ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NASD'S REFUSAL TO PERMIT EMPLOYMENT OF SAMUEL TUCHMAN AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed the NASD’s refusal to permit Halpert and Company, Inc., of Millburn, New Jersey, an NASD member firm, to continue employing Samuel M. Tuchman as a registered representative. Halpert's request was necessary because, in March 1986, Tuchman was convicted of a misdemeanor involving the improper use of a credit card.

The Commission noted, as had the NASD, that both the firm and Alan Halpert, its president and 88% owner, had been subject to prior enforcement action by the Commission and that Tuchman's conviction, which involved fraud, raised a serious question as to whether he might engage in similar misconduct in the securities industry. It concluded that the NASD’s action was warranted in the interest of protecting public investors. (Rel 34-28615)

NASD ACTION AGAINST BRIAN MCLAUGHLIN AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed disciplinary action taken by the NASD against Brian C. McLaughlin, of Deer Park, New York, a former registered representative with an NASD member firm. The NASD censured McLaughlin, fined him $15,000 and suspended him from association with any NASD member for two years.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that McLaughlin wrote checks to his firm for customers' securities purchases against insufficient funds, forged customers' signatures on the checks, misrepresented a customer's account balance to a mortgage company and circumvented Regulation T by opening new accounts for customers whose existing accounts were restricted for non-payment. The Commission characterized the sanctions imposed by the NASD as "effective but reasonable deterrents against any repetition of the deliberate deceptions in which McLaughlin engaged." (Rel. 34-28616)
CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST HENRY LORIN AND OTHERS

In its complaint, the Commission alleges that from in or about October 1985 through in or about October 1987 the defendants engaged in an illegal scheme to defraud the investing public by manipulating the over-the-counter market for the securities of seven public companies: Big O Tires, Inc. (and its predecessor company, Tires, Inc.), Cliff Engle Ltd., Digital Metcom, Inc., Flores de New Mexico, Inc., Fountain Powerboat Industries, Inc., TS Industries, Inc., and Tunex International, Inc. The complaint alleges that the defendants artificially increased and prevented declines in the prices of the manipulated stocks. The complaint further alleges that following the collapse of the manipulation scheme in October 1987 the market value of the total shares outstanding of the manipulated stocks declined by approximately $644.2 million. [SEC v. Henry W. Lorin, Eugene K. Laff, Stanley Aslanian, Jr., Capital Shares, Inc., Lawrence Caito, Toni Vallen, Rosario Russell Ruggiero, Enn Kunnapas, Paul L. Miano and Edward J. Barter, S.D.N.Y., Civil Action No. 90 Civ. 7461, PL] (LR-12707)

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST FRANK SHANNON

The Commission announced on November 20 the filing of a civil injunctive action in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York against Frank Shannon, a British citizen and resident. In its complaint, the Commission alleges that Shannon violated Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rules 13d-1 and 13d-2 thereunder in connection with his beneficial ownership of the common stock of TS Industries, Inc., of which Shannon was formerly a director.

The complaint alleges that on or about May 16, 1988 and May 17, 1988 Shannon filed with the Commission a false and misleading Schedule 13D and amendment to that Schedule 13D in that Shannon failed to report his beneficial ownership of 1,008,814 shares of TS common stock or 10.6% of the total shares of TS common stock outstanding.

Shannon, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, has consented to the entry of a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction enjoining him from future violations of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and Rules 13d-1 and 13d-2 thereunder. [SEC v. Frank Shannon, S.D.N.Y., Civil Action No. 90 Civ. 7463, PL] (LR-12708)

COMPLAINT NAMES MOLLIE RAAB, MICHAEL PAINTER AND JOSEPH JEFFRIES

The Commission filed a complaint on November 20 against Mollie E. Raab, of Hillsborough, California, Michael Gaylord Painter, and Joseph Jeffries, both of San Antonio, Texas. The Commission alleges that Raab recommended a purchase of Genentech, Inc. stock to Painter while she possessed material nonpublic information regarding the company learned from her husband who then was Genentech's President and Chief Operating Officer. The Commission alleges that Painter subsequently told Jeffries, who knew that Painter’s brother-in-law worked at Genentech, that his sister had suggested that he buy Genentech stock because something good was going to happen there soon. Jeffries subsequently purchased Genentech options, understanding that Painter would acquire approximately one-half of them, and he recommended purchases of Genentech options to two of his friends.

Without admitting or denying the Commission’s allegations, the defendants consented to the entry of Final Judgments of Permanent Injunctions which would: (1) permanently restrain and enjoin the defendants from violations of Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5;
(2) order Jeffries to disgorge $133,700 in profits and prejudgment interest; (3) order
Raab to pay an ITSA penalty of $162,400; and (4) assess penalties of $63,700 and $133,700 against Painter and Jeffries, respectively, to be waived based upon their inability to pay. [SEC v. Mollie E. Raab, Michael Gaylord Painter and Joseph Jeffries, Civil Action No. C 90 3291, DLJ, USDC, N.D.Cal., November 20] (LR-12709)
