SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 90907 / January 13, 2021

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-19641

In the Matter of

BLUEFIRE RENEWABLES, INC., AND CANADIAN CANNABIS CORP.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) on January 9, 2020, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against respondents Bluefire Renewables, Inc., and Canadian Cannabis Corp. (collectively, “Respondents”).¹

On December 21, 2020, the Division of Enforcement filed a motion requesting that the Commission find Respondents in default for not filing answers and that it revoke the registration of each class of their securities based on the record and the allegations in the OIP. On February 6, 2020, the Division of Enforcement filed the declaration of Gina Joyce, which stated that, consistent with Rule 141(a)(2)(ii) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice,² service of the OIP was made on Bluefire Renewables, Inc. on January 11, 2020; and service of the OIP was made on Canadian Cannabis Corp. on January 13, 2020.

² 17 C.F.R. § 201.141(a)(2)(ii); see also Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(iv), 17 C.F.R. § 201.141(a)(2)(iv) (providing that service may be made upon foreign corporations or entities in a foreign country” by “[a]ny method specified in” Rule 141(a)(2)(ii) “that is not prohibited by the law of the foreign country”); see Water Splash, Inc. v. Menon, 137 S. Ct. 1504, 1513 & n.7 (2017) (holding that “in cases governed by the Hague Service Convention, service by mail is permissible if two conditions are met: first, the receiving state has not objected to service by mail; and second, service by mail is authorized under otherwise-applicable law” and noting that Canada does not object to service by mail).

As stated in the OIP, Respondents' answers were required to be filed within ten days of service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondents have not filed answers. The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondents are ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by January 27, 2021, why the registration of their securities should not be revoked by default due to their failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondents fail to respond to this order to show cause, they may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against them, and their securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is called to the Commission's March 18, 2020 order regarding the filing and service of papers, which provides that, pending further order of the Commission, parties to the extent possible shall submit all filings electronically at apfilings@sec.gov.⁵

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.
