In re:
Pending Administrative Proceedings

ORDER

On November 29, 2017, the Solicitor General on behalf of the United States submitted a brief in Raymond J. Lucia and Raymond J. Lucia Companies, Inc. v. Securities and Exchange Commission (No. 17-130) in which the Solicitor General agreed with the petitioners that the U.S. Supreme Court should decide whether administrative law judges of the Commission are inferior officers under the Appointments Clause, U.S. Const. Art. II, § 2, cl. 2. The Solicitor General took the position that Commission administrative law judges are inferior officers for purposes of the Appointments Clause but recommended that the Supreme Court appoint an amicus curiae to defend the contrary judgment of the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

To put to rest any claim that administrative proceedings pending before, or presided over by, Commission administrative law judges violate the Appointments Clause, the Commission—in its capacity as head of a department—hereby ratifies the agency’s prior appointment of Chief Administrative Law Judge Brenda Murray and Administrative Law Judges Carol Fox Foelak, Cameron Elliot, James E. Grimes, and Jason S. Patil.

In addition, the Commission orders all administrative law judges presiding over pending proceedings for which no initial decision has yet been issued to undertake the following actions in each of those proceedings:

- Reconsider the record, including all substantive and procedural actions taken by an administrative law judge pursuant to Rule 111 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice, 17 C.F.R. § 201.111;
- Issue an order granting parties until January 5, 2018 to submit any new evidence the parties deem relevant to the administrative law judge’s reexamination of the record;

- Determine, based on such reconsideration, whether to ratify or revise in any respect all prior actions taken by an administrative law judge in the proceeding; and
- Issue an order by February 16, 2018 stating that the administrative law judge has completed the reconsideration ordered above and setting forth a determination regarding ratification.

The Commission hereby tolls the time periods in Rule of Practice 360(a) until the administrative law judge issues the order on ratification. The administrative law judges are directed to notify the parties in the cases pending before them of this order.

In matters pending before the Commission in which an administrative law judge has issued an initial decision, the Commission hereby remands any such matter to the administrative law judge who issued the initial decision. A list of matters is attached as Exhibit A to this Order. The administrative law judge is ordered to undertake the following actions in each of those proceedings:

- Reconsider the record, including all substantive and procedural actions taken by an administrative law judge pursuant to Rule 111 of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 17 C.F.R. § 201.111;
- Issue an order granting parties until January 5, 2018 to submit any new evidence the parties deem relevant to the administrative law judge's reexamination of the record;
- Determine, based on such reconsideration, whether to ratify or revise in any respect all prior actions taken by an administrative law judge in the proceeding; and
- Issue an order by February 16, 2018 stating that the administrative law judge has completed the reconsideration ordered above and setting forth the determination regarding ratification.

The administrative law judge may, for good cause shown, modify any of these deadlines, including the date by which the administrative law judge's order on ratification is to be issued.

Finally, we note that on May 22, 2017, in light of Bandimere v. SEC,<sup>1</sup> which held that the Commission's administrative law judges are inferior officers who must be appointed in a manner consistent with the Appointments Clause, U.S. Const. Art. II, § 2, cl. 2, we stayed: (1) all administrative proceedings assigned to an administrative law judge in which a respondent has the option to seek review in the Tenth Circuit of a final order of the Commission under Section 9(a) of the Securities Act, Section 25(a) of the Securities Exchange Act, Section 43(a) of the Investment Company Act, or Section 213(a) of the Investment Advisers Act; and (2) all administrative proceedings pending before the Commission on review from an initial decision by an administrative law judge in which a respondent has the option to seek review in the Tenth

Circuit of a final order of the Commission under these same statutory provisions. Having now ratified the appointment of the Commission's administrative law judges, thereby resolving any Appointments Clause claims that may have arisen in the aforementioned cases under Bandimere, we hereby lift the stays imposed by our May 22, 2017 order and direct that those proceedings should resume pursuant to our above instructions.

By the Commission.
