UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Before the
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 61341 / January 13, 2010

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”), of trading of the securities of East Delta Resources Corp. (“East Delta,” symbol EDLT), a Delaware corporation operating in Montreal, Quebec, Canada commencing at 9:30 a.m. EST on January 13, 2010 and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on January 27, 2010.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading of the securities of East Delta due to a lack of current and accurate information about the company because it has not filed periodic reports with the Commission since the period ended September 30, 2008. This order was entered pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Exchange Act.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 15c2-11, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered relating to the securities of East Delta unless and until the broker or dealer has strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by the rule, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to the securities of East Delta until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. Any broker or dealer with questions regarding the rule should contact the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, DC at (202) 551-5720. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information which may relate to this matter, they should telephone the Washington, DC office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Stephen Herm, Senior Counsel, at 202-551-4727.
