In the Matter of

EVERETT C. MILLER

ORDER REQUESTING ADDITIONAL BRIEFING

On May 30, 2014, the Commission issued an order making findings and imposing remedial sanctions (the "Order") against Everett C. Miller. The Order, among other things, barred Miller from association with any nationally recognized statistical rating organization ("NRSRO") or municipal advisor.¹ Subsequent to the Order, the Commission issued a statement regarding *Koch v. SEC*²—where the court vacated NRSRO and municipal advisor bars because the conduct that served as the basis for the bars predated the enactment of the Dodd Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act on July 21, 2010—and invited persons who had been barred from such associations to request that the bars be vacated if "all of the conduct relevant to such bar(s) occurred before July 22, 2010."³

On March 15, 2016, Miller filed a request to vacate the NRSRO and municipal advisor bars entered against him. The Order appears, however, to contain allegations of misconduct supporting the bars that extends beyond July 21, 2010. As a result, the Commission's consideration of Miller's request to vacate would be assisted by briefing on the question of whether relevant misconduct continued past July 21, 2010 and, if it did, whether the bars should be vacated notwithstanding such post Dodd-Frank misconduct.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Everett C. Miller and the Division of Enforcement are requested, by March 1, 2017 each to file a brief, not to exceed 5000 words, addressing the question of whether conduct supporting imposition of NRSRO and municipal advisor bars occurred on or after July 22, 2010 and, if so, whether Everett C. Miller's request to vacate such bars should be granted. Each party shall also be permitted to file, by March 31, 2017, an opposition brief, not to exceed 2500 words.
