Before the
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-15967

In the Matter of

LAWRENCE M. LABINE,

Respondent.

RESPONDENT LAWRENCE M.
LABINE'S MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE
ORDER PURSUANT TO RULE 322

Respondent Lawrence M. LaBine hereby requests that the Chief Administrative Law Judge enter a protective order barring the public disclosure of certain financial and personal documents to be entered into evidence by Respondent. Pursuant to Rule 322, your honor is authorized to enter a protective order to limit identified materials from disclosure to the public. Respondent asks that his personal financial information and information related to the waiver request pursuant to Rule 630, which will be introduced both through exhibits and testimony, be so limited and subject to a protective order. The harm to Respondent through public disclosure is inherent in that the information relates to not only himself, but also his spouse and children, with details including locations frequented for transactions involving those minors. There is no benefit to public disclosure.

Respondent requests that your honor enter the protective order and include within that order exhibits 204 through 230, which relate to the waiver argument. Mr. LaBine reserves the right to supplement the list and identify additional exhibits and portions of testimony as supplemented throughout the hearing. Undersigned counsel spoke with counsel for the Division this morning, who has expressed no objection to this request but does reserve the right to challenge any new exhibits requested to be added to the umbrella of the protective order.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 25th day of August, 2015.
