(collectively, “Respondents”).¹

On October 12, 2018, the Division of Enforcement filed the declaration of Neil J. Corp., and Wild Craze, Inc. have not filed answers.⁴ The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, respondents Mindpix Corp., One2one Living Corp., and Wild Craze, Inc. are ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by February 20, 2019, why the registrations of their securities should not be revoked by default due to their failures to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If respondents Mindpix Corp., One2one Living Corp., and Wild Craze, Inc. fail to respond to this order to show cause, they may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against them, and their securities may be revoked.⁵ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.
