The Securities and Exchange Commission today announced that Andrew Downey Orrick of California took the oath of office as a Member of the Commission for the five year term expiring June 5, 1962. Coincident with his reappointment by President Eisenhower, Commissioner Orrick was designated by the President to serve as Acting Chairman until further order.

Acting Chairman Orrick, a resident of San Francisco, was associated with the law firm of Orrick, Dahlquist, Harrington & Sutcliffe from 1947 to 1954. After serving for fifteen months as Regional Administrator of the San Francisco Regional Office, he became a Member of the Commission on May 25, 1955 for the balance of a term expiring June 5, 1957. On May 27, 1957, he was designated by the President to serve as Acting Chairman, succeeding J. Sinclair Armstrong, who resigned at the close of business May 27, 1957, to become Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

Acting Chairman Orrick is a graduate of Yale University and the University of California Law Department (Hastings College of the Law). He became a member of the California Bar in 1947.

During World War II he served in the U. S. Army as a Captain in the Transportation Corps. He is married to the former Marjorie H. Soule of Brookline, Massachusetts, and they have three children.

The Securities and Exchange Commission today announced the issuance of an order pursuant to Section 19(a)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, suspending trading on the American Stock Exchange in the $1 par Capital Stock of Bellanca Corporation, New Castle, Delaware, for a further ten-day period, June 14 to June 23, 1957, inclusive.

The action was taken on the basis of Bellanca's failure to comply with the reporting requirements of Section 13 of the Act and the disclosure requirements of the Commission's proxy rules under Section 14, as well as its failure to file an annual report for the year ended December 31, 1956, due on or about April 30, 1957.

Upon the basis of a finding by the Commission that such suspension is necessary to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices in connection with trading in Bellanca stock, trading by brokers and dealers in such stock in the over-the-counter markets also is prohibited during the period of the suspension.

The Commission previously scheduled a hearing, pursuant to Section 19(a)(2) of the Act, on the question whether the Bellanca stock should be suspended for a period not exceeding 12 months, or withdrawn, from listing and registration on the Exchange. This hearing is now in adjournment until July 10, 1957, continuances of the hearing having been occasioned by conflicting engagements of company counsel.
