U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

GARY CORN CHARGED IN INFORMATION

The U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Texas and the Houston Branch Office announced that on July 16 a criminal information was filed in the Southern District of Texas charging Gary Corn, of Houston, Texas, with one count of criminal contempt arising from a previous injunction. On August 2, 1977, the Commission obtained injunctions against Corn and others [SEC v. James Edward Hollensworth, individually and d/b/a Hollensworth Oil Company, and Gary Corn, Civil Action No. H-77-1048 USDC SDTC], enjoining them from future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The defendants consented to the injunctive order without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint.

The information alleges a scheme and artifice to defraud investors through the offer and sale of limited partnership and joint venture interests in ten oil and gas drilling and enhancement programs located in Texas and Louisiana. The information also alleged that part of the $6 million raised from investors was misapplied or misappropriated.

The alleged scheme was also the basis of a 1984 Commission injunctive action against Corn and others. Without admitting or denying the complaint's allegations, the defendants consented to an injunctive order against future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions. (U.S. v. Gary Corn, USDC SDTX, H-86-201). (LR-11168)
