SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Release No. 91086 / February 9, 2021

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-19653

In the Matter of

GROGENESIS, INC. AND GOLDEN GATE PARTNERS, INC.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) on January 13, 2020, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against respondents GroGenesis, Inc. and Golden Gate Partners, Inc. (collectively, “Respondents”).¹

On February 6, 2020, the Division of Enforcement filed the Declaration of Gina Joyce, which stated that, consistent with Rule 141(a)(2)(ii) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice,² service of the OIP was made on Respondents on January 16, 2020. On December 21, 2020, the Division of Enforcement filed a motion for an order entering a default against Respondents.

As stated in the OIP, Respondents’ answers were required to be filed within ten days of service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondents have not filed answers. The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondents are ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE, by February 23, 2021, why the registrations of their securities should not be revoked by default due to their failures to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondents fail to respond to this order to show cause, they may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against them, and the registrations of their securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is called to the Commission's March 18, 2020 order regarding the filing and service of papers, which provides that pending further order of the Commission parties to the extent possible shall submit all filings electronically at apfilings@sec.gov.⁵ Also, the Commission's Rules of Practice were recently amended to include new e-filing requirements, which take effect on April 12, 2021.⁶
