

courses of business that violate Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) [15 U.S.C. §78j(b)], and Rule 10b-5 [17 C.F.R. §240.10b-5] thereunder.

3. That there is good cause to believe that Defendants will continue to engage in such transactions, acts, practices and courses of business and in such violations unless immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of this Court.

4. That there is good cause to believe that, unless restrained and enjoined, Defendants, will dissipate, conceal, or transfer from the jurisdiction of this Court, assets which could be subject to an order of disgorgement and civil penalties.

5. That, therefore, this motion should be, and is, granted.

6. Accordingly, the Court Orders as follows:

I.

SECTION 10(b) VIOLATIONS

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order, by personal service or otherwise, and each of them, be and hereby are temporarily restrained and enjoined from, directly or indirectly, in connection with the purchase or sale of securities, by the use of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce or of the mails, or of any facility of any national securities exchange:

- (1) employing any device, scheme or artifice to defraud;
- (2) making any untrue statement of material fact or omitting to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or
- (3) engaging in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person;

in violation of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 [15 U.S.C. § 78j(b)] and Rule 10b-5 thereunder [17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5].
