SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 88952 / May 26, 2020

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, of trading in the securities of Micron Waste Technologies Inc. (MICWD) (CIK No. 0001521248), of British Columbia, Canada at 9:30 a.m. EDT on May 27, 2020, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EDT on June 9, 2020.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of MICWD because of questions regarding the accuracy and adequacy of information in the marketplace about Micron Waste and its securities since at least April 2020. Those questions relate to representations concerning Micron Waste's acquisition of Covid Technologies Inc., and Covid Technologies' present ability to rapidly manufacture personal protective equipment to meet the needs of the global medical community during the COVID-19 pandemic. The British Columbia Securities Commission also halted trading in the securities of Micron Waste.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer has any questions as to whether or not it has complied with the rule, it should not enter any quotation but immediately contact the staff in the Division of Trading and Markets, Office of Interpretation and Guidance, at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to MICWD's securities until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information that may relate to this matter, they should immediately contact Tracy L. Davis, Assistant Regional Director, at (705) 205-2318 or Serafima K. McTigue, Counsel, at (415) 705-2353. The Commission appreciates the assistance of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and the British Columbia Securities Commission.
