem Mohammed Salamah (“Salamah” or “Respondent”).

In anticipation of the institution of these proceedings, Respondent has submitted an Offer of Settlement (the “Offer”) which the Commission has determined to accept. Solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, or to which the Commission is a party, Respondent admits the Commission’s jurisdiction over him and the subject matter of these proceedings and the findings contained in Paragraph III.2 below, which are admitted, and consents to the entry of this Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings Pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (“Order”), as set forth below.
III.

On the basis of this Order and Respondent’s Offer, the Commission finds that

1. From January 2013 through June 2021, Salamah was an investment adviser representative with a state registered investment adviser. Salamah, 40 years old, is a resident of Rockford, Illinois.

2. On September 29, 2021, a judgment was entered by consent against Salamah permanently enjoining him from future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (“Securities Act”), Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Sections 206(1) and 206(2) of the Advisers Act, in the civil action entitled Securities and Exchange Commission v. Naseem Mohammed Salamah, Civil Action Number 3:21-cv-50371, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

3. The Commission’s complaint alleged, among other things, that from approximately August 2017 to May 2021, Salamah stole at least $968,582 from at least three of his elderly advisory clients. Salamah falsely represented that he was moving his clients’ funds to diversify their securities holdings. Instead, without his clients’ knowledge or authorization, Salamah misappropriated his clients’ money and spent it on personal expenses, including dinners, vacations, luxury cars that he leased, and private school tuition for his children.

IV.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest to impose the sanctions agreed to in Respondent Salamah’s Offer.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Advisers, that Respondent Salamah be, and hereby is barred from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, municipal securities dealer, municipal advisor, transfer agent, or nationally recognized statistical rating organization;
Any reapplication for association by the Respondent will be subject to the applicable laws and regulations governing the reentry process, and reentry may be conditioned upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, compliance with the Commission’s order and payment of any or all of the following: (a) any disgorgement or civil penalties ordered by a Court against the Respondent in any action brought by the Commission; (b) any disgorgement amounts ordered against the Respondent for which the Commission waived payment; (c) any arbitration award related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; (d) any self-regulatory organization arbitration award to a customer, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; and (e) any restitution order by a self-regulatory organization, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order.

By the Commission.
