SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Release No. 82092 / November 15, 2017

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”), of trading in the securities of Alamo Energy Corp. (“ALME”), a Nevada corporation, at 9:30 a.m. EST on November 16, 2017, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on November 30, 2017.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of ALME because of questions that have arisen regarding publicly available information in its Form 10-K filed on July 24, 2017 for the fiscal years ended April 30, 2015 and 2016 concerning, among other things, whether the company’s name and business had changed, the qualifications of its oil and gas reserves evaluator, and statements concerning the availability of corporate information on its website. This order was entered pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Exchange Act.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer has any questions as to whether or not he has complied with the rule he should not enter any quotation but immediately contact the staff in the Division of Trading and Markets, Office of Interpretation and Guidance, at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, he should refrain from entering quotations relating to ALME’s securities until such time as he has familiarized himself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information which may relate to this matter, contact Michael Paley, Assistant Regional Director, New York Regional Office, at (212) 336-0145 or Tracy Sivitz, Senior Counsel, New York Regional Office, at (212) 336-0029.
