

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
Washington, D.C.

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
RELEASE NO. 56116 / July 23, 2007

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), of trading in the securities of Vision Airships, Inc. ("Vision Airships"), at 9:30 a.m. EST on July 23, 2007, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on August 3, 2007.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of Vision Airships due to questions that have arisen concerning the adequacy and accuracy of assertions made by Vision Airships in publicly disseminated press concerning among other things 1) the company's acquisition of blimps, 2) the existence of company negotiations with other entities for use of the blimps, 3) the company's funding for its global expansion, and 4) the potential annual revenues from airship use.

Vision Airships, a company traded in the Over-the-Counter market under the ticker symbol VPSN, has made no public filings with the Commission, and has recently been the subject of spam e-mail touting the company's shares.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer has any questions as to whether or not he has complied with the rule, he should not enter any quotation but immediately contact the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, D.C. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, he should refrain from entering quotations relating to Vision Airships' securities until such time as he has familiarized himself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information that may relate to this matter, they should immediately communicate it to John Reed Stark, Chief of the Office of Internet Enforcement and Counselor to the Director, Division of Enforcement at the Securities and Exchange Commission. He can be reached at (202) 551-4892, or by e-mail at StarkJ@sec.gov.
