SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 79572 / December 16, 2016

The Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), of trading in the securities of American Energy Development Corp. ("AEDC"), of New York, New York at 9:30 a.m. EST on December 16, 2016, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on December 30, 2016.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of AEDC because of, among other things, questions regarding the accuracy of statements by and about AEDC. AEDC's current website falsely states that the company "files Annual, Quarterly and current Reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)" even though AEDC suspended its voluntary filings of reports with the Commission on December 5, 2013 and has filed no reports since that date. AEDC also appears to have made false and misleading statements in its most recently filed Form 10-K filed on October 31, 2013, concerning, among other things, purported loans and advances to AEDC by a company officer. This order was entered pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Exchange Act.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer has any questions as to whether or not he has complied with the rule, he should not enter any quotation but immediately contact the staff in the Division of Trading and Markets, Office of Interpretation and Guidance, at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, he should refrain from entering quotations relating to AEDC's securities until such time as he has familiarized himself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information which may relate to this matter, contact Sandeep Satwalekar, Assistant Regional Director, New York Regional Office of the Commission at (212) 336-0161.
